Safe Harbor statements as to the future

Matters discussed in this release may constitute forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and financial performance and may include statements concerning plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events or performance, and underlying assumptions and statements other than statements of historical facts. The Company desires to take advantage of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and is including this cautionary statement in connection with this safe harbor legislation. The words "believe," "anticipate," "intend," "estimate," "forecast," "project," "plan," "potential," "may," "should," "expect," "pending" and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking statements in this release are based upon various assumptions, many of which are based, in turn, upon further assumptions, including without limitation, management's examination of historical operating trends, data contained in our records and other data available from third parties. Although the Company believes that these assumptions were reasonable when made, because these assumptions are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies which are difficult or impossible to predict and are beyond our control, the Company cannot guarantee that it will achieve or accomplish these expectations, beliefs or projections.

Important factors that, in our view, could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements include the strength of the world economy and currencies, changes in charter hire rates and vessel values, changes in demand for "ton miles" of oil carried by oil tankers, the effect of changes in OPEC's petroleum production levels and worldwide oil consumption and storage, changes in demand that may affect attitudes of time charterers to scheduled and unscheduled dry-docking, changes in TORM's operating expenses, including bunker prices, dry-docking and insurance costs, changes in the regulation of shipping operations, including requirements for double hull tankers or actions taken by regulatory authorities, potential liability from pending or future litigation, domestic and international political conditions, potential disruption of shipping routes due to accidents, political events or acts by terrorists.

Forward-looking statements are based on management's current evaluation, and TORM is only under an obligation to update and change the listed expectations to the extent required by law.

Since the Annual General Meeting held on 26 March 2015, a Restructuring Agreement has been agreed between the Company, Oaktree and a majority of the lenders holding in aggregate 94% of TORM's existing loan facilities by value. As part of the implementation of the Restructuring of TORM pursuant to the Restructuring Agreement, the Company's lenders and Oaktree have requested that the Company shall convene a general meeting to approve certain corporate governance terms which the Company's lenders and Oaktree have agreed must be incorporated in the Company's Articles of Association prior to completion of the restructuring of TORM. The purpose of the EGM is thus to amend the Articles of Association of the Company in accordance with such corporate governance terms which have been negotiated between the Company's lenders and Oaktree as the future majority shareholder of TORM as part of the Restructuring Agreement.

Agenda and complete proposals

Enclosed please find the notice of and the complete proposals for the EGM including the proposed amended version of the Articles of Association of the Company which reflect all proposed amendments to the Articles of Association as agreed between the Company's lenders and Oaktree.
