Rejlers recruits Jenny Edfast as Division Manager for Electric Power in Sweden

Jenny Edfast will become the new Division Manager for Electric Power in Rejlers Sweden starting from 8th August. Jenny joins us from Pöyry, where she is Managing Director of Pöyry Swedpower. Martin Angbjär will be the acting Division Manager until Jenny's arrival.

Jenny was born in 1975 and has a M.Sc in Industrial Technology and Management. She has great experience in leading operations within the energy industry. She has held positions as MD and Team Manager in both state organisations and listed companies. For example, Jenny has previously worked as Business Area Manager for Power Networks at Vattenfall Power Consultant.

"I am very pleased that Jenny will be starting as Division Manager here at Rejlers. Energy is one of our important growth areas. Jenny's expertise within the energy sector and her experience of leadership will be a major asset in the development towards our long-term objectives," says Peter Rejler, President and CEO.

"I feel great joy to become a part of Rejlers which I see as a leading technical consultant company with dedicated employees and satisfied customers," says Jenny Edfast.
