

PRESS RELEASE

21 June 2007

SWECO acquires company in Norway

SWECO's subsidiary SWECO Grøner has acquired the northern Norwegian engineering consultancy NNBK Finmark with 14 employees.

NNBK Finmark has a strong market position in northern Norway and offers consultant services as planning, design and construction management. The company has offices in Alta and Hammerfest.

Earlier this year SWECO acquired the northern Norwegian consultancy AT Consult with 27 employees.

– We continue to grow in northern Norway. Through the acquisitions of NNBK and AT Consult we have strengthened our market position in this important region, says Vibecke Hverven, Managing Director SWECO Grøner.

SWECO Grøner is one of Norway's leading consulting engineering companies, with close to 600 employees. The company offers consulting services in energy, water and environment, structural engineering, transport and civil engineering, as well as building service systems.

Since 2006 SWECO has acquired five companies in Norway.

SWECO is the Nordic region's leading provider of consulting services with combined expertise in engineering, environmental technology and architecture. SWECO has around 4,500 employees in eight countries and recorded annual sales of approximately SEK 3.9 billion in 2006. The company has projects currently underway in some 75 countries worldwide. The SWECO share is quoted on the Stockholm Stock Exchange.
