

PRESS RELEASE

Lagercrantz acquires Landauer Nordic

Lagercrantz Group has acquired all shares in the Swedish company Landauer Nordic AB.

Landauer Nordic develops and sells products and services for radon monitoring. The company's products are mainly sold via resellers and distributors of monitoring products and monitoring services. The company's head office is in Uppsala and it has a subsidiary in Chicago, USA. Landauer Nordic generates annual sales of about MSEK 40 with good profitability.

"At Lagercrantz, we want to build businesses with leading market positions in attractive niches. Landauer Nordic is one of the leading players in its niche in the Nordic region and in the USA. The business has displayed a stable and good performance for several years and the company will be another strong unit in the Communications division with its focus on control technology," says Jörgen Wigh, President & CEO of Lagercrantz Group.

Karl Nilsson, CEO of Landauer Nordic: "We have been working with radon monitoring for a long time. Our proprietary products and quality focus is highly regarded by customers all over the world. With Lagercrantz, Landauer Nordic will get good opportunities to develop in order to meet our customers' future needs."

Landauer Nordic forms part of the Lagercrantz Communications division as from September 2015. The acquisition is expected to generate a small positive addition to the Group's earnings per share on an annual basis. The seller of the company is Landauer Inc, USA, listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE:LDR).
