

LEVERATOR PLC FINANCIAL STATEMENTS BULLETIN 1 JANUARY – 31 DECEMBER 2014Business

Leverator Plc's (Leverator) business consists of the issue of bonds and the grant of loans to CapMan Mezzanine IV L.P. mezzanine fund (CMM IV). Leverator's result is formed by the difference between interest received from CMM IV's loans and interest paid to bondholders. The issued bonds are listed on the Helsinki Exchanges (Nasdaq OMX Helsinki).

Bonds

Leverator has issued a serial loan with a fixed coupon interest of 8.162%. The bonds were issued in five tranches in accordance with the loan capital needed by CMM IV, and investors subscribed all five tranches according to their commitments. The final size of the bond totalled MEUR 192 on 18 June 2009. The final loan maturity is 21 June 2016. Leverator has a call option to repay the bonds or part thereof not earlier than 22 June 2009.

Leverator repaid 13.5%, equivalent of EUR 26,000,256, in accordance with the terms of the loan on 23 June 2014. The outstanding bond loan totalled EUR 70,313,856 on 30 December 2014.

Leverator's turnover for the accounting period was EUR 0, because the Company's interest earnings and interest expenses are presented as financial items in the income statement. Leverator's operating loss was EUR 83,079 (EUR 93,632 for the accounting period 1 January – 31 December 2013) and financial income and expenses totalled EUR 206,740 (EUR 280,196). The result for the accounting period was EUR 98,311 (EUR 140,856).

Leverator's solvency and risks

The security for the bonds is Leverator's receivable from CMM IV. The security for this receivable to Leverator is CMM IV's mezzanine loan receivables from portfolio companies as well as associated options and portfolio company shares that are possibly subscribed on the basis of those options.

Leverator's solvency to pay the bonds' interest and principal is based on CMM IV's solvency to pay the loan receivable and interest to Leverator. CMM IV's solvency is dependent on its mezzanine loan receivables from portfolio companies and on the value of associated options or shares as well as on CMM IV's right to call the commitments and clawback of the Fund's Limited Partners. The most significant risks or uncertainty factors in Leverator's operations are that the portfolio companies would not be able to pay their debt to the fund, that the fund's Limited Partners would not fulfil their obligations in accordance with fund agreement or that the fund's solvency would be put at risk due to some other cause.

An examination of CMM IV's solvency to manage the loan receivable to Leverator is first carried out in order to determine Leverator's solvency.

CMM IV's solvency 31 December 2014

	MEUR

Clawback at call	10.9
Total	63.7

* Figures by CMM IV's management company, as reported or with a discount.

 Excludes interest receivables that are outstanding or have accumulated that are not booked in the Fund's accounts because of the uncertainty whether they can be collected.

CMM IV's financial assets were €6.6 million below the total loan receivables of Leverator on 31 December 2014 and therefore the latter's receivable due from CMM IV presented below cannot be booked in full. CMM IV's financial assets exceeded the total loan receivables of Leverator by €7.2 million on 31 December 2013 and were below the total loan receivables by €6.2 million on 30 September 2014.

According to the management company the targeted exit valuations of CMM IV fund's mezzanine loans and associated options and shares are higher than their current valuation, and therefore the fund should be able to pay the loans back to Leverator Plc. However, in the current market conditions it is likely that reaching the targeted exit valuations requires extension of the loan terms and the holding period, which in turn means that the final loan payment will be postponed further than the loan's estimated maturity 21 June 2016. CMM IV has requested Leverator's Board of Directors to initiate negotiations about the extension of the maturity of the loan to Leverator and the bond with an aim to postpone the final loan payments by two years i.e. no later than 21 June 2018. The terms and the compensation related to the extension of the loan to Leverator and the bond are currently being negotiated with the bond holders. The extension requires approval from all bond holders.

The values given above are reported by CMM IV's management company. The management company's assessment of the value appreciation of mezzanine loans and associated options and shares is based on reporting principles common to the private equity industry. These principles aim at take into account risk factors caused by the general economic environment. The amount of commitments and clawback that the fund has a right to call from the Fund's Limited Partners is based on CMM IV's fund agreement.

Leverator's solvency 31 December 2014

	MEUR
Balance of bonds at nominal value	70.3
Leverator's receivable from CMM IV at nominal value	70.3
Net cash assets	1.0
CMM IV's solvency deficit	-6.6
Total	64.7

At current value Leverator's solvency is below the balance of the bonds'.

Leverator's more detailed financial position is presented in the income statement, balance sheet, statement of changes in equity and cash flow statement in Appendix 1. There are no exceptional liabilities of Leverator or CMM IV in the knowledge of Leverator's Board of Directors that should be considered in the above calculations.

Future outlook

Developments in the general market environment in the next few years may continue to cause difficulties in the ability of fund's portfolio companies to pay interest on their mezzanine loans and repay principal to the fund in accordance with original loan terms. Restrictions in the portfolio companies' senior loan agreements may in certain cases prevent the companies from meeting their interest payments in accordance with the original loan terms during 2015. The aforementioned issues might, in turn, weaken the fund's ability to meet its debt to Leverator Plc in full, which would affect Leverator Plc's solvency. It is possible that the fund's solvency weakens further during 2015.

According to the management company the targeted exit valuations of CMM IV fund's mezzanine loans and associated options and shares are higher than their current valuation, and therefore the fund should be able to pay the loans back to Leverator Plc. However, in the current market conditions it is likely that reaching the targeted exit valuations requires extension of the loan terms and the holding period, which in turn means that the final loan payment will be postponed further than the loan's estimated maturity 21 June 2016. CMM IV has requested Leverator's Board of Directors to initiate negotiations about the extension of the maturity of the loan to Leverator and the bond with an aim to postpone the final loan payments by two years i.e. no later than 21 June 2018. The terms and the compensation related to the extension of the loan to Leverator and the bond are currently being negotiated with the bond holders. The extension requires approval from all bond holders.

It is probable that Leverator Plc's interest earnings will cover its interest payable and other expenses in 2015.
