Fig. 3. : The Typical and Actual Graphs Representing the Maturity Period

The Typical Graphs Representing the Maturity Period
High Score $\begin{aligned} & \text { Scores stabilize. } \\ & \text { Relevant documents } \\ & \text { cluster on the top right } \\ & \text { while not relevant } \\ & \text { move to the bottom } \\ & \text { left. } \\ & \text { ©Auditor marks email "not relevant" }\end{aligned}$ ©Auditor marks email "relevant"

Maturity Period (Day 24 to Day 59)

- Auditor marks email "not relevant" © Auditor marks email "relevant"

Notes: The number of days covering the growth period is set as an example and differ with each case study.

