

Proffice appoints a new Director in Norway

Eivind Bøe is taking up the position as new Director of the Proffice Group's business in Norway.

"Norway is an important market for the Proffice Group, and I'm delighted that we will have a strong leader in place. Eivind Bøe will develop the business with our existing clients and create opportunities to find new ones," says Henrik Højsgaard, President and CEO of the Proffice Group.

Eivind Bøe will take up his position during the second half of February and become a member of Group Management at Proffice Group, with responsibility for both Proffice and Dfind companies in Norway. He joins the company from a position as MD of OneCo Technologies AS.

Eivind Bøe is 48 years old and has extensive managerial experience from various industries. Among other things, he was MD of Ramirent for five years, and before that he was MD of Altima and Head of Siemens Security Systems Norway. Bøe has also been CEO of the Dekk1 chain. He has had assignments as interim manager, worked as a consultant and held various senior positions within the Norwegian Armed Forces. Eivind Bøe has an MBA from the Norwegian School of Economics and qualified as an operations officer at the Royal Norwegian Naval Academy.

"I'm really delighted to be able to work for Proffice Group, which does an important job for both clients and employees. There are experts here who are the very best in matching the right person with the right job, at the right time. Many of Norway's most successful companies are already clients of Proffice, which is proof of the quality that the company currently delivers. We will now further develop our offering, as I hope both existing and new clients will discover," says Eivind Bøe.
