

Clas Ohlson launches Cocraft Pro Edition – tools for home improvers with high demands

Clas Ohlson's brand new range of tools, Cocraft Pro Edition, is now available at www.clasohlson.com and within the next couple of days, the products will reach the store network. The new range consists of tools for the home improver with higher demands on quality and functionality, and is developed for more difficult tasks.

"Our customers have appreciated our tools in the Cocraft LXC series, and we saw an opportunity to follow our customers towards more demanding projects with a range of more advanced tools and machines. This is why we now are launching the Cocraft Pro Edition, which is made to be used also for bigger home improvement projects", says Eva Berg, head of assortment at Clas Ohlson.

Initially, more than 40 Cocraft Pro Edition products will be available in the assortment; from gardening machines like grass – and hedge trimmers to power tools such as power drills, tiger saws, angle grinders and hammer drills.

"We have worked hard to make sure that all Pro Edition products are of high quality and has high performance at an affordable price. We have a five year guarantee on the Pro Edition machines and a ten year guarantee on the Pro Edition hand tools, which I think shows how much we believe in these products", says Eva Berg.
