

Stock Exchange Release no. 13/2007

Kgs. Lyngby, 9 October 2007

This is a translation into English of the original stock exchange release in Danish. In case of discrepancies between the two texts, the Danish text shall prevail.

The Hartmann Foundation has received an offer for its share portfolio

Brødrene Hartmann A/S has today received a copy of a letter from Lactosan-Sanovo Holding A/S owned by Thor Stadil addressed to the Brødrene Hartmann Foundation. In the letter Thor Stadil offers to acquire the Foundation's total share portfolio in Brødrene Hartmann A/S.

The Brødrene Hartmann Foundation owns all the A and AA shares in Brødrene Hartmann A/S, corresponding to a stake of 12% and 58% of the votes.

Thor Stadil is a shareholder in Brødrene Hartmann A/S and owns more than 5% of the shares. In April 2007 his company Lactosan-Sanovo Holding A/S signed an agreement with Brødrene Hartmann A/S for the acquisition of Hartmann's activities in South America. The agreement was previously described in stock exchange release no. 8/2007, 9/2007 and 11/2007.

Hartmann considers the letter as a matter between Lactosan-Sanovo Holding A/S and the Foundation.
