West Atlantic awarded contract for four B737-400 aircraft by DHL

After concluding its network procurement process DHL has announced that West Atlantic has been awarded four new long-term B737-400 operations during 2015. The Group is currently sourcing capacity to be able to efficiently phase in the requirement, the estimated phase in period is set to six months. Two of the awarded operations are upgrades to existing routes already operated by the Group with BAe ATP aircraft that will now be deployed elsewhere in commercial operations.

“This award marks the Group’s entry as a committed provider of dedicated B737 capacity to DHL. Concluding this contract award provides the Group with the opportunity to further capitalise on its strategic growth with the B737 platform. The Group organisation is dedicated to delivering a quality operation to our customers”, says Gustaf Thureborn, CEO and President.
