

Janne Muttonen will resign from his position as Pampalo Mine Resident Manager

Endomines announced today that Pampalo Gold Mine Resident Manager Janne Muttonen has tendered his resignation from his position effective 26th January 2017. Janne Muttonen has been working as the resident manager for the Pampalo operations since November 2010.

The search for a new Resident Manager will start immediately. Until such time a successor has been employed by Endomines, Janne Muttonen will continue to serve as the resident manager of the Pampalo Operations for a period of up to 3 months.

“We are thankful for Janne’s leadership over the past six years as the company has undergone a successful transformation from a construction project to an operating gold mine” , comments Markus Ekberg, CEO of the Endomines.
