Peab Industri invests SEK 50 million in increasing paving stone production

Peab Industri has decided to invest SEK 50 million in a new paving stone production line at S:t Eriks plant in Uppsala. The investment is expected to be finalized in the fourth quarter of 2008.

S:t Eriks is a leading manufacturer of paving stones in Sweden. The purpose of the investment is to increase capacity and further enhance productivity in order to enable S:t Eriks to meet the rising demand.

“The investment will provide us with preconditions for profitable growth from the start of operations and is part of our effort to constantly improve and develop our business,” says CEO Mats O Paulsson.
