Solna, 31 August 2015

ICA to establish new head office in Arenastaden

ICA has signed an agreement with Fabege on new premises for its head office, in Arenastaden in Solna. This means that ICA's employees who today work at various offices in Solna Business Park, in IT-huset in Sundbyberg, and in Apotek Hjärtat's offices in Solna centrum, will be gathered together in the same building. The preliminary date for the move to the new offices is 1 July 2018.

ICA currently works from three office locations in Solna and Sundbyberg, and has therefore been conducting a review of its premises for some time. Last autumn an evaluation was conducted of the alternative to expand the offices in Solna Business Park or to move to a new property. It has now been decided that ICA will move to new premises in the Signalen block of Arenastaden in Solna.

“We have wanted to gather our employees in Stockholm in a single office for some time,” comments Petra Albuschus, Senior Vice President Human Resources for ICA Gruppen. “We have now found a solution that we are very satisfied with. We will remain in the same area, can gather our employees in a better way, and will obtain modern and environmentally certified offices.”
