INVISIO receives order from existing army customer within NATO

INVISIO (IVSO) has received an order for communication systems with hearing protection and related equipment from one of the company's existing army customers within NATO. The order value amounts to approximately SEK 6.5 million and deliveries will take place during the second half of 2016.

"For a number of years we have had recurring orders from this customer and are pleased that they are continuing to supply their units with our systems. This is a great testimonial, confirming that we have both the technology and expertise our customers need," says Lars Højgård Hansen, CEO of INVISIO.

The order consists of the communications system INVISIO V60 with the headset X5 for use with the customer's existing radio equipment. The system ensures a good hearing protection while the wearer is able to communicate and maintain situational awareness.
