Full Tilt launches NetEnt's online casino games

In April 2014, NetEnt signed an agreement with Rational Group to deliver online casino games and services to their Full Tilt platform. Rational Group is the largest online poker operator globally and after a successful integration process, a selection of NetEnt's game portfolio is now live and available in Full Tilt's new casino offering.

"We are proud to be partners with Rational Group, the largest online poker operator in the world, and we are pleased to be the first supplier to launch within their new casino channel. With Rational Group our games reach an entirely new player base, which are now being offered the ultimate player experience." – comments Enrico Bradamante, MD of NetEnt Malta Ltd and Chief of European Market Operations.

About Full Tilt

Full Tilt is a leading gaming brand known for delivering some of the most innovative online poker games in the world. It is home to the revolutionary poker formats of 'Rush Poker' and 'Adrenaline Rush,' which offer its players fast-paced, quick-fold gameplay on both desktop and mobile.

There are two Full Tilt licensed sites – FullTilt.com, which operates in various countries around the world under license from the Isle of Man; and FullTilt.eu, which operates in European markets under license from Malta. In 2014, Full Tilt began expanding its game portfolio by adding a variety of slot offerings and a range of single- and multi-player variations of Blackjack and Roulette.

Full Tilt was relaunched in November 2012 under new ownership of Rational Group, which also operates PokerStars, the world's largest online poker site. In 2012, 2013 and 2014, Rational Group companies in the UK and Isle of Man won recognition as one of the best workplaces in the UK, being awarded a top 25 position by the Great Place to Work Institute's Best Workplaces – Large category rankings. Rational Group entities in Costa Rica and Dublin also achieved the same accolade in their respective local rankings in 2014. Full Tilt is owned by Amaya Inc. (TSX: AYA).
