Nexstim Plc successfully completes its Initial Public Offering - subscriptions reach EUR 15.3 million with final offer price of EUR 6.35 per share

Helsinki, 4 November 2014 at 10:00 am

Nexstim Plc ("Nexstim" or the "Company") published its initial public offering (the "Offering") on 13 October 2014, in which the Company offered for subscription up to 2,873,563 new shares. The Company also announced that it will apply for listing of its shares on Nasdaq First North Finland and Nasdaq First North Sweden. The submission of the listing application was announced on 15 October 2014. On 30 October 2014 the number of offer shares was increased to 3,937,007 shares and the indicative price range was decreased to EUR 6.35-6.40 per share. Simultaneously, the subscription period was extended to 3 November 2014. The subscription period of the Offering ended on 3 November 2014 at 16:30 Finnish time (15:30 Swedish time).

On 3 November 2014 Nexstim's board of directors approved the subscriptions, the number and allocation of new shares to be issued, and the final offer price. The final offer price is EUR 6.35 per share. The Swedish krona denominated final offer price, as determined in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Offering, is SEK 58.92.

During the subscription period, investors subscribed for a total of 2,412,539 shares at the final offer price. The subscriptions were approved on the condition that the subscribed shares will be paid in accordance with the offer terms no later than on 7 November 2014. The Company will send allocation notices and payment instructions to the institutional investors and the Swedish retail investors who have been allocated shares as soon as possible. Finnish retail investors will be returned excess subscription payments in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Offering.

Nexstim has raised gross proceeds of EUR 15.3 million in the Offering (before deducting the expenses of the Offering payable by the Company). The Offering was conditional upon subscriptions reaching EUR 15 million, which has been fulfilled. Upon completion of the Offering, Nexstim has introduced 225 new shareholders, of whom approximately 9 % are institutional investors and approximately 91 % retail investors. Institutional investors were allocated approximately 95 % of the new shares and retail investors approximately 5 % of the new shares. Of the new shares, approximately 50 % will be listed on Nasdaq First North Finland and 50 % on Nasdaq First North Sweden. Of the new shares, approximately 48 % will be allocated to new Finnish investors, 34 % to new Swedish investors, and the remaining 18 % to other new international investors. The number of issued shares in the Company will increase to 7,134,958 shares in total. The above figures have been calculated assuming that all the shares subscribed for and allocated to investors will be paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Offering. The Company will appoint a liquidity provider as required by the rules of the First North which appointment will be announced separately.

Janne Huhtala, Nexstim's Chief Executive Officer, said: "The successful completion of our Initial Public Offering, with interest from investors in Finland, Sweden and internationally, marks a significant step for Nexstim, our technology and the Phase III multi-centre trial for NBT in stroke rehabilitation which continues to progress well. We are delighted to welcome our new investors and would like to thank them, and existing shareholders, for their support."
