Company announcement No. 5/2015

26 February 2015

Accusations of price manipulation dropped

The Danish Public Prosecutor for Serious Economic and International Crime (SØIK) has today informed Danske Bank A/S that the accusations of price manipulation brought against Danske Bank A/S on 7 February 2014 are dropped.

The accusations were brought against Danske Bank, Realkredit Danmark and six employees. Company announcement No. 2 dated 7 February 2014 provides more information. SØIK subsequently dropped accusations brought against two managers. Thus all accusations brought against Danske Bank A/S on 7 February 2014 have now been dropped.

“We have cooperated with the authorities during their investigation, and we note SØIK’s decision,” says Flemming Pristed, Group General Counsel at Danske Bank.
