EXINI's heart-product fast growing on the Japanese market - hits 300 installed units

Market penetration for the heart-product EXINI heart (cardioREPO in Japan) exceeds expectations. FUJIFILM RI Pharma Co. Ltd carries the exclusive rights for EXINI heart in Japan, and has over the past months installed 300 units of the software system cardioREPO in clinics throughout Japan.

"Japanese doctors show great interest in cardioREPO as we introduce it to them. The unique features and advanced functions have been developed over the past two years and stems from extensive input from Japanese physicians. The launch of cardioREPO in Japan provide both doctors and patients the possibility to benefit from this hard work", explains Takehiro Ishikawa, Product Manager, FUJIFILM RI Pharma.

"The collaboration with FUJIFILM RI Pharma is working well and the rate of installations continues to impress us", comments Magnus Aurell, CEO EXINI Diagnostics AB
