Anoto Group AB receives order of 10.000 pen licenses from Japanese partner Order- Made Souyaku (“OMS”)

Anoto’s Japanese subsidiary has received an order of 10,000 pen licenses from its Japanese partner OMS. OMS designs electronic medical record and clinical research systems for the Japanese healthcare and pharmaceutical industry.

The order is based on up-front payment.

“We are very happy to announce Anoto’s largest pen license order so far. We have for some time experienced increased business activities in the Forms Solution sector and this strengthens our conviction that the strategy to focus on Forms Solutions is right,” says Anders Norling, CEO, Anoto Group AB.
