

Christoffersson and Sundberg to retire

Tage Christoffersson, Head of Business Development at Castellum AB (publ), and Christer Sundberg, Managing Director of Harry Sjögren AB, a wholly owned subsidiary of Castellum AB, will retire in 2016. Both have served as integral elements of Castellum since the corporation was founded in the 1990's.

Tage Christoffersson has been Head of Business Development at Castellum since 2013. From 1995, he was Managing Director of Eklandia Fastighets AB, one of Castellum's six wholly owned subsidiaries. Tage will carry out his duties until the end of the year, and a successor has yet to be appointed.

Christer Sundberg has been Managing Director of Harry Sjögren AB since 1993, and will continue with his duties until his retirement, sometime this spring. A successor has yet to be appointed.

"I'd like to thank both Tage and Christer for their whole-hearted and long commitment", says Henrik Saxborn, CEO of Castellum AB. "Their tireless efforts have significantly contributed to Castellum's successes as well as to the development of western Sweden".
