

Rating Action: Moody's affirms HMN Naturgas I/S Aaa debt rating

Global Credit Research - 26 Aug 2016

London, 26 August 2016 -- Moody's Public Sector Europe ("MPSE") has today affirmed the Aaa rating on HMN Naturgas I/S (HMN Naturgas) long-term senior unsecured debt rating and the (P)Aaa/(P)P-1 long-term and short-term ratings on the MTN program. Today's rating affirmation is a consequence of the continued strong creditworthiness of the Government of Denmark (Aaa, Stable) as it continues to provide oversight and support to a robust local government sector. Moody's has also assigned a Aaa long-term rating on its senior unsecured NOK310mn bond issuance. The outlook is stable.

RATINGS RATIONALE

HMN Naturgas' credit quality is driven by (1) the fact that the 57 partner municipalities are jointly and severally liable for all of the obligations of HMN Naturgas, and (2) our evaluation of the creditworthiness of these municipalities, which are part of a strong integrated system that is closely linked to the Danish Government. Moody's consequently views that the creditworthiness of HMN Naturgas and its member municipalities is closely linked to the Aaa Danish sovereign. The significance of the joint and several guarantee, involving over half of all Danish municipalities, leads to an expectation of near certain extraordinary support from the central government.

RATIONALE FOR THE STABLE OUTLOOK

The stable outlook on HMN Naturgas reflects the stable outlook on the Danish sovereign.

WHAT COULD CHANGE THE RATING --- UP / DOWN

Negative pressure on the rating could result from one or a combination of the following: (1) a downgrade in Denmark's sovereign rating, (2) a weakening of the ties between the local government sector and the sovereign, (3) a weakening of the joint and several guarantee following the unlikely privatisation of the business, (4) an increase in commercial activity via debt that is not issued under the joint and several guarantee.

Moody's considers HMN Naturgas to be a government-related issuer. Its rating is derived primarily from the strength of the Government of Denmark without assigning a Baseline Credit Assessment (BCA), as is described in Moody's rating methodology for government-related issuers.

The principal methodology used in these ratings was Government-Related Issuers published in October 2014. Please see the Ratings Methodologies page on www.moody.com for a copy of this methodology.
