Press release

Recipharm releases the lock-up on 815,000 B-shares related to shares to be issued upon conversion of convertible bonds

In connection with the acquisition of Corvette Pharmaceutical Services Group completed on October 1, 2014, Recipharm AB (publ) ("Recipharm") issued convertible bonds with a nominal value of EUR 50 million as part of the financing of the acquisition. The convertible bonds can be converted into up to 5,030,549 class B-shares. The holders of the convertible bonds have agreed to a lock-up in respect of the new shares issued upon conversion until 14 February, 2015.

Recipharm has received a request and has released the lock-up on 815,000 B-shares related to shares to be issued upon conversion of the convertible bonds. The release of the lock-up has been granted to facilitate the sale of 815,000 class B-shares to three Swedish and Finnish long-only fund managers.

Together with yesterdays transaction Recipharm has released the lock-up on 2 115 000 class B-shares out of the total 5,030,549 mentioned above.
