

Exchange Notice

IT 98/14

IT – INET – Auction safeguards in opening and closing auctions on the Nasdaq Nordic and Nasdaq Baltic exchanges – information on testing

On December 1, 2014, Nasdaq Nordic and Nasdaq Baltic introduce a functionality to limit unexpected impact to opening or closing prices due to erroneous or extraordinary order entries during opening and closing auctions in the INET Nordic trading system. See IT Notice 80/14 for earlier communication.

Testing

Testing in OTF and GCF4 is available in all order books in scope. In order to facilitate testing, order flow to trigger extension to opening and closing is generated daily in the following order books:

Exchange	Symbol	Order book ID	ISIN	Market Segment
