TeliaSonera owned Cygate closes transaction and acquires Dimension Data Sweden

TeliaSonera owned Cygate has closed the acquisition of the shares in Dimension Data Sweden, a subsidiary of the global systems integrator Dimension Data Holdings plc. The acquisition has now been approved by the Swedish Competition Authority.

Following the approval from the Swedish Competition Authority Cygate acquires a company with 74 employees located in two offices in Stockholm and Malmö. The revenue for Dimension Data Sweden was SEK 182 million in 2006. The integration of Dimension data Sweden will be finalised on October 1, 2007.

During the last years, Cygate has acquired several companies, amongst them Måldata and Bravida Communications. Since January 2007, Cygate is owned by TeliaSonera, the Nordic and Baltic telecommunications leader.
