

17 October 2014 at 8 am

Marcus Hed new Business manager at Bygghuset

Marcus Hed has been named the new Business manager at Bygghuset, and member of the management team. As Business manager Marcus is responsible for store operations, customer service and new store development. He is currently regional manager of North in Sweden.

Marcus Hed has been named the new Business manager at Bygghuset, and member of the management team. As Business manager Marcus is responsible for store operations, customer service and new store development. He is currently regional manager of North in Sweden.

"Marcus Hed has worked nine years within Bygghuset, as store manager and regional manager. He is very experienced and respected within the organization, and we are happy that he has accepted the position as Store operations manager", says Magnus Agervald CEO.

"I am very happy to get this opportunity and I am looking forward to continue to improve Bygghuset together with all my colleagues", says Marcus Hed.

Mikael Bengtsson, former Store operations manager, is leaving Bygghuset by his own decision, to work in his own company as of January 1:st 2015. Mikael Bengtsson has worked 15 years within Bygghuset, and will be available as an advisor to the company.

"We thank Mikael for all his good work, and wish him all the best in the future", says Magnus Agervald.

Tilläggsinformation: Magnus Agervald, verkställande direktör, Bygghuset, Tel. 46 76 119 0020, e-post: magnus.agervald@byggmax.se