- (2) The Annual General Meeting shall be held every year not later than April 29 and shall be called by not less than 14 days' nor more than 28 days' notice.
- (3) Extraordinary General Meetings, which are held by resolution of the Board of Directors, one of the Auditors or by the Annual General Meeting, shall be called by not less than 8 days' nor more than 28 days' notice.
- (4) Whenever, for the consideration of a specified subject, shareholders holding at least one-tenth of the share capital shall so request in writing, an Extraordinary General Meeting shall be convened within fourteen days of receipt of the pertinent request and in other respects in accordance with Sub-articles (1) and (3) above.

7

- (1) Any shareholder shall be entitled to propose resolutions for consideration and adoption at the Company's General Meetings. In order to be submitted at the Annual General Meeting any resolutions to be proposed shall be in writing and shall be submitted to the Board of Directors no later than seven weeks before the Annual General Meeting.

8

- (1) At least eight days before any General Meeting, the agenda and the complete wording of the resolutions to be proposed at the General Meeting and, in the case of the Annual General Meetings, moreover copies of the audited Annual Report shall be available for the inspection of shareholders at the Company's offices and, at the same time, be submitted to any shareholder entered in the Register of Shareholders who has so requested.

9

- (1) The audited Annual Report shall be submitted at the Annual General Meeting.
- (2) The agenda for the Annual General Meeting shall include the following business:
 1. The Board of Directors' report on the activities of the Company during the preceding year.
 2. The presentation of the Annual Report together with a resolution for its adoption.
 3. A resolution to discharge the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors from their obligations in respect of the financial statements.
 4. A resolution regarding appropriation of profit or the covering of any loss, as the case may be, according to the Annual Report as adopted.
 5. Election of members of the Board of Directors and alternates, if any.
 6. Election of Auditor.
 7. Any proposals from shareholders or the Board of Directors.

10

- (1) Any shareholder shall be entitled to attend the General Meeting if at least five days before the date of the General Meeting he has made a request for an admission card at the Company's head office during ordinary office hours or in another way as stated in the notice. Such admission card, which specifies the number of votes held by the shareholder, shall be issued to anyone recorded in the Register of Shareholders as a shareholder, or to a shareholder who gives notice of and produces evidence to the Company of his rights by presenting a transcript of statement of account which must not be older than from the last year-end, from the Danish Securities Centre or a bank (the bank with which the custody account is held) as evidence of his shareholding, declaring at the same time that the shareholder has not disposed of the shares during the period from the date of the transcript of the said statement of account, and will not dispose of the said shares before the General Meeting.
- (2) Each share amount of DKK 5 shall entitle the holder to one vote.
- (3) A shareholder shall be entitled to issue an instrument of proxy to another person for use at a General Meeting. The instrument of proxy may not be issued for a period of more than 12 months, and the proxy holder shall produce a written and dated instrument of proxy.

11

- (1) General Meetings shall be presided over by a chairman elected by the Board of Directors. The Chairman thus elected shall decide all matters relating to proceedings and the voting.

12

- (1) All business transacted at a General Meeting shall be subject to adoption by a simple majority of votes; see, however, sections 78 and 79 of the Danish Companies Act.

13

- (1) Brief minutes of the proceedings at the General Meeting shall be recorded in a minute book authorized for such purpose by the Board of Directors. The said minute book shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting.

The Board of Directors and the Executive Committee14

- (1) The Board of Directors of the Company shall consist of three to eight members. In addition, there shall be the number of members who may be elected in accordance with the rules of the Danish Companies Act concerning employee representation. The Board of Directors shall elect a Chairman and a Vice Chairman.
- (2) The Board of Directors shall be elected by the shareholders at the Annual General Meeting for a term of 12 months. Thus, their term of office shall expire at the end of the Annual General Meeting held 12 months after their election. Retiring members shall be eligible for re-election.
- (3) The general meeting can elect three to eight alternates; one alternate for each Board member elected by the general meeting. In addition there shall be the number of alternates who may be elected in accordance with the rules of the Danish Companies Act concerning employee representation. The alternates replace the board members in case of absence. Subarticle two applies by analogy for the alternates.

- (1) The Board of Directors and the Executive Committee shall give general supervision and direction to the affairs of the Company.
- (2) All members of the Board of Directors shall have equal voting rights, and all resolutions shall be passed by an absolute majority of the total number of Board members. The Board of Directors shall form a quorum when the majority of its members are present. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside over the board meetings in accordance with the rules of procedure laid down by the Board of Directors governing the discharge of its duties. In the absence of the Chairman the Vice Chairman shall act as Chairman.
- (3) The proceedings at board meetings shall be recorded in a minute book. Such minutes shall be signed by all Directors present.

16

- (1) The Board of Directors shall appoint an Executive Committee of two to seven members to manage the day-to-day affairs of the Company. The Executive Committee shall ensure that the Company's books are kept in compliance with the pertinent rules laid down by legislation and that asset management is subject to the appropriate control. The terms of service for the Executive Committee shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

- (2) The Executive Committee shall be in charge of the day-to-day management of the Company and, in doing so shall comply with the guidelines and directions issued by the Board of Directors. All matters of material importance to the Company, including the determination of operating and capital budgets, dividend policy, material transactions regarding the acquisition or sale of assets, the principles regarding the acquisition or sale of the Company assets in the ordinary area of business and the Company's incurring of debt obligations, shall be submitted by the Executive Committee to the Board of Directors for approval, unless Board approval can not be obtained without considerable inconveniences to the Company's business.

- (1) The Board of Directors shall ensure that the Company's activities are managed appropriately and that the functions of bookkeeping and asset management are subject to the appropriate control, with due consideration being paid to the Company's business situation.

18

- (1) The Company shall be bound by the joint signatures of the Chairman of the board and a director or a manager, by the joint signatures of any two members of the Executive Committee or by the joint signatures of the entire Board of Directors.
- (2) Without limiting the scope of the Company's signatory rule, cf. article 18(1), no director acting solely in its capacity as such, shall have the right, power or authority to act as an agent of the Company, to bind the Company or to execute any documents to be signed by the Company unless expressly authorized in writing by the Board of Directors or a committee thereof.

Financial Statements; Audit

- (1) The Company's fiscal year shall run from 1 January to 31 December. The initial accounting reference period shall end on 31 December 1991.
