

The Stockholm District Court adopts the composition plan and approves PA Resources' request for termination of the corporate reorganisation

At today's composition proceedings at the Stockholm District Court a qualified majority of the creditors chose to support the proposed composition plan put forward by PÅ Resources AB ("the company") and the administrator whereby the court could adopt the composition proposal. The court's decision will become final and binding on the 24 October 2015.

In conjunction with the court's decision the company chose to submit a request for termination of the corporate reorganisation on the grounds that the purpose of the corporate reorganisation has been fulfilled through the adoption of the composition proposal. The court approved the company's request whereby the corporate reorganisation will be terminated when the composition becomes final and binding on the 24 October 2015.
