

PRESS RELEASE

28 August 2015

Kristian Aceby has been appointed Chief Financial Officer of Lindab Group

Kristian Aceby brings more than 14 years of experience within finance. He has a strong foundation starting with audit, followed by business-oriented positions within Autoliv and Coop. Kristian joins Lindab from a position as Vice President Corporate Control at Autoliv Inc., the worldwide leader in automotive safety.

“I am delighted to announce Kristian Aceby as Lindab’s next CFO. He is a highly capable finance professional with the ability to drive a business oriented CFO agenda. He brings with him solid experience from finance within the manufacturing industry, lean management, and projects to drive long-term competitiveness. Through his career, Kristian has also had considerable exposure related to financial reporting to capital markets with Autoliv being listed both in the US and in Sweden”, says Anders Berg, President and CEO of Lindab Group.

Kristian Aceby will assume his position during Q4 2015 and be located in Grevie, Sweden.

Kristian Aceby will be a member of the Executive Management Team.
