

OMX signs Memorandum of Understanding with Shenzhen Stock Exchange

OMX has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the Shenzhen Stock Exchange.

The Memorandum of Understanding includes OMX and Shenzhen Stock Exchange cooperating through the exchange of information to develop the financial services industry in the Nordic and Baltic region and the People's Republic of China, respectively and to assist in the maintenance of well-functioning securities markets.

Magnus Böcker, CEO OMX, says: "We hope that this agreement will enable a fruitful cooperation regarding the exchange of information from which we can draw mutual inspiration to make further developments on our markets."

Shenzhen Stock Exchange first opened its doors in December 1990. In 2006, Shenzhen Stock Exchange had over 600 listed companies and an average daily turnover of approximately 1,753 million USD. The value of share trading (electronic order book trades) increased 274% from 154,251 million USD in 2005 to 422,639 million USD in 2006.
