

Ulrik Svensson appointed as CFO of Lufthansa and leaves MSAB at the end of the year

Ulrik Svensson, CEO of MSAB, has decided to leave his position and return to the industry and corporate group he once came from as CFO of Lufthansa. Ulrik Svensson will remain in his position until the end of the year and a process of recruiting a new CEO will be initiated.

Ulrik Svensson was appointed CEO of MSAB in 2006 in connection with the initial public offering.

- It has been a great pleasure working with Ulrik in our MSAB team over the past 10 years. I would like to thank him for the time together with us and I wish him good luck with his new challenge, says Melker Schörling, Chairman of the Board.
- It has been fantastic to have taken part of this journey during the past 10 years as a public company and to have had the opportunity to work closely with Melker and the very professional network around him, says Ulrik Svensson, CEO.
