The Nordic Exchange welcomes Cryptzone Group to First North

Today Cryptzone will be listed on First North in Stockholm. Cryptzone is the second company to be listed on First North in 2008 which now comprises 127 companies.

Cryptzone AB is market leader within the business of preventing information leakage. The goal is to supply security technology that users can and will use in order to increase the overall information security and minimize the risk of information leakage. With Cryptzone, users can secure e-mail, files, folders, disks, USB-memories and mobile units and still continue to work in the same way.

“We are pleased to welcome Cryptzone to First North and to the Information Technology sector,” says Jenny Rosberg, President of Company Services at OMX.

A round lot of shares in Cryptzone AB, whose short name is CZON B, amounts to 1000, and it belongs to the Information Technology sector.
