Large US healthcare organizations continue to put trust in Sectra ProMedica Health System signs a multi-year agreement with Sectra

ProMedica Health System has selected the IT and medical-technology company Sectra as their provider for PACS products and services. ProMedica, which spans 27 counties throughout Ohio and Michigan, is one of the largest integrated health systems in the United States.

Throughout the five year agreement, Sectra will supply PACS products and direct service and support to ProMedica Health System. ProMedica Health System owns or operates nine hospitals, accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation on Healthcare Organizations. Together these hospitals have more than 2,900 physicians and 15,000 employees that meet the needs of more than 2.5 million patients annually.

“ProMedica has a history of delivering high quality care and exceptional service to their extensive patient population,” said Dr. John Goble, President of Sectra in North America. “Sectra has a similar commitment to exceptional service and product performance, which continues to be validated by healthcare organizations across the U.S. who choose Sectra as their PACS product and service provider.”

“ProMedica Health System is looking forward to working with Sectra to continue delivering the most efficient and high quality patient care available,” says Tom DellaFlora, Vice President, Information Services, at ProMedica Health System.

In addition to direct sales efforts, Sectra continues to offer direct PACS service and support agreements to any customers who previous have purchased Sectra products through partners.

About ProMedica Health System

ProMedica Health System, a locally owned, not-for-profit health care organization, was formed in Toledo, Ohio, in 1986. Since its inception, ProMedica has grown into one of the nation's most integrated health systems.

ProMedica is comprised of over 70 corporations and joint ventures, serving 27 counties throughout northwest and west central Ohio, and southeast Michigan. It is comprised of ten hospitals and more than 282 sites. More than 2.5 million patients are served by ProMedica annually and are cared for by more than 2,900 physicians.

Continually striving to be the best in health care, ProMedica serves its communities through five divisions—ProMedica Ambulatory and Acute Care; ProMedica Physician Group; ProMedica Health, Education and Research Corporation; ProMedica Continuing Care Services Corporation; and ProMedica Insurance Corporation.
