

Expanding memberships and influx of new members on the Nordic Exchange

The Nordic Exchange is presently seeing an influx of new members, and existing members are expanding their memberships to include more markets in order to enjoy the advantages of the OMX Nordic Exchange membership. All in all eight new members have joined the Nordic Exchange and 13 members have expanded their membership this year.

”It is a pleasure to see the continuously increasing interest in achieving direct trading access to the Nordic Exchange expressed by Nordic as well as non-Nordic securities houses. We have created a market of such size that we are now a leader in several industries, including paper, fashion and IT,” says Jukka Ruuska, President of Nordic Marketplaces at OMX.

Over the summer the Amsterdam-based brokerage house All Options B.V. has joined the Nordic Exchange in Stockholm and Helsinki. In addition, today we welcome Norwegian Artic Securities ASA as a new member in Stockholm. During September, Flow Traders from Amsterdam will join the Danish, Finnish and Swedish markets and become the ninth new member on OMX Nordic Exchange.

Moreover, BNP Paribas, Paris, and IMC, Amsterdam, which were already members in Stockholm and Helsinki, have extended their membership of the Nordic Exchange to include the Danish market. In July, Saga Capital Investment Bank hf and NordVest Securities Ltd – both based in Iceland - have expanded their membership to Stockholm and Helsinki. Van der Moolen has had access to the Finnish market and in July they have expanded their membership to include the Swedish equity market. Last week Van der Moolen joined the Danish market and will soon add on the Icelandic market. EIK Bank A/S based in Copenhagen expended its membership to OMX Nordic Exchange Iceland in July and to Stockholm as of August 27, 2007.

Moreover, All Options is going to broaden its activities to also cover the Danish equity market within short time.

Today, there are 162 banks and brokerage firms trading on one or more markets within OMX Nordic Exchange.
