

GHP Specialty Care recruits new CFO

Philip Delborn assumes the position of CFO of GHP Specialty Care AB (publ) (GHP) on 15 November 2016. Philip has long experience of successful work in the health care sector.

Philip Delborn has worked in different roles at Unilabs since 2003, his most recent position being that of CEO of Unilabs Sweden. Previous roles included those of Business Controller and Business Area Manager. He combines a good understanding of the business field with a genuine knowledge of economics and finance. Philip is 40 years old and has a Bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of Gothenburg.

"We are very pleased that Philip is taking on the role of CFO at GHP. He comes with very strong recommendations as a good leader with a good understanding of both business and co-workers. I am convinced that he will be a very strong addition to our management team and that he is the right person to continue developing our Finance function and our business focus," says Daniel Öhman, CEO of GHP.

Philip replaces GHP's Acting CFO Susanna Laursen, who has temporarily held the role after the previous CFO, Tobias Linebäck, became the Head of GHP International.

GHP is an internationally active health care provider that operates specialist clinics in a select number of diagnostic areas through the application of a business model that is unique in the health care industry, where leading doctors become partners and shareholders. Each clinic specialises in a particular patient group, and this leads to increased efficiency and higher quality. This is the cornerstone of GHP's business philosophy – "Quality through specialisation". GHP shares are traded on the Small Cap list of Nasdaq Stockholm under the ticker symbol "GHP".
