

IXONOS' NEW HEADQUARTERS

Ixonos Plc's ("Ixonos") headquarters will move to a new address, Arkadiankatu 2, 00100 Helsinki at latest by 31 October 2016. The lessor of the premises is Alko Oy. The lease agreement is valid for three years and will be automatically renew with a six-month notice period.

The new headquarters is located centrally and it strengthens re-building the company through recognition and a positive employer image. Easy access for both customers and employees has been considered when selecting the location. The company wants to be in the center of events when creating a new exciting future.

When designing the new premises the comfort of the employees will be considered. The design will also allow the know-how of the employees to do itself justice.

In addition to improving the comfort of both employees and customers by changing the headquarters' premises, Ixonos receives approximately EUR 500.000 annual savings from the beginning of 2017.
