Deputy CEO and CFO Jørn P. Jensen leaves the Carlsberg Group

The Carlsberg Group today announces that Jørn P. Jensen, Deputy CEO and CFO will leave the company by end of September 2015.

Chairman of the Supervisory Board, Flemming Besenbacher says: "With a new CEO well on board it has been agreed between the Supervisory Board and Jørn P. Jensen that now is the right time for a change for all parties. I would like to thank Jørn P. Jensen for his very significant contributions to the transformation of Carlsberg from a small regional brewery to its current international position during his 15 years with the company, and I wish him every success in the future."

Deputy CEO and CFO Jørn P. Jensen says: "Carlsberg is a fantastic company with a great heritage and a prosperous future. However, now is the right time for change for the company and for me. I will always remember the great teams and employees in the Group, the many great partners and stakeholders, and I will continue to follow Carlsberg with interest."

A search for a successor will be initiated. Jørn P. Jensen has agreed to be available for the next months to finish a number of projects and to hand over to a new Group CFO.
