West Atlantic announces third B767 aircraft enters service

West Atlantic are pleased to announce that a third B767 has successfully entered service under a multi-year agreement with a Global Integrator. The aircraft is the third to have been supplied to West Atlantic by Cargo Aircraft Management, a division of strategic partner, Air Transport Services Group.

Operated by West Air Sweden the aircraft (SE-RLC) joins its sister ships (SE-RLA, SE-RLB) which both entered service in during 2015.

"The B767 is the most efficient freighter in its class. Its unbeatable combination of economics and operational efficiency provides excellent opportunity for our customers to outsource their medium widebody requirements and we warmly welcome this third aircraft to our fleet" – says Gustaf Thureborn, CEO and President.
