

BIO Juha Järvinen

Mr. Juha Järvinen, b. 1976, MBA joined Finnair in 2012 as Managing Director of Finnair Cargo. He has worked in aviation industry for 17 years and has extensive experience in airline sales and marketing, commercial operations, airport operations and air cargo. Prior to joining Finnair Juha Järvinen held several position within SAS Group in Sweden, Finland, Estonia and the UK, most recently as VP International Airport Operations in Stockholm.

Mr. Järvinen has studied leisure and tourism management in London Metropolitan University Business School and he has MBA in transport and logistics management and aviation from Danube University in Austria.

Mr. Järvinen is a member of Finnair Management Board. Since 2013, he is also a member of the Logistics Commission of Confederation of Finnish Industries (EK) in Helsinki. His past positions of trust include Board memberships in SAS EuroBonus Loyalty Program, Stockholm - 2009-2011, Star Alliance Management Board, Frankfurt – 2010-2011 and Finland Convention Bureau, Helsinki – 2010-2011.

Past positions:

SAS Scandinavian Airlines – Stockholm, Sweden
Vice President International Airport Operations
Period: May 2011 – May 2012

SAS Group - Blue1 - Helsinki, Finland
Chief Commercial Officer / Vice President Commercial
Period: August 2007 - April 2011

SAS Ground Services Finland Ltd - Helsinki, Finland
Managing Director & Area Airport Manager SAS Northeast Europe
Period: May 2006 – July 2007

SAS Group - Blue Travel Services Estonia Ltd - Tallinn, Estonia
Managing Director / General Manager
Period: November 2002 – April 2006

SAS Scandinavian Airlines - Helsinki, Finland
Manager Direct Sales Support & Development – Region North East Europe
Period: April 2002 – November 2002

SAS Scandinavian Airlines - Helsinki, Finland
Direct Sales Supervisor Finland
Period: December 2000 – April 2002

SAS Scandinavian Airlines - London, UK
Senior Telephone Sales & Servicing Agent
Period: June 1998 – December 2000