Independent auditor's report

To the shareholders of Apranga APB

Our opinion

In our opinion, the stand-alone and consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the stand-alone and consolidated financial position of Apranga APB ("the Company") and its subsidiaries (together "the Group") as at 31 December 2016, and their stand-alone and consolidated financial performance and their stand-alone and consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union.

What we have audited

The stand-alone and consolidated financial statements (together "the financial statements") comprise:

- the stand-alone and consolidated balance sheet as at 31 December 2016;
- the stand-alone and consolidated statements of comprehensive income for the year then ended;
- the stand-alone and consolidated statements of changes in equity for the year then ended;
- the stand-alone and consolidated statements of cash flows for the year then ended; and
- the notes to the stand-alone and consolidated financial statements, which include a summary of significant accounting policies.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independence

We are independent of the Company and the Group in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (IESBA Code) and the Law on Audit of the Republic of Lithuania that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the Republic of Lithuania. We have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the IESBA Code and the Law on Audit of the Republic of Lithuania.

Our audit approach

Overview

- Overall Company materiality: €600 thousand
- Overall Group materiality: €670 thousand
- We or the component auditors, working under our instructions, conducted a full-scope audit at 12 reporting units in 3 countries, covering 93% of the Group's revenues and 93% of the Group's total assets. We performed the review procedures on the not significant components to ensure that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to express our opinion on the consolidated financial statements as a whole.
- Impairment of property, plant and equipment
- Inventory write-down to net realisable value

As part of designing our audit, we determined materiality and assessed the risks of material misstatement in the financial statements. In particular, we considered where management made subjective judgements; for example, in respect of significant accounting estimates that involved making assumptions and considering future events that are inherently uncertain. As in all of our audits, we also addressed the risk of management override of internal controls, including among other matters, consideration of whether there was evidence of bias that represented a risk of material misstatement due to fraud.

Materiality

The scope of our audit was influenced by our application of materiality. An audit is designed to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. Misstatements may arise due to fraud or error. They are considered material if individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial statements.

Based on our professional judgement, we determined certain quantitative thresholds for materiality, including the overall Company and Group materiality for the stand-alone and consolidated financial statements as a whole as set out in the table below. These, together with qualitative considerations, helped us to determine the scope of our audit and the nature, timing and extent of our audit procedures and to evaluate the effect of misstatements, both individually and in aggregate on the financial statements as a whole.

Overall Company and Group materiality

Overall Company materiality: €600 thousand
Overall Group materiality: €670 thousand

How we determined it

5% of profit before tax

Rationale for the materiality benchmark applied

We chose profit before tax as the benchmark because, in our view, it is the benchmark against which the performance of the Company and the Group is most commonly measured by users, and it is a generally accepted benchmark. We chose 5% which is within the range of acceptable quantitative materiality thresholds for this benchmark.

We agreed with the Audit Committee that we would report to them misstatements identified during our audit above €30 thousand and €33 thousand for the Company and the Group, respectively, as well as misstatements below those amounts that, in our view, warranted reporting for qualitative reasons.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Impairment of property, plant and equipment Refer to page 14 (Note 2.2 'Critical accounting estimates and assumptions') and pages 33–35 (Note 12). We focused on this area due to the size of the balance of property, plant and equipment (€25,197 thousand and €15,113 thousand as at 31 December 2016 at the Group and the Company, respectively), and because the management's assessment of the value in use of the Group's and Company's cash generating units (CGUs) involves estimates about the future results of the business and judgments about the discount rates applied in the future cash flow forecast. In particular, we focused our audit efforts on the Group's and the Company's impairment testing performed by the management on those CGUs with the total carrying amounts of €3 151 thousand and €883 thousand, respectively, for which impairment indications (e.g. current operating losses) existed as at 31 December 2016. In 2016, the Group's and the Company's impairment charges recognised in profit and loss amounted to €395 thousand and €299 thousand, respectively.	We understood and assessed the process and procedures regarding the annual impairment testing. In particular, we assessed whether the management had identified all the relevant CGUs with impairment indications. We evaluated and challenged the contents of the management's future cash flow forecasts. We found that the management had followed the established process for drawing up the future cash flow forecasts, which was consistent with the budgets approved by the Board. We compared the current year actual results with the FY16 figures included in the prior year forecast to see whether any forecasts included assumptions had been optimistic. For all CGUs that were included in the impairment testing, we also challenged the management's assumptions used in the forecasts about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- the long-term growth rates, by comparing them with economic and industry forecasts; and- the discount rate, by assessing the cost of capital for the Company and comparable organisations and by considering the territory-specific factors. We found the assumptions to be consistent with our expectations. We verified adequacy of sensitivity analysis provided by the management in respect of the assumptions used in the impairment calculations of the CGUs. We determined that the impairment calculations were most sensitive to changes in the assumptions about the EBITDA growth rates and the discount rates. We found the sensitivity analysis provided by the management in the financial statements in respect of both aforementioned assumptions to be adequate.

Inventory write-down to net realisable value

Refer to page 14 (Note 2.2 'Critical accounting estimates and assumptions') and page 36 (Note 15).

We focused on this area due to the size of the inventory balance (€35,429 thousand and €19,429 thousand as at 31 December 2016 at the Group and the Company, respectively), and because the management's assessment of the net realisable value of goods for resale involves estimates about the future discounts and sales of goods below their cost.

The Group's and the Company's inventory write-down to net realisable value amounted to €1,834 thousand and €1,376 thousand as at 31 December 2016, respectively.

We obtained the Company's and the Group's policies and methodology in respect of inventory write-downs to net realisable value, evaluated their compliance with the requirements of IFRSs, and found them to be consistent.

We compared the actual results of inventory items sold below their cost after the balance sheet date between January and the middle of March 2017 with the figures used in the management's calculation of inventory write-down allowance.

We analysed the inventory ageing by seasonality of goods (e.g. summer/winter of the respective calendar year), and analysed the data of prior periods to identify any unusual variations. We also verified reliability of the inventory ageing report and recalculated the inventory write-down allowance for accuracy.

We found the assumptions used by management in the calculation of inventory write-down to net realisable value to be consistent with our expectations.

How we tailored our Group audit scope

We tailored the scope of our audit to ensure that we performed enough work to be able to give an opinion on the financial statements as a whole, taking into account the geographic and management structure of the Group, the accounting processes and controls and the industry in which the Group operates.

The Group comprises a number of subsidiaries that operate in the Baltic States (refer to Note 1). Based on our risk and materiality assessments, we determined which entities were required to be audited at full scope, by taking into account the relative significance of each entity to the Group as a whole and in relation to each material line item in the consolidated financial statements. We performed a full-scope audit of 5 Lithuanian entities and engaged the network component auditors in Latvia for audit of 5 Group subsidiaries in Latvia. The audit work on 2 significant components of Estonian subsidiaries was mainly carried out by the Group audit team, with the exception of physical inventory count observations and taxes, where the network component auditors in Estonia were used. Our full-scope audit addressed 93% of the Group's revenues and 93% of the Group's total assets. The remaining components of the Group were immaterial, and therefore, we selected to perform review procedures on them. Where the work was performed by the component auditors, we determined the level of involvement we needed to have in the audit work at those reporting units to be able to conclude whether sufficient and appropriate audit evidence had been obtained as a basis for our opinion on the consolidated financial statements as a whole.

Other information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the consolidated annual report (but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon).

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's and Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company and Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's and Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's and Group's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's and Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company and Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the Group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The certified auditor on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Rimvydas Jogėla.

¹ The Company directly owns 33.33% shares and indirectly through its subsidiary owns the rest 66.67% of shares (Note 14)

At 31 December the Group's number of stores was:

Country	Total number of shops		Shops, where premises are owned by Group
	2016	2015	2016	2015
Lithuania	107	100	6	6
Latvia	47	45	-	-
Estonia	29	24	-	-
Total	183	169	6	6

At 31 December 2016 the Group and the Company employed 2 112 and 777 people respectively (2015: 1 911 and 753 people respectively).

The shareholders of the Company have a statutory right to approve or not these financial statements and to require preparation of a new set of the financial statements.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principle accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

2.1 BASIS OF PREPARATION

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union (IFRS).

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for available for sale financial assets stated at fair value.

These financial statements comprise the Group's consolidated financial statements and the Company's separate financial statements.

2.2 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

International Financial Reporting Standards require that in preparing the financial statements, management of the Company and the Group make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and required disclosure at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. There are no areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the financial statements, except for the following:

(a) Income taxes

Tax authorities have right to examine accounting records of the Company and its Lithuanian subsidiaries at anytime during the 5 year period after the current tax year (the Latvian and Estonian subsidiaries - 3 and 5 year period after the current year respectively) and account for additional taxes and fines. In the opinion of the Company's management, currently there are no circumstances which would raise substantial liability in this respect to the Company and to the Group.

(b) Related party transactions

In the normal course of business the Company and the Group enters into transactions with its related parties. These transactions, except for the Company's transactions with its subsidiaries, are priced predominantly at market rates. Judgement is applied in determining if transactions are priced at market or non-market rates, where there is no active market for such transactions. The basis for judgement is pricing for similar types of transactions with unrelated parties.

The Company's transactions with its subsidiaries are priced predominantly at cost. Annual management fees are charged to the subsidiaries for an estimated amount which adjusts pricing of all transactions carried out with subsidiaries during the year to the market rates.

(c) Revenue recognition

Management judgment is needed to determine whether revenue for certain sales transactions should be recorded on a gross basis or on a net basis. Revenue is recognised on a gross basis where the role is that of principal in a transaction. The gross basis represents the sales price after discounts, with any related costs charged to expenses. Where the Company or the Group would act on a consignment basis in a transaction, revenue would be recognised on the net basis and inventory held on consignment is not recognised in the balance sheet.

(d) Estimates concerning useful lives of tangible and intangible assets

The useful lives of tangible and intangible assets are determined by management at the time the asset is acquired and reviewed on an annual basis for appropriateness. The lives are based on historical experiences with similar assets as well as anticipation of future events, which may impact their life. If useful lives of tangible and intangible assets determined by management are longer by one year, then depreciation and amortization expenses of the Company and the Group would be lower by EUR 371 thousand and lower by EUR 746 thousand respectively for the year ended 31 December 2016 (EUR 34 thousand higher and EUR 183 thousand lower in 2015).

(e) Impairment of property, plant and equipment

Each shop is considered to represent a separate cash generating unit for impairment test. The Group and Company has tested its leasehold improvements and other fixed assets whether those have suffered any impairment, in accordance with the accounting policies stated in note 2.9. The Group and Company has used "value in use" calculations to test for impairment as information on fair value less costs to sell was not available. These calculations require the use of estimates (note 12).

(f) Inventory write-down to net realizable value

In accordance with the accounting policies stated in note 2.12 the Group and Company recognise inventory at the lower of cost and net realizable value. The Group and Company evaluates whether the value of inventory recognised at cost is not lower than its net realisable value based on the historical data and actual results of inventory items sold below costs. If the recognised inventory write-down to net realizable value would be in 5 per cent higher/lower, the profit before income tax for the year 2016 of the Group and Company was in EUR 90 thousand and EUR 69 thousand lower/ higher respectively (for 2015 – EUR 79 thousand and EUR 63 thousand respectively).

2.3 ADOPTION OF NEW AND REVISED INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS

In the current year, the Company and the Group has adopted all of the new and revised Standards and Interpretations that are relevant to its operations and effective for accounting periods beginning on 1 January 2016.

(a) The following new standards, amendments and interpretations are mandatory for accounting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016:

- Annual Improvements to IFRSs 2012 (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 February 2015) The improvements consist of changes to seven standards.
 - IFRS 2 was amended to clarify the definition of a 'vesting condition' and to define separately 'performance condition' and 'service condition'; The amendment is effective for share-based payment transactions for which the grant date is on or after 1 July 2014.
 - IFRS 3 was amended to clarify that (1) an obligation to pay contingent consideration which meets the definition of a financial instrument is classified as a financial liability or as equity, on the basis of the definitions in IAS 32, and (2) all non-equity contingent consideration, both financial and non-financial, is measured at fair value at each reporting date, with changes in fair value recognised in profit and loss. Amendments to IFRS 3 are effective for business combinations where the acquisition date is on or after 1 July 2014.
 - IFRS 8 was amended to require (1) disclosure of the judgements made by management in aggregating operating segments, including a description of the segments which have been aggregated and the economic indicators which have been assessed in determining that the aggregated segments share similar economic characteristics, and (2) a reconciliation of segment assets to the entity's assets when segment assets are reported.
 - The basis for conclusions on IFRS 13 was amended to clarify that deletion of certain paragraphs in IAS 39 upon publishing of IFRS 13 was not made with an intention to remove the ability to measure short-term receivables and payables at invoice amount where the impact of discounting is immaterial.
 - IAS 16 and IAS 38 were amended to clarify how the gross carrying amount and the accumulated depreciation are treated where an entity uses the revaluation model.
 - IAS 24 was amended to include, as a related party, an entity that provides key management personnel services to the reporting entity or to the parent of the reporting entity ('the management entity'), and to require to disclose the amounts charged to the reporting entity by the management entity for services provided.

These improvements had no significant impact on the Group's and Company's financial statements.

- Defined Benefit Plans: Employee Contributions - Amendments to IAS 19 (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 February 2015) The amendment allows entities to recognise employee contributions as a reduction in the service cost in the period in which the related employee service is rendered, instead of attributing the contributions to the periods of service, if the amount of the employee contributions is independent of the number of years of service.

This amendment had no significant impact on the Group's and Company's financial statements.

- Clarification of Acceptable Methods of Depreciation and Amortisation - Amendments to IAS 16 and IAS 38 (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016). In this amendment, the IASB has clarified that the use of revenue-based methods to calculate the depreciation of an asset is not appropriate because revenue generated by an activity that includes the use of an asset generally reflects factors other than the consumption of the economic benefits embodied in the asset.

These improvements had no significant impact on the Group's and Company's financial statements.

- Equity Method in Separate Financial Statements - Amendments to IAS 27 (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016). The amendments allow entities to use the equity method to account for investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates in their separate financial statements. The Company did not choose to apply the equity method in its financial statements, so this amendment was not relevant.

- Annual Improvements to IFRSs 2014 (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016). The amendments impact 4 standards. IFRS 5 was amended to clarify that change in the manner of disposal (reclassification from "held for sale" to "held for distribution" or vice versa) does not constitute a change to a plan of sale or distribution, and does not have to be accounted for as such. The amendment to IFRS 7 adds guidance to help management determine whether the terms of an arrangement to service a financial asset which has been transferred constitute continuing involvement, for the purposes of disclosures required by IFRS 7. The amendment also clarifies that the offsetting disclosures of IFRS 7 are not specifically required for all interim periods, unless required by IAS 34. The amendment to IAS 19 clarifies that for post-employment benefit obligations, the decisions regarding discount rate, existence of deep market in high-quality corporate bonds, or which government bonds to use as a basis, should be based on the currency that the liabilities are denominated in, and not the country where they arise. IAS 34 will require a cross reference from the interim financial statements to the location of "information disclosed elsewhere in the interim financial report". These improvements had no significant impact on the Group's and Company's financial statements.

- Disclosure Initiative – Amendments to IAS 1 (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016). The Standard was amended to clarify the concept of materiality and explains that an entity need not provide a specific disclosure required by an IFRS if the information resulting from that disclosure is not material, even if the IFRS contains a list of specific requirements or describes them as minimum requirements. The Standard also provides new guidance on subtotals in financial statements, in particular, such subtotals (a) should be comprised of line items made up of amounts recognised and measured in accordance with IFRS; (b) be presented and labelled in a manner that makes the line items that constitute the subtotal clear and understandable; (c) be consistent from period to period; and (d) not be displayed with more prominence than the subtotals and totals required by IFRS standards. These improvements had no significant impact on the Group's and Company's financial statements.

(b) The following new standards, amendments to existing standards and interpretations have been issued and adopted by the European Union or are in the process of adoption by the European Union but are not yet effective and have not been early adopted by the Group and the Company:

- IFRS 9, Financial Instruments: Classification and Measurement (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018). Key features of the new standard are:
 - Financial assets are required to be classified into three measurement categories: those to be measured subsequently at amortised cost, those to be measured subsequently at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) and those to be measured subsequently at fair value through profit or loss (FVPL).
 - Classification for debt instruments is driven by the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and whether the contractual cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI). If a debt instrument is held to collect, it may be carried at amortised cost if it also meets the SPPI requirement. Debt instruments that meet the SPPI requirement that are held in a portfolio where an entity both holds to collect assets' cash flows and sells assets may be classified as FVOCI. Financial assets that do not contain cash flows that are SPPI must be measured at FVPL (for example, derivatives). Embedded derivatives are no longer separated from financial assets but will be included in assessing the SPPI condition.
 - Investments in equity instruments are always measured at fair value. However, management can make an irrevocable election to present changes in fair value in other comprehensive income, provided the instrument is not held for trading. If the equity instrument is held for trading, changes in fair value are presented in profit or loss.
 - Most of the requirements in IAS 39 for classification and measurement of financial liabilities were carried forward unchanged to IFRS 9. The key change is that an entity will be required to present the effects of changes in own credit risk of financial liabilities designated at fair value through profit or loss in other comprehensive income.
 - IFRS 9 introduces a new model for the recognition of impairment losses – the expected credit losses (ECL) model. There is a 'three stage' approach which is based on the change in credit quality of financial assets since initial recognition. In practice, the new rules mean that entities will have to record an immediate loss equal to the 12-month ECL on initial recognition of financial assets that are not credit impaired (or lifetime ECL for trade receivables). Where there has been a significant increase in credit risk, impairment is measured using lifetime ECL rather than 12-month ECL. The model includes operational simplifications for lease and trade receivables.
 - Hedge accounting requirements were amended to align accounting more closely with risk management. The standard provides entities with an accounting policy choice between applying the hedge accounting requirements of IFRS 9 and continuing to apply IAS 39 to all hedges because the standard currently does not address accounting for macro hedging.The Group and Company is currently assessing the impact of the amendments on its financial statements.

- IFRS 15, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018). The new standard introduces the core principle that revenue must be recognised when the goods or services are transferred to the customer, at the transaction price. Any bundled goods or services that are distinct must be separately recognised, and any discounts or rebates on the contract price must generally be allocated to the separate elements. When the consideration varies for any reason, minimum amounts must be recognised if they are not at significant risk of reversal. Costs incurred to secure contracts with customers have to be capitalised and amortised over the period when the benefits of the contract are consumed. The Group and Company is currently assessing the impact of the amendments on its financial statements.

- IFRS 16, Leases (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019; not yet adopted by the EU). The new standard sets out the principles for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leases. All leases result in the lessee obtaining the right to use an asset at the start of the lease and, if lease payments are made over time, also obtaining financing. Accordingly, IFRS 16 eliminates the classification of leases as either operating leases or finance leases as is required by IAS 17 and, instead, introduces a single lessee accounting model. Lessees will be required to recognise: (a) assets and liabilities for all leases with a term of more than 12 months, unless the underlying asset is of low value; and (b) depreciation of lease assets separately from interest on lease liabilities in the income statement. IFRS 16 substantially carries forward the lessor accounting requirements in IAS 17. Accordingly, a lessor continues to classify its leases as operating leases or finance leases, and to account for those two types of leases differently. The Group and Company is currently assessing the impact of the amendments on its financial statements.
- Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture - Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28 (effective date to be determined by the IASB, not yet adopted by the EU). These amendments address an inconsistency between the requirements in IFRS 10 and those in IAS 28 in dealing with the sale or contribution of assets between an investor and its associate or joint venture. The main consequence of the amendments is that a full gain or loss is recognised when a transaction involves a business. A partial gain or loss is recognised when a transaction involves assets that do not constitute a business, even if these assets are held by a subsidiary and the shares of the subsidiary are transferred during the transaction. The Group and Company is currently assessing the impact of the amendments on its financial statements.
- Recognition of deferred tax assets for unrealised losses - Amendments to IAS 12 (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2017; not yet adopted by the EU). The amendment has clarified the requirements on recognition of deferred tax assets for unrealised losses on debt instruments. The entity will have to recognise deferred tax asset for unrealised losses that arise as a result of discounting cash flows of debt instruments at market interest rates, even if it expects to hold the instrument to maturity and no tax will be payable upon collecting the principal amount. The economic benefit embodied in the deferred tax asset arises from the ability of the holder of the debt instrument to achieve future gains (unwinding of the effects of discounting) without paying taxes on those gains. The Group and Company is currently assessing the impact of the amendments on its financial statements.
- Disclosure initiative - Amendments to IAS 7 (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2017; not yet adopted by the EU). The amended IAS 7 will require disclosure of a reconciliation of movements in liabilities arising from financing activities. The Group and Company is currently assessing the impact of the amendments on its financial statements.
- Revenue from contracts with customers - Amendments to IFRS 15 (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018; not yet adopted by the EU). The amendments do not change the underlying principles of the standard but clarify how those principles should be applied. The amendments clarify how to identify a performance obligation (the promise to transfer a good or a service to a customer) in a contract; how to determine whether a company is a principal (the provider of a good or service) or an agent (responsible for arranging for the good or service to be provided); and how to determine whether the revenue from granting a licence should be recognised at a point in time or over time. In addition to the clarifications, the amendments include two additional reliefs to reduce cost and complexity for a company when it first applies the new standard. The Group and Company is currently assessing the impact of the amendments on its financial statements.
- Share-based payments - Amendments to IFRS 2 (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018; not yet adopted by the EU). The amendments mean that non-market vesting conditions will impact measurement of cash-settled share-based payment transactions in the same manner as equity-settled awards. The amendments also clarify classification of a transaction with a net settlement feature in which the entity withholds a specified portion of the equity instruments, that would otherwise be issued to the counterparty upon exercise (or vesting), in return for settling the counterparty's tax obligation that is associated with the share-based payment. Such arrangements will be classified as equity-settled in their entirety. Finally, the amendments also clarify accounting for cash-settled share based payments that are modified to become equity-settled, as follows (a) the share-based payment is measured by reference to the modification-date fair value of the equity instruments granted as a result of the modification; (b) the liability is derecognised upon the modification, (c) the equity-settled share-based payment is recognised to the extent that the services have been rendered up to the modification date, and (d) the difference between the carrying amount of the liability as at the modification date and the amount recognised in equity at the same date is recorded in profit or loss immediately. The Group and Company is currently assessing the impact of the amendments on its financial statements.
- Annual improvements to IFRSs 2014–2016 cycle (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2017 (changes to IFRS 12) or 2018 (changes to IFRS 1 and IAS 28)); not yet adopted by the EU). The improvements impact three standards. The amendments clarify that the disclosure requirements in IFRS 12, other than those in paragraphs B10–B16, apply to an entity's interests in other entities that are classified as held for sale or discontinued operations in accordance with IFRS 5. IFRS 1 was amended to delete some of the short-term exemptions from IFRSs after those short-term exemptions have served their intended purpose. The amendments to IAS 28 clarify that venture capital organisations or similar entities have an investment-by-investment choice for measuring investees at fair value. Additionally, the amendment clarifies that if an investor that is not an investment entity has an associate or joint venture that is an investment entity, the investor can choose on an investment-by-investment basis to retain or reverse the fair value measurements used by that investment entity associate or joint venture when applying the equity method.

The Group and Company is currently assessing the impact of the amendments on its financial statements.

- Transfers of investment property – Amendments to IAS 40 (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018; not yet adopted by the EU). The amendment clarified that to transfer to, or from, investment properties there must be a change in use. This change must be supported by evidence; a change in intention, in isolation, is not enough to support a transfer.
The Group and Company is currently assessing the impact of the amendments on its financial statements.
- IFRIC 22, Foreign currency transactions and advance consideration (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018; not yet adopted by the EU). The interpretation applies where an entity either pays or receives consideration in advance for foreign currency-denominated contracts. The interpretation clarifies that the date of transaction, i.e. the date when the exchange rate is determined, is the date on which the entity initially recognises the non-monetary asset or liability from advance consideration. However, the entity needs to apply judgement in determining whether the prepayment is monetary or non-monetary asset or liability based on guidance in IAS 21, IAS 32 and the Conceptual Framework.
The Group and Company is currently assessing the impact of the amendments on its financial statements.

2.4 CONSOLIDATION

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company (its subsidiaries). The Group controls an entity when the group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity.

The existence and effect of potential voting rights that are currently exercisable or convertible are considered when assessing whether the Group controls another entity.

The Group uses the acquisition method of accounting to account for business combinations. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary is the fair values of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred and the equity interests issued by the group. The consideration transferred includes the fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. On an acquisition-by-acquisition basis, the group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquiree either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquiree's net assets.

The excess of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the group's share of the identifiable net assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If this is less than the fair value of the net assets of the subsidiary acquired in the case of a bargain purchase, the difference is recognised directly in the statement of comprehensive income.

Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated but considered an impairment indicator of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

2.5 SEGMENT REPORTING

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker. The chief operating decision-maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as General Director and other 6 Directors who make strategic decisions.

2.6 FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSLATION

(a) Functional and presentation currency

The individual financial statements of each group entity are presented in the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (its functional currency). For the purpose of the consolidated financial statements, the results and financial position of each entity are expressed in euro, which is the functional currency of the Company, and the presentation currency for the consolidated financial statements.

(b) Transactions and balances

In preparing the financial statements of the individual entities, transactions in currencies other than the entity's functional currency (foreign currencies) are recorded at the rates of exchange prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At each balance sheet date, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing on the balance sheet date. Exchange differences arising on the settlements of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items, are included in the statement of comprehensive income for the period.

(c) Group companies

For the purpose of presenting consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's foreign operations (including comparatives) are expressed in euro using exchange rates prevailing on the balance sheet date. Income and expense items (including comparatives) are translated at the average exchange rates for the period, unless exchange rates fluctuated significantly during that period, in which case the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions are used. Exchange differences arising, if any, are classified as other comprehensive income and transferred to the Group's translation reserve. Such translation differences are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which the foreign operation is disposed of.

In the financial statements all figures are presented in thousands of euro, unless indicated otherwise. Until 31 December 2014, the currency of the Republic of Lithuania was litas. With effect from 1 January 2015, Lithuania joined the euro area and the euro became its national currency. The Company converted comparative figures from the litas to the euro using the official exchange rate, i.e. 3.45280 litas to 1 euro. According to the Law on Redenomination to the Euro of the Capital and of the Nominal Value of Securities of Public Limited Liability Companies and Private Limited Liability Companies that came into force, on 1 January 2015 the nominal value of the Company's shares was converted to the euro. The EUR 21 thousand change in the amount of the authorised share capital resulting from the rounding of the nominal value of the share in the euro to the nearest cent was accounted for within 'Net foreign exchange gain (loss)' in year 2015 comprehensive income.

2.7 INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Intangible assets expected to provide economic benefit to the Company and the Group in future periods are valued at acquisition cost less subsequent accumulated amortisation.

Amortisation is calculated on a straight-line basis to write off the cost of each asset over the estimated useful life as follows:

Software	3-5 years
Licences and rights acquired	5-9 years

Amortisation is accounted for as selling expense.

2.8 PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

Property, plant and equipment is stated at historical cost, less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the statement of comprehensive income during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation is charged so as to write-off the cost of fixed assets to their residual value over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method, on the following basis:

Buildings	15-50 years
Plant and equipment	5-20 years
Leasehold improvements	4-10 years
Other fixed assets	3-6 years

All depreciation of property, plant and equipment is recognised in the statement of comprehensive income and accounted for as selling expenses.

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each balance sheet date.

Where the carrying amount of an asset is greater than its estimated recoverable amount, it is written down immediately to its recoverable amount (Note 2.9). Impairment of property, plant and equipment as well as reversals of impairment during the year are included into selling costs caption in the statement of comprehensive income.

The gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an asset is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognized in the statement of comprehensive income within operating profit.

The Group and the Company capitalise borrowing costs that relate to assets that take more than 12 months to get ready for use. Otherwise borrowing costs are recognised as expenses of the current reporting period.

2.9 IMPAIRMENT OF NON-FINANCIAL ASSETS

At each balance sheet date, the Company and the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible fixed assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company and Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

Recoverable amount is the greater of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. Impairment losses are recognized as an expense immediately.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset (cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized as income immediately.

2.10 INVESTMENTS IN SUBSIDIARIES

In the separate Company's financial statements investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost is adjusted to reflect changes in consideration arising from contingent consideration amendments. Cost also includes direct attributable costs of investment.

Dividends received are credited to the Company's statement of comprehensive income.

2.11 NON-CURRENT ASSETS HELD FOR SALE

Non-current assets are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount will be recovered through a disposal rather than through continuing use. This condition is regarded as met only when the disposal is highly probable and the asset is available for immediate disposal sale in its present condition.

Non-current assets classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of the carrying value of assets and fair value less costs to sell.

2.12 INVENTORIES

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined by the first-in, first-out method. Net realizable value represents the estimated selling price less all estimated costs to be incurred in selling.

2.13 FINANCIAL ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized on the Company's and Group's balance sheet when the Company or the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

The Group and the Company classifies all its financial assets into the category of loans and receivables and available for sale financial assets. The classification depends on the purpose for which the financial assets were acquired. Management determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition. Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are included in current assets, except for maturities greater than 12 months after the balance sheet date. These are classified as non-current assets. The Group's and the Company's loans and receivables comprise 'trade and other receivables' and 'cash and cash equivalents' in the balance sheet. All "regular way" purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised using settlement date accounting.

(a) Trade and other receivables

Trade and other receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment. A provision for impairment of trade receivables is established when there is objective evidence that the Group and the Company will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of the receivables. Significant financial difficulties of the debtor, probability that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or financial reorganisation, and default or delinquency in payments (more than 30 days overdue) are considered indicators that the trade receivable is impaired. The amount of the provision is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced through the use of an allowance account, and the amount of the loss is recognised in the statement of comprehensive income within 'general and administrative expenses'. When a trade receivable is uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account for trade receivables. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against 'general and administrative expenses' in the statement of comprehensive income.

(b) Available for sale financial assets

Available-for-sale financial assets are those non-derivative financial assets that are designated as available-for-sale or are not classified in any of the other financial assets categories.

After initial recognition available-for-sale financial assets are measured at fair value based on available market prices or quotes of brokers. For investments where there is no active market, fair value is determined using valuation techniques. Such techniques include using recent arm's length market transactions, reference to the current market value of another instrument, which is substantially the same, and discounted cash flow analysis. The result of revaluation of available-for-sale securities is recognised in revaluation reserve of financial assets, reported under equity.

Revaluation of available-for-sale debt securities is calculated as difference between market value and amortised cost calculated using the original effective interest rate. When the securities are disposed of, the related accumulated fair value revaluation is included in the statement of comprehensive income as gain (loss) from sale of available-for-sale securities. If there is objective evidence that the value of an investment has been impaired, the cumulative net loss that has been recognised directly in equity is charged to profit (loss) for the year. Interest earned while holding available-for-sale financial assets is reported as interest income.

The Group and the Company assess at each date of preparation of the statement of financial position whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired.

Available for sale financial assets are included in non-current assets unless the investment matures or management intends to dispose of it within 12 months of the end of the reporting period.

(c) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are carried at nominal value.

For the purposes of the cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks and other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are included in borrowings in current liabilities on the balance sheet.

(d) Bank and subsidiaries borrowings

Interest-bearing bank and subsidiaries loans and overdrafts are initially measured at fair value. Bank and subsidiaries borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the settlement or redemption of borrowings is recognised over the term of the borrowings in the statement of comprehensive income.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Company or the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the balance sheet date.

(e) Trade and other payables

Trade payables are initially measured at fair value, and are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method.

2.14 SHARE CAPITAL

(a) Ordinary shares

Ordinary shares are stated at their par value. Consideration received for the shares sold in excess over their par value is shown as share premium. Incremental external costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares are accounted for as a deduction from share premium.

2.15 RESERVE

(a) Translation reserve

The translation reserve is used for translation differences arising on consolidation of financial statements of foreign subsidiaries. Exchange differences are classified as equity in the consolidated financial statements until disposal of the investment. Upon disposal of the corresponding assets, the cumulative revaluation of translation reserves is recognised as income or expenses in the same period when the gain or loss on disposal is recognised.

(b) Other reserves

Other reserves are established upon the decision of annual general meeting of shareholders on profit appropriation. These reserves can be used only for the purposes approved by annual general meeting of shareholders.

Legal reserve is included into other reserves. Legal reserve is compulsory under the Lithuanian regulatory legislation. Annual transfers of 5 per cent of net result are required until the reserve reaches 10 per cent of share capital. The legal reserve cannot be used for payment of dividends and it is established to cover future losses only.

2.16 INCOME TAX

(a) Current income tax

The Group companies are taxed individually irrespective of the overall results of the Group. Since 1st January 2010 the Group companies in Lithuania may transfer the estimated tax losses (or part thereof) to another Group company in Lithuania, which has a right to reduce the taxable profit with the respective amount of the tax losses transferred for the same taxable period. The Group companies have not used this option in 2015, as the companies in Lithuania has earned a taxable profit. In 2016 one of the Group's companies in Lithuania have suffered tax losses, so the management is planning to transfer it to another Group company in Lithuania.

The charge for taxation included in these financial statements is based on the calculation made by the management in accordance with tax legislation of the respective country in which group entity operates.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the reporting period. Taxable profit differs from net profit as reported in the statement of comprehensive income because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's and the Company's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted by the balance sheet date.

The income tax rate applied for the Company and subsidiaries operating in Lithuania was 15 per cent in 2015 and in 2016. Income tax rate on reporting period taxable profits in Latvia is 15 per cent and in Estonia nil. However, in Estonia profit tax is payable in the year of distribution of earnings at a rate of 20 per cent in 2015 and in 2016.

(b) Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is the tax expected to be payable or recoverable on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax basis used in the computation of taxable profit, and is accounted for using the balance sheet liability method. Deferred income tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences and deferred income tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill (or negative goodwill) or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the tax profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled. Deferred income tax is charged or credited in the statement of comprehensive income, except when it relates to items charged or credited directly to equity, in which case the deferred income tax is also dealt with in equity.

Deferred income tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries, except where the Group and the Company is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority and the Group and the Company intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

2.17 LEASES

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

(a) the Company or the Group as lessor

Payments received under operating leases (net of any incentives given to the lessee) are credited to the statement of comprehensive income on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease (Note 12).

(b) the Company or the Group as lessee

Finance leases are capitalised at the lease's commencement at the lower of the fair value of the leased property and the present value of the minimum lease payments. Each lease payment is allocated between the liability and finance charges so as to achieve a constant rate on the finance balance outstanding. The corresponding rental obligations, net of finance charges, are included in long-term payables except for instalments due within 12 months which are included in current liabilities. The property, plant and equipment acquired under finance leases (when the ownership is not transferred to the Group at the end of the lease period) is depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term.

If sale and leaseback transaction results in a finance lease, any excess or shortfall of sales proceeds over the carrying amount is not recognised immediately and is deferred and amortised over the lease term.

Payments made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are charged to the statement of comprehensive income on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

If a sale and leaseback transaction results in an operating lease, and it is clear that the transaction was established at fair value, any profit or loss is recognised immediately, except that if loss is compensated for by future lease payments over the period for which the asset is expected to be used. If the sale price is above fair value, the excess over fair value is deferred and amortised over the period for which the asset is expected to be used.

2.18 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

(a) Social security contributions

The Company and the Group pays social security contributions to the state Social Security Fund (the Fund) on behalf of its employees based on the defined contribution plan in accordance with the local legal requirements. A defined contribution plan is a plan under which the Group and the Company pays fixed contributions into the Fund and will have no legal or constructive obligations to pay further contributions if the Fund does not hold sufficient assets to pay all employees benefits relating to employee service in the current and prior period. Social security contributions are recognised as expenses on an accrual basis and included in payroll expenses.

(b) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are payable whenever an employee's employment is terminated before the normal retirement date or whenever an employee accepts voluntary redundancy in exchange for these benefits. The Company and the Group and the Company recognises termination benefits when it is demonstrably committed to either terminate the employment of current employees according to a detailed formal plan without possibility of withdrawal or to provide termination benefits as a result of an offer made to encourage voluntary redundancy. Benefits falling due more than 12 months after balance sheet date are discounted to present value.

(c) Bonus plans

The Company and the Group recognises a liability and an expense for bonuses where contractually obliged or where there is a past practice that has created a constructive obligation.

2.19 PROVISIONS

Provisions for restructuring costs and legal claims are recognised when: the Company or the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events; it is more likely than not that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Provisions are measured at the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation. The increase in the provision due to passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2.20 REVENUE RECOGNITION AND RELATED EXPENSES

Revenues are recognized as income on an accrual basis when earned. Expenses are charged to operations as incurred.

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable and represents amounts received of receivable for goods and services provided net of value-added tax, rebates and discounts.

Revenue is recognized as follows:

(a) Sales of goods – retail

Sales of goods are recognized when the Company or another Group entity sells a product to the customer. Retail sales are usually in cash or by credit card. The recorded revenue includes credit card fees payable for the transaction. Such fees are included in operating expenses. Revenue received under consignment where the Group and the Company is a consignee is recognised on a net basis.

(b) Sales of services

Revenue from services is recognised on performance of the services.

(c) Interest income

Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable.

(d) Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive payment is established.

(e) Rental income

Payments received under operating leases (net of any incentives given to the lessee) are credited to the statement of comprehensive income on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

2.21 DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTION

Dividend distribution to the Company's shareholders is recognised as a liability in the Company's and Group's financial statements in the period in which the dividends are approved by the Company's shareholders.

2.22 EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing net profit attributed to the shareholders of the Company and the Group from average weighted number of ordinary registered shares in issue, excluding ordinary registered shares purchased by the Group and the Company and held as treasury shares, if any.

2.23 RELATED PARTIES

A related party is a person or entity that is related to the entity that is preparing its financial statements:

- a) A person or a close member of that person's family is related to a reporting entity if that person:
 - i. has control or joint control over the reporting entity;
 - ii. has significant influence over the reporting entity; or

- iii. is a member of the key management personnel of the reporting entity or of a parent of the reporting entity.
- b) An entity is related to a reporting entity if any of the following conditions applies:
 - i. The entity and the reporting entity are members of the same group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others).
 - ii. One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).
 - iii. Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.
 - iv. One entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity.
 - v. The entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the reporting entity or an entity related to the reporting entity. If the reporting entity is itself such a plan, the sponsoring employers are also related to the reporting entity.
 - vi. The entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a).
 - vii. A person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).

3. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

(a) Financial risk factors

The risk management function within the Group and the Company is carried out in respect of financial risks (credit, market (which consist of currency, interest rate and price) and liquidity), operational risks and legal risks. The primary objectives of the financial risk management function are to establish risk limits, and then ensure that exposure to risks stays within these limits. The operational and legal risk management functions are intended to ensure proper functioning of internal policies and procedures to minimize operational and legal risks.

The financial risks relate to the following financial instruments: available for sale financial assets, trade receivables, cash and cash equivalents, trade and other payables and borrowings. The accounting policy with respect to these financial instruments is described in previous section.

Credit risk

Credit risk is managed on group basis. Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents and deposits with banks and financial institutions, available for sale financial assets as well as credit exposures to wholesale and retail customers, including outstanding receivables and committed transactions. For banks and financial institutions, only independently rated parties with high credit ratings are accepted. Sales to wholesale customers are rare and immaterial, therefore risk control only assesses the credit quality of the customer, taking into account its financial position, past experience and other factors. Sales to retail customers are settled in cash or using major credit cards.

Company's credit risk arising from trade receivables from subsidiaries and loans to subsidiaries is managed by controlling financial performance of subsidiaries on a monthly basis. All the subsidiaries having Company's loans have been profitable during the financial year (except, OU Apranga and OU Apranga Ecom EE), therefore, in the management's opinion, the credit risk is not related to the aforementioned amounts. OU Apranga had positive cash flow during the reporting period, and OU Apranga Ecom EE had only immaterial loan debt (EUR 1 thousand) at the end of the reporting period, so these subsidiaries as well are avoiding the credit risk.

Available for sale financial assets is invested only to Lithuanian government bonds.

The Company and Group have no significant concentration of credit risk.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash, the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities. Due to the dynamic nature of the underlying businesses, the Group and the Company treasury maintains flexibility in funding by maintaining availability under committed credit lines.

Management monitors rolling forecasts of the Group's and the Company's liquidity reserve (comprises undrawn borrowing facility (Note 24) and cash and cash equivalents (Note 21) on the basis of expected cash flow. This is generally carried out at local level in the operating companies of the Group in accordance with practice set by the group. In addition, the Group's and the Company's liquidity management policy involves projecting cash flows and considering the level of liquid assets necessary to meet these; and maintaining debt financing plans.

The table below analyses the Group's and the Company's financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining period at the balance sheet to the contractual maturity date. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows. Trade and other payables due within 12 months equal their carrying balances as the impact of discounting is not significant.

Market risk

Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

As the Group and the Company most significant interest-bearing assets are available for sale financial assets, however, its income and operating cash flows are substantially independent of changes in market interest rates. The Company has loans to subsidiaries with floating interest rates, but the cash flow risk is mitigated by applying the same variable element of interest rate on those loans as the banks are charging the Company.

Borrowings issued at variable rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk. Borrowings issued at fixed rates expose the Company to fair value interest rate risk, but this is not included in sensitivity analysis as the change in interest rates has no impact on profit or equity of the Group.

The Company's and Group's borrowings consist of loans with floating interest rate, which are related to EURIBOR and EONIA. The Company and the Group did not use any derivative financial instruments in order to control the risk of interest rate changes.

Trade and other receivables and payables are interest-free and have settlement dates within one year.

The Group's and the Company's cash flow and fair value interest rate risk is periodically monitored by the Group's management. It analyses its interest rate exposure on a dynamic basis taking into consideration refinancing, renewal of existing positions, alternative financing. Based on these scenarios, the Group and the Company calculates the impact on profit and loss of a defined interest rate shift. The scenarios are run only for receivables and liabilities that represent the major interest-bearing positions.

Based on the simulations performed, the impact on post tax profit of a 1 per cent shift in interest rates would be null in 2016 (2015: EUR 57 thousand) for the Group and the maximum increase or decrease of EUR 25 thousand (2015: EUR 92 thousand) would be for the Company.

Foreign exchange risk

The Company and the Group has a policy to synchronize the cash flows from expected sales in the future with the expected purchases and other expenses in each foreign currency. Substantially all the Group's payables and receivables are short-term and in addition revenues and expenses in foreign currencies are insignificant (less than 10%) as compared to those in Euro. At the moment the Company and the Group to some extent uses derivative financial instruments in order to control foreign currencies exchange risk. The use of derivative financial instruments is limited to forward foreign currency (US dollar) purchase transactions with maturities of less than 30 days. There were no non-balance-sheet commitments under these transactions at the end of the reporting period (EUR 255 thousand as at 31 December 2015).

The Group operates in Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia, and during the reporting period used Euro currency. Since Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania introduced the Euro (respectively, since 1st January 2011, 1st January 2014 and 1st January 2015), so there is no exchange rate fluctuations.

Price risk

The Group and Company is not exposed to the market risk with respect to financial instruments as it does not hold any equity securities.

(b) Capital risk management

The Group's and Company's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's and Company's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group and Company may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, return capital to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

Consistent with others in the industry, the Group and Company monitors capital on the basis of the gearing ratio. This ratio is calculated as net debt divided by total capital. Net debt is calculated as total borrowings (including 'current and non-current borrowings' as shown in the consolidated balance sheet) less cash and cash equivalents. Total capital is calculated as 'equity' as shown in the consolidated balance sheet plus net debt.

Pursuant to the Lithuanian Law on Companies the authorised share capital of a public limited liability company must be not less than EUR 40 thousand and of a private limited liability company must be not less than EUR 2.5 thousand. In addition, for all entities the shareholders' equity should not be lower than 50 per cent of the company's registered share capital. As at 31 December 2015, the Company and all its Lithuanian subsidiaries complied with these requirements. As at 31 December 2016 UAB Apranga Ecom LT had not complied with the requirements. The Group management decided to increase the share capital of UAB Apranga Ecom LT in order to comply with the statutory requirements. The additional share capital injection needed will be exactly calculated after General shareholders' meeting of the subsidiary.

Pursuant to the Latvian Commercial Law the authorised share capital of a private limited liability company must be not less than EUR 2.8 thousand. In addition, the losses of the company should not exceed 50 per cent of the company's share capital. As at 31 December 2015 and 31 December 2016, all of the Company's Latvian subsidiaries complied with these requirements.

Pursuant to the Estonian Commercial Code the authorised share capital of a private limited liability company must be not less than EUR 2.5 thousand. In addition, the shareholders' equity should not be lower than 50 per cent of the company's share capital. As at 31 December 2015, all of the Company's Estonian subsidiaries complied with these requirements. As at 31 December 2016 OU Apranga and OU Apranga Ecom EE had not complied with the requirements. The Group management decided to increase the share capital of OU Apranga and OU Apranga Ecom EE in order to comply with the statutory requirements. The additional share capital injections needed will be exactly calculated after General shareholders' meetings of the subsidiaries.

In addition, the Group and Company has to comply with the financial covenants imposed in the agreement with SEB bankas AB and Nordea Bank AB. The Group and Company was in compliance with the covenants as at 31 December 2015 and 2016.

(c) Fair value estimation

Fair value represents the amount at which an asset could be exchanged or liability settled on an arm's length basis. Fair value measurement is determined in following 3 levels:

Level 1. The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets is based on quoted market prices at the balance sheet date. The fair values of available for sale financial assets are estimated with reference to average of bid and ask quoted market prices.

Level 2. The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined by using valuation techniques. These valuation techniques maximise the use of observable market data where it is available and rely as little as possible on entity specific estimates. The Group and Company does not have financial assets or liabilities assigned to this level.

Level 3. Fair value determined by such valuation methods which use one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data. Fair value of all receivables and payables as well as borrowings are assigned to this level.

Where, in the opinion of the management, the fair value of financial assets and liabilities differs materially from their book value, such fair values are separately disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

4. SEGMENT INFORMATION

Management has determined the operating segments based on the reports reviewed by the General Director and other 6 Directors (responsible for managing, sales and marketing, human resources, purchases, development and finance) that are used to make strategic decisions.

The Directors consider the business from both a geographic and product perspective to certain extent. From product perspective Directors review only sales volume and gross margin by brand name. Gross margins of different brands are not significantly different, therefore can be aggregated into one reportable segment. Geographically, Directors separately consider operations in Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia depending on where the stores are located. Different legislation, consumer habits and economic situation substantially affect the average sales and expenses in each country, therefore Directors believe that each country represents a separate reportable segment.

All financial information, including the measure of profit and total assets, is analysed on a country basis.

The segment information provided to the Directors for the reportable segments for the year ended 31 December is as follows:

APB APRANGA, company's code 121933274, Kirtimu 51, Vilnius
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED AND COMPANY'S FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(all tabular amounts are in EUR thousands unless otherwise stated)

Estimation of the value in use was based on the discounted pre-tax cash flows (DCF) of the latest available business plan. DCF was estimated over remaining useful life of leasehold improvements (vast majority of premises are leased). For the calculation of future cash flows in 2017 and in later years, 10-20% of the EBITDA growth rate was used (2015 - the same growth rates). The weighted average cost of capital (further - WACC) of 6 per cent (2015: 8 per cent) was used for value in use estimation.

Based on the calculations performed the Management concluded that impairment charges of EUR 570 thousand for the Group (2015: EUR 175 thousand) and EUR 344 thousand for the Company (2015: EUR 45 thousand) should be recorded against the leasehold improvements and other fixed assets.

If 5% of the EBITDA growth rate would be used for the calculation of future cash flows in 2018 and in later years, the Group and the Company in 2016 would have recognised by EUR 27 thousand and EUR 10 thousand higher impairment loss against leasehold improvements and other fixed assets (2015: EUR 87 thousand and EUR 22 thousand respectively).

If the estimated pre-tax discount rate applied to the discounted cash flows for cash generating units had been 1% higher than management estimates (for example 7 per cent instead of 6 per cent), the Group in 2016 would have recognised by EUR 6 thousand higher impairment loss against leasehold improvements and other fixed assets (2015: EUR 8 thousand). The Company would have recognised by EUR 4 thousand higher impairment loss against leasehold improvements and other fixed assets (2015: not).

2. OPERATING HIGHLIGHTS

In 2016, facing the increase in uncertainty, Apranga Group focused on maintenance of high results achieved in last years, further development and modernization of the retail chain, increase in sales, strengthening the competitiveness of the Group.

Apranga Group in 2016 managed to maintain the same high as in last years growth rates of turnover, and to fulfill the defined economic-financial plans.

2.1 RETAIL MARKET OVERVIEW

The turnover of the retail chain operated by Apranga Group reached EUR 214.2 million (incl. VAT) in 2016, and increased by 7.7% comparing to the year 2015. The Group by 0.1% (EUR 0.2 million) exceeded the retail turnover planned for the year 2016.

According to EUROSTAT data, the retail trade (except of motor vehicles, motorcycles and fuel) in Baltic States during the 12 months 2016 grew the most in Estonia (+5%) and Lithuania (+4%). In Latvia the retail trade growth was slower at around +2%. In the fourth quarter 2016 the retail trade growth in the Baltic countries was generally in line with the average annual results and amounted to +3% in Lithuania, +2% in Latvia, and +6% in Estonia. European Union (28 countries) retail trade both in last quarter 2016 and throughout all of the year 2016 increased by 3% (the year before retail trade also grew by 3%).

Retail turnover of Group's stores by countries (EUR thousand, VAT included):

Chain	12 months 2016	12 months 2015	12 months 2014	2016/2015, %	2016/2014, %
Lithuania	126 759	120 801	110 924	4,9%	14,3%
Latvia	51 112	48 513	47 317	5,4%	8,0%

3. OPERATING PLANS

Apranga Group plans to reach EUR 230 million turnover (including VAT) in 2017, or by 7.4% more, than actual the year 2016 turnover.

Apranga Group plans to open or reconstruct 7-10 stores during 2017. Investments are planned to amount to about EUR 5-6 million.

4. BUSINESS PHILOSOPHY

- We work and strive to work only with the fastest-growing, commercially the most successful global brands and chains operating in different markets and acceptable to our market;
- We never make compromises in the selection of the best locations for stores ("Location – more important than money", "We have to be where we can not not to be");
- We aim to install stores according to the highest European design and technology requirements;
- We strive to use in best the power of the obvious market leader, as well as rapid development opportunities in competitive environment.

5. RISKS

In its activities the Group is exposed to various risks (regulatory, operational, investment, market, competition, economic cycle, macroeconomic factors, etc.), but only some of which may significantly affect the Group's results.

The Group's activities are significantly influenced by overall economic situation (and especially by the economic cycles) in countries where the Group operates. The economies of Baltic countries are practically recovered from the economic crisis, but there is still uncertainty in the global economy development trends and the possibility of future regional or global crisis. It is difficult to reliably assess the impact on the financial position of any further global macro-economic developments. However, management believes that even the minimum economic growth of the Baltic countries forms the basis for the Group's normal activity and steady growth.

The competition-related risk. In its activities the Group is exposed to increasingly intense competition in the clothing market. The Group, in order to manage this risk and to meet the customer service quality standard requirements, continuously carries out chain expansion and modernization, improves its sales and marketing

The management bodies of the Company specified in the Articles of Association are as follows: General Shareholders' Meeting, a collegial management body – Board, and a single-person management body – Manager of the Company. The Company has no Supervisory Board. The Board, consisting of 6 members, is elected by General Shareholders' Meeting for a 4 year term. During the financial year, the composition of the Board remained unchanged. The Board of the Company comprised Chairman of the Board D. J. Mockus and the Board members Rimantas Perveneckas, Ilona Šimkūnienė, Vidas Lazickas, Marijus Strončikas and Ramūnas Gaidamavičius. The Board elects and removes from office the Manager of the Company.

The Audit Committee consists of 2 members, 1 of them is independent. The Audit Committee is elected for a 4-year term. Members of the Audit Committee are elected and recalled by the Board of the Company, except the independent member of the Committee. The independent member of the Audit Committee is elected by the General Shareholders Meeting at the proposal of the Board. During the financial year, the composition of the Audit Committee remained unchanged. The members of the Audit Committee: Rasa Rulevičiūtė (Company management personnel) and Daiva Paulavičienė (the independent member the Committee).

More information on the management bodies and its members, rights of shareholders, the responsibilities of the Board and the Manager of the Company, committees etc. is provided in the 8-11 sections of the Consolidated Annual Report and in the table below, in which information on compliance with the Corporate Governance Code for the Companies listed on Nasdaq Vilnius is disclosed.

Structured table for disclosure:

PRINCIPLES/ RECOMMENDATIONS	YES/NO /NOT APPLICABLE	COMMENTARY
Principle I: Basic Provisions
The overriding objective of a company should be to operate in common interests of all the shareholders by optimizing over time shareholder value.
1.1. A company should adopt and make public the company's development strategy and objectives by clearly declaring how the company intends to meet the interests of its shareholders and optimize shareholder value.	Yes	Affirmed Company's development strategy and objectives are published in Company's annual report, in announcements on material events which are published in Company's website http://aprangagroup.lt/en/investors , in Nasdaq Vilnius Stock Exchange information disclosure system, in Central

		Storage Facility, as well as in presentations to investors by chief executive officer and senior management.
1.2. All management bodies of a company should act in furtherance of the declared strategic objectives in view of the need to optimize shareholder value.	Yes
1.3. A company's supervisory and management bodies should act in close co-operation in order to attain maximum benefit for the company and its shareholders.	Yes	The Company implements this recommendation insofar as it is concerned with the close cooperation of Company's management board and chief executive officer and senior management.
1.4. A company's supervisory and management bodies should ensure that the rights and interests of persons other than the company's shareholders (e.g. employees, creditors, suppliers, clients, local community), participating in or connected with the company's operation, are duly respected.	Yes
Principle II: The corporate governance framework The corporate governance framework should ensure the strategic guidance of the company, the effective oversight of the company's management bodies, an appropriate balance and distribution of functions between the company's bodies, protection of the shareholders' interests.
2.1. Besides obligatory bodies provided for in the Law on Companies of the Republic of Lithuania – a general shareholders' meeting and the chief executive officer, it is recommended that a company should set up both a collegial supervisory body and a collegial management body. The setting up of collegial bodies for supervision and management facilitates clear separation of management and supervisory functions in the company, accountability and control on the part of the chief executive officer, which, in its turn, facilitate a more efficient and transparent management process.	No	The bodies of the Company are general shareholders' meeting, management board and chief executive officer. Supervisory board is not constituted in the Company. Such structure of bodies was approved by shareholders decision during general shareholders meeting, when approving articles of association of the Company. In Company's opinion, such structure of bodies ensures less administrative burden and operative decision making. The accountability and control of the single management body - the chief executive officer – is ensured by Company's management board.
2.2. A collegial management body is responsible for the strategic management of the company and performs other key functions of corporate governance. A collegial supervisory body is responsible for the effective supervision of the company's management bodies.	Yes	Company's collegial management body – management board – is responsible for strategic management of the Company and performs other key functions of corporate governance. The management board is responsible for the effective supervision of the Company's management bodies insofar as it is concerned with the supervision of the activity of chief executive officer.
2.3. Where a company chooses to form only one collegial body, it is recommended that it should be a supervisory body, i.e. the supervisory board. In such a case, the supervisory board is responsible for the effective monitoring of the functions performed by the company's chief executive officer.	No	The Company has one collegial body and that is management board. See commentary of 2.1. recommendation.
2.4. The collegial supervisory body to be elected by the general shareholders' meeting should be set up and should act in the manner defined in Principles III and IV. Where a company should decide not to set up a collegial supervisory body but rather a collegial management body, i.e. the board, Principles III and IV should apply to the board as long as that does not contradict the essence and purpose of this body.	Yes/No	Recommendations defined in Principles III and IV are not implemented in full extent, however the Company complies with all requirements prescribed by legal acts for formation of collegial management body, i.e. board. See commentaries of III and IV principles' recommendations.
2.5. Company's management and supervisory bodies should comprise such number of board (executive directors) and supervisory (non-executive directors) board members that no individual or small group of individuals can dominate decision-making on the part of these bodies.	Yes	Company's management board consists of 6 (six) members, 3 (three) of whom are representatives of shareholders and the other 3 (three) are chief executive officer and senior managers. In Company's opinion, the number of the management board members is sufficient considering Company's activity extent and number of shareholders.

2.6. Non-executive directors or members of the supervisory board should be appointed for specified terms subject to individual re-election, at maximum intervals provided for in the Lithuanian legislation with a view to ensuring necessary development of professional experience and sufficiently frequent reconfirmation of their status. A possibility to remove them should also be stipulated however this procedure should not be easier than the removal procedure for an executive director or a member of the management board.	Not applicable	Supervisory board is not constituted in the Company. See commentaries of 2.1. recommendation.
2.7. Chairman of the collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting may be a person whose current or past office constitutes no obstacle to conduct independent and impartial supervision. Where a company should decide not to set up a supervisory board but rather the board, it is recommended that the chairman of the board and chief executive officer of the company should be a different person. Former company's chief executive officer should not be immediately nominated as the chairman of the collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting. When a company chooses to depart from these recommendations, it should furnish information on the measures it has taken to ensure impartiality of the supervision.	Yes	The chairman of the management board and chief executive officer of the Company are different persons. The chairman of the management board has never been appointed as chief executive officer of the Company.
Principle III: The order of the formation of a collegial body to be elected by a general shareholders' meeting The order of the formation a collegial body to be elected by a general shareholders' meeting should ensure representation of minority shareholders, accountability of this body to the shareholders and objective monitoring of the company's operation and its management bodies.
3.1. The mechanism of the formation of a collegial body to be elected by a general shareholders' meeting (hereinafter in this Principle referred to as the 'collegial body') should ensure objective and fair monitoring of the company's management bodies as well as representation of minority shareholders.	Yes	The mechanism of the formation of Company's management board ensures objective and fair supervision of the Company's single management body, chief executive officer, and senior management as well as representation of minority shareholder's interests.
3.2. Names and surnames of the candidates to become members of a collegial body, information about their education, qualification, professional background, positions taken and potential conflicts of interest should be disclosed early enough before the general shareholders' meeting so that the shareholders would have sufficient time to make an informed voting decision. All factors affecting the candidate's independence, the sample list of which is set out in Recommendation 3.7, should be also disclosed. The collegial body should also be informed on any subsequent changes in the provided information. The collegial body should, on yearly basis, collect data provided in this item on its members and disclose this in the company's annual report.	Yes/No	The information about management board members positions taken or participation in other companies activities is continually collected and on the expiration of each year this information is specified and renewed by querying each board member, and such information is disclosed in Company's annual and interim reports and Company's website. Information about education of board members is also disclosed in Company's reports and website. When electing board member in 2014, the names and surnames of candidates have been disclosed together with draft decisions of general shareholder meeting, i.e. at least 10 days before general shareholders meeting. Additionally, when electing board members in 2014, in accordance with Law on Companies the candidates provided to general shareholder meeting information about the positions he/she holds or participations in activities of other companies. Other/additional information procedure other than established by legal acts is not stipulated in the Company. However this information was not submitted exclusively to general shareholder's meeting before their election. There was no necessity in the Company to disclose factors affecting candidate's independence.
3.3. Should a person be nominated for members of a	Yes/No	See commentary of 3.2 recommendation collegial body, such nomination should be followed by the disclosure of information on candidate's particular competences relevant to his/her service on the collegial body. In order shareholders and investors are able to ascertain whether member's competence is further relevant, the collegial body should, in its annual report, disclose the information on its composition and particular competences of individual members which are relevant to their service on the collegial body.

3.4 In order to maintain a proper balance in terms of the current qualifications possessed by its members, the desired composition of the collegial body shall be determined with regard to the company's structure and activities, and have this periodically evaluated. The collegial body should ensure that it is composed of members who, as a whole, have the required diversity of knowledge, judgment and experience to complete their tasks properly. The members of the audit committee, collectively, should have a recent knowledge and relevant experience in the fields of finance, accounting and/or audit for the stock exchange listed companies. At least one of the members of the remuneration committee should have knowledge of and experience in the field of remuneration policy.	Yes/No	See commentaries of 3.5. and 4.7. recommendations.
3.5. All new members of the collegial body should be offered a tailored program focused on introducing a member with his/her duties, corporate organization and activities. The collegial body should conduct an annual review to identify fields where its members need to update their skills and knowledge.	No	There was no demand in Company to offer tailored programs to new board members focused on introducing a member with his/her duties, corporation organization and activities. In 2014 the board has been elected from the candidates who were familiar with Company's organization and activities. Annual review of management board members' knowledge is not conducted whereas the management board members, i.e. chief executive officer and senior managers, are professionals and improve their skills and knowledge by conducting their duties in the Company. The skills and knowledge of management board members representing shareholders is reviewed by shareholders themselves before proposing candidates to Company's board.
3.6. In order to ensure that all material conflicts of interest related with a member of the collegial body are resolved properly, the collegial body should comprise a sufficient number of independent members.	No	The issue of election of independent management board members never been topical and raised in the Company and accordingly the "sufficient" number of independent management board members was never assessed either.
3.7. A member of the collegial body should be considered to be independent only if he is free of any business, family or other relationship with the company, its controlling shareholder or the management of either, that creates a conflict of interest such as to impair his judgment. Since all cases when member of the collegial body is likely to become dependent are impossible to list, moreover, relationships and circumstances associated with the determination of independence may vary amongst companies and the best practices of solving this problem are yet to evolve in the course of time, assessment of independence of a member of the collegial body should be based on the contents of the relationship and circumstances rather than their form. The key criteria for identifying whether a member of the collegial body can be considered to be independent are the following: 1) He/she is not an executive director or member of the board (if a collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting is the supervisory board) of the company or any associated company and has not been	Not applicable	See commentary of 3.6 recommendation

such during the last five years; 2) He/she is not an employee of the company or some any company and has not been such during the last three years, except for cases when a member of the collegial body does not belong to the senior management and was elected to the collegial body as a representative of the employees; 3) He/she is not receiving or has been not receiving significant additional remuneration from the company or associated company other than remuneration for the office in the collegial body. Such additional remuneration includes participation in share options or some other performance based pay systems; it does not include compensation payments for the previous office in the company (provided that such payment is no way related with later position) as per pension plans (inclusive of deferred compensations); 4) He/she is not a controlling shareholder or representative of such shareholder (control as defined in the Council Directive 83/349/EEC Article 1 Part 1); 5) He/she does not have and did not have any material business relations with the company or associated company within the past year directly or as a partner, shareholder, director or superior employee of the subject having such relationship. A subject is considered to have business relations when it is a major supplier or service provider (inclusive of financial, legal, counselling and consulting services), major client or organization receiving significant payments from the company or its group; 6) He/she is not and has not been, during the last three years, partner or employee of the current or former external audit company of the company or associated company; 7) He/she is not an executive director or member of the board in some other company where executive director of the company or member of the board (if a collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting is the supervisory board) is non-executive director or member of the supervisory board, he/she may not also have any other material relationships with executive directors of the company that arise from their participation in activities of other companies or bodies; 8) He/she has not been in the position of a member of the collegial body for over than 12 years; 9) He/she is not a close relative to an executive director or member of the board (if a collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting is the supervisory board) or to any person listed in above items 1 to 8. Close relative is considered to be a spouse (common-law spouse), children and parents. 3.8. The determination of what constitutes independence is fundamentally an issue for the collegial body itself to determine. The collegial body may decide that, despite a particular member meets all the criteria of independence laid down in this Code, he cannot be considered independent due to special personal or company-related circumstances.
3.9. Necessary information on conclusions the collegial body has come to in its determination of whether a particular member of the body should be considered to be independent should be disclosed. When a person is nominated to become a member of the collegial body, the company should disclose whether it considers the person to be independent. When a particular member of the collegial body does not meet one or more criteria of independence set out in this Code, the company should disclose its reasons for nevertheless considering the member to be independent. In addition, the company should annually disclose which members of the collegial body it considers to be independent.	Not applicable	See commentary of 3.6. recommendation. Moreover, thus far the assessment and disclosure of the independence of management board members, in accordance with the criteria established by this Code, was not applicable in Company.

3.10. When one or more criteria of independence set out in this Code has not been met throughout the year, the company should disclose its reasons for considering a particular member of the collegial body to be independent. To ensure accuracy of the information disclosed in relation with the independence of the members of the collegial body, the company should require independent members to have their independence periodically re-confirmed.	Not applicable	See commentary of 3.6. recommendation
3.11. In order to remunerate members of a collegial body for their work and participation in the meetings of the collegial body, they may be remunerated from the company's funds. The general shareholders' meeting should approve the amount of such remuneration.	Not applicable	See commentary of 3.6. recommendation.
Principle IV: The duties and liabilities of a collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting The corporate governance framework should ensure proper and effective functioning of the collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting, and the powers granted to the collegial body should ensure effective monitoring of the company's management bodies and protection of interests of all the company's shareholders.
4.1. The collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting (hereinafter in this Principle referred to as the 'collegial body') should ensure integrity and transparency of the company's financial statements and the control system. The collegial body should issue recommendations to the company's management bodies and monitor and control the company's management performance.	Yes	This recommendation is implemented by Company's management board insofar as the management board issues recommendations to chief executive officer and to senior management and monitors and controls their activity.
4.2. Members of the collegial body should act in good faith, with care and responsibility for the benefit and in the interests of the company and its shareholders with due regard to the interests of employees and public welfare. Independent members of the collegial body should (a) under all circumstances maintain independence of their analysis, decision-making and actions (b) do not seek and accept any unjustified privileges that might compromise their independence, and (c) clearly express their objections should a member consider that decision of the collegial body is against the interests of the company. Should a collegial body have passed decisions independent member has serious doubts about, the member should make adequate conclusions. Should an independent member resign from his office, he should explain the reasons in a letter addressed to the collegial body or audit committee and, if necessary, respective company-not-pertaining body (institution).	Yes	According to the Company's available data, management board members act in good will in respect of Company, in the interests of the Company and its shareholders, thus maintaining independence of their decision making.
4.3. Each member should devote sufficient time and attention to perform his duties as a member of the collegial body. Each member of the collegial body should limit other professional obligations of his (in particular any directorships held in other companies) in such a manner they do not interfere with proper performance of duties of a member of the collegial body. In the event a member of the collegial body should be present in less than a half of the meetings of the collegial body throughout the financial year of the company, shareholders of the company should be notified.	Yes	According to the Company's data, all management board members attended board meetings and devoted sufficient time to perform their duties as members of the board.
4.4. Where decisions of a collegial body may have a different effect on the company's shareholders, the collegial body should treat all shareholders impartially and fairly. It should ensure that shareholders are properly informed on the company's affairs, strategies, risk management and resolution of conflicts of interest. The company should have a clearly established role of members of the collegial body when communicating with and committing to shareholders.	Yes	Company's shareholders are informed about the Company's affairs, strategies, risk management and resolution of conflicts of interest in a manner prescribed by legal acts.
4.5. It is recommended that transactions (except insignificant ones due to their low value or concluded when carrying out routine operations in the company under usual conditions), concluded between the company and its shareholders, members of the supervisory or	Yes/No	The transactions are concluded in standard terms in pursuance of regular Company's activities. managing bodies or other natural or legal persons that exert or may exert influence on the company's management should be subject to approval of the collegial body. The decision concerning approval of such transactions should be deemed adopted only provided the majority of the independent members of the collegial body voted for such a decision.		the competence of board does not differ from the competence established in Law on Companies. There are no independent members in the Company's board. See commentary of 3.6. recommendation.
4.6. The collegial body should be independent in passing decisions that are significant for the company's operations and strategy. Taken separately, the collegial body should be independent of the company's management bodies. Members of the collegial body should act and pass decisions without an outside influence from the persons who have elected it. Companies should ensure that the collegial body and its committees are provided with sufficient administrative and financial resources to discharge their duties, including the right to obtain, in particular from employees of the company, all the necessary information or to seek independent legal, accounting or any other advice on issues pertaining to the competence of the collegial body and its committees. When using the services of a consultant with a view to obtaining information on market standards for remuneration systems, the remuneration committee should ensure that the consultant concerned does not at the same time advise the human resources department, executive directors or collegial management organs of the company concerned.	Yes/No	The Company does not implement this recommendation in so far as it is related with formation of Remuneration committee. See commentary of 4.7. recommendation.
4.7. Activities of the collegial body should be organized in a manner that independent members of the collegial body could have major influence in relevant areas where chances of occurrence of conflicts of interest are very high. Such areas to be considered as highly relevant are issues of nomination of company's directors, determination of directors' remuneration and control and assessment of company's audit. Therefore when the mentioned issues are attributable to the competence of the collegial body, it is recommended that the collegial body should establish nomination, remuneration, and audit committees. Companies should ensure that the functions attributable to the nomination, remuneration, and audit committees are carried out. However they may decide to merge these functions and set up less than three committees. In such case a company should explain in detail reasons behind the selection of alternative approach and how the selected approach complies with the objectives set forth for the three different committees. Should the collegial body of the company comprise small number of members, the functions assigned to the three committees may be performed by the collegial body itself, provided that it meets composition requirements advocated for the committees and that adequate information is provided in this respect. In such case provisions of this Code relating to the committees of the collegial body (in particular with respect to their role, operation, and transparency) should apply, where relevant, to the collegial body as a whole.	Yes/No	Nomination and Remuneration committees indicated in 4.12-4.13 recommendations are not established in the Company, whereas, in Company's opinion, the management board by performing its functions partially performs functions of Nomination and Remuneration committees. Company's management board selects a candidate for chief executive officer position and appoints chief executive officer, provides recommendations to chief executive officer regarding appointment of senior managers and their remuneration policy. Company's management board affirms Company's strategic plans and objectives and controls their implementation. Moreover, Company's management board affirms Company's budget plans and analyse and assess chief executive officer's and senior management's reports on budget plans' implementation and fund utilization. In pursuance of requirements of Law on Audit (Official Gazette, 2008, No. 82-53233) the Audit committee composed of two members is established in Company.
4.8. The key objective of the committees is to increase efficiency of the activities of the collegial body by ensuring that decisions are based on due consideration, and to help organize its work with a view to ensuring that the decisions it takes are free of material conflicts of interest. Committees should exercise independent judgement and integrity when exercising its functions as well as present the collegial body with recommendations concerning the decisions of the collegial body. Nevertheless the final decision shall be adopted by the collegial body. The recommendation on creation of committees is not intended, in principle, to constrict the competence of the collegial body or to remove the matters considered from	Yes/No	See commentary of 4.7. recommendation. The recommendation is implemented insofar as it is related with Audit committee activity in Company.

the purview of the collegial body itself, which remains fully responsible for the decisions taken in its field of competence.
4.9. Committees established by the collegial body should normally be composed of at least three members. In companies with small number of members of the collegial body, they could exceptionally be composed of two members. Majority of the members of each committee should be constituted from independent members of the collegial body. In cases when the company chooses not to set up a supervisory board, remuneration and audit committees should be entirely comprised of non-executive directors. Chairmanship and membership of the committees should be decided with due regard to the need to ensure that committee membership is refreshed and that undue reliance is not placed on particular individuals.	Yes/No	See commentary of 4.7. recommendation. Audit committee is exceptionally composed of two members.
4.10. Authority of each of the committees should be determined by the collegial body. Committees should perform their duties in line with authority delegated to them and inform the collegial body on their activities and performance on regular basis. Authority of every committee stipulating the role and rights and duties of the committee should be made public at least once a year (as part of the information disclosed by the company annually on its corporate governance structures and practices). Companies should also make public annually a statement by existing committees on their composition, number of meetings and attendance over the year, and their main activities. Audit committee should confirm that it is satisfied with the independence of the audit process and describe briefly the actions it has taken to reach this conclusion.	No	See commentary of 4.7. recommendation. Audit committee's authority, rights and obligations are stipulated in Internal rules of Audit committed pursuant to applicable legal acts and Audit committee's authority, rights and obligations are approved by general shareholders' meeting. Audit committee's authority, rights and obligations stipulated in Internal rules of Audit committee do not differ from those stipulated in legal acts.
4.11. In order to ensure independence and impartiality of the committees, members of the collegial body that are not members of the committee should commonly have a right to participate in the meetings of the committee only if invited by the committee. A committee may invite or demand participation in the meeting of particular officers or experts. Chairman of each of the committees should have a possibility to maintain direct communication with the shareholders. Events when such are to be performed should be specified in the regulations for committee activities.	Yes/No	See commentary of 4.7. recommendation. It is stipulated in Internal rules of Audit committed that Company's board members, chief executive officer, chief financial officer, employees of the Company, auditors may be invited to meetings of committee.
4.12. Nomination Committee. 4.12.1. Key functions of the nomination committee should be the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify and recommend, for the approval of the collegial body, candidates to fill board vacancies. The nomination committee should evaluate the balance of skills, knowledge and experience on the management body, prepare a description of the roles and capabilities required to assume a particular office, and assess the time commitment expected. Nomination committee can also consider candidates to members of the collegial body delegated by the shareholders of the company; • Assess on regular basis the structure, size, composition and performance of the supervisory and management bodies, and make recommendations to the collegial body regarding the means of achieving necessary changes; • Assess on regular basis the skills, knowledge and experience of individual directors and report on this to the collegial body; • Properly consider issues related to succession planning; • Review the policy of the management bodies for selection and appointment of senior management. 4.12.2. Key functions of the remuneration committee should be the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Make proposals, for the approval of the collegial body, on the remuneration policy for members of management bodies and executive directors. Such policy should address all forms of compensation, including the fixed remuneration, performance-based remuneration schemes, pension arrangements, and termination payments. Proposals considering performance-based remuneration schemes should be accompanied with recommendations on the related objectives and evaluation criteria, with a view to properly aligning the pay of executive director and members of the management bodies with the long-term interests of the shareholders and the objectives set by the collegial body; • Make proposals to the collegial body on the individual remuneration for executive directors and member of management bodies in order their remunerations are consistent with company's remuneration policy and the evaluation of the performance of these persons concerned. In doing so, the committee should be properly informed on the total compensation obtained by executive directors and members of the management bodies from the affiliated companies; • Ensure that remuneration of individual executive directors or members of management body is proportionate to the remuneration of other executive directors or members of management body and other staff members of the company; • Periodically review the remuneration policy for executive directors or members of management body, including the policy regarding share-based remuneration, and its implementation; • Make proposals to the collegial body on suitable forms of contracts for executive directors and members of the management bodies; • Assist the collegial body in overseeing how the company complies with applicable provisions regarding the remuneration-related information disclosure (in particular the remuneration policy applied and individual remuneration of directors); • Make general recommendations to the executive directors and members of the management bodies on the level and structure of remuneration for senior management (as defined by the collegial body) with regard to the respective information provided by the executive directors and members of the management bodies. 4.13.2. Key functions of the audit committee should be the following: 1) Observe the integrity of the financial information provided by the company, in particular by reviewing the relevance and consistency of the accounting methods used by the company and its group (including the criteria for the consolidation of the accounts of companies in the group); 2) At least once a year review the systems of internal control and risk management to ensure that the key risks (inclusive of the risks in relation with compliance with existing laws and regulations) are properly identified, managed and reflected in the information provided; 3) Ensure the efficiency of the internal audit function, among other things, by making recommendations on the selection, appointment, reappointment and removal of the head of the internal audit department and on the budget of the department, and by monitoring the responsiveness of the management to its findings and recommendations. Should there be no internal audit authority in the company, the need for one should be reviewed at least annually; 4) Make recommendations to the collegial body related with selection, appointment, reappointment and removal of the external auditor (to be done by the general shareholders' meeting) and with the terms and conditions of his engagement. The committee should investigate situations that lead to a resignation of the audit company or auditor and make recommendations on required actions in such situations; 5) Monitor independence and impartiality of the external auditor, in particular by reviewing the audit company's compliance with applicable guidance relating to the rotation of audit partners, the level of fees paid by the company, and similar issues. In order to prevent occurrence of material conflicts of interest, the committee, based on the auditor's disclosed inter alia data on all remunerations paid by the company to the auditor and network, should at all times monitor nature and extent of the non-audit services. Having regard to the principals and guidelines established in the 16 May 2002 Commission Recommendation 2002/590/EC, the committee should determine and apply a formal policy establishing types of non-audit services that are (a) excluded, (b) permissible only after review by the committee, and (c) permissible without referral to the committee; 6) Review efficiency of the external audit process and responsiveness of management to recommendations made in the external auditor's management letter. 4.14.2. All members of the committee should be furnished with complete information on particulars of accounting, financial and other operations of the company. Company's management should inform the audit committee of the methods used to account for significant and unusual transactions where the accounting treatment may be open to different approaches. In such case a special consideration should be given to company's operations in offshore centers and/or activities carried out through special purpose vehicles (organizations) and justification of such operations.	Yes/No	Audit committee's rights and obligations stipulated in Internal rules of Audit committee do not differ from those stipulated in legal acts (Law on Audit, Official Gazette, 2008, No. 82-3233). Internal rules of Audit committee have been approved by decision of general shareholders meeting.

4.14.3. The audit committee should decide whether participation of the chairman of the collegial body, chief executive officer of the company, chief financial officer (or superior employees in charge of finances, treasury and accounting), or internal and external auditors in the meetings of the committee is required (if required, when). The committee should be entitled, when needed, to meet with any relevant person without executive directors and members of the management bodies present. 4.14.4. Internal and external auditors should be secured with not only effective working relationship with management, but also with free access to the collegial body. For this purpose the audit committee should act as the principal contact person for the internal and external auditors. 4.14.5. The audit committee should be informed of the internal auditor's work program, and should be furnished with internal audit's reports or periodic summaries. The audit committee should also be informed of the work program of the external auditor and should be furnished with report disclosing all relationships between the independent auditor and the company and its group. The committee should be timely furnished information on all issues arising from the audit. 4.14.6. The audit committee should examine whether the company is following applicable provisions regarding the possibility for employees to report alleged significant irregularities in the company, by way of complaints or through anonymous submissions (normally to an independent member of the collegial body), and should ensure that there is a procedure established for proportionate and independent investigation of these issues and for appropriate follow-up action. 4.14.7. The audit committee should report on its activities to the collegial body at least once in every six months, at the time the yearly and half-yearly statements are approved.
4.15. Every year the collegial body should conduct the assessment of its activities. The assessment should include evaluation of collegial body's structure, work organization and ability to act as a group, evaluation of each of the collegial body member's and committee's competence and work efficiency and assessment whether the collegial body has achieved its objectives. The collegial body should, at least once a year, make public (as part of the information the company annually discloses on its management structures and practices) respective information on its internal organization and working procedures, and specify what material changes were made as a result of the assessment of the collegial body of its own activities.	No	There is no practice in Company on internal assessments of management board activities and notification on it.
Principle V: The working procedure of the company's collegial bodies The working procedure of supervisory and management bodies established in the company should ensure efficient operation of these bodies and decision-making and encourage active co-operation between the company's bodies.
5.1. The company's supervisory and management bodies (hereinafter in this Principle the concept 'collegial bodies' covers both the collegial bodies of supervision and the collegial bodies of management) should be chaired by chairpersons of these bodies. The chairperson of a collegial body is responsible for proper convocation of the collegial body meetings. The chairperson should ensure that information about the meeting being convened and its agenda are communicated to all members of the body. The chairperson of a collegial body should ensure appropriate conducting of the meetings of the collegial body. The chairperson should ensure order and working atmosphere during the meeting.	Yes	Company's management board is conducted by chairman of the management board.
5.2. It is recommended that meetings of the company's collegial bodies should be carried out according to the	Yes/No	Company's management board meetings schedule approved in advance at certain intervals of time. Each company is free to decide how often to convene meetings of the collegial bodies, but it is recommended that these meetings should be convened at such intervals, which would guarantee an interrupted resolution of the essential corporate governance issues. Meetings of the company's supervisory board should be convened at least once in a quarter, and the company's board should meet at least once a month.		are convened depending on the necessity, in such a way as to ensure an interrupted resolution of the essential corporate governance issues. In Company's opinion, convening of management board meeting depending on the necessity ensures operative decision making.

5.3. Members of a collegial body should be notified about the meeting being convened in advance in order to allow sufficient time for proper preparation for the issues on the agenda of the meeting and to ensure fruitful discussion and adoption of appropriate decisions. Alongside with the notice about the meeting being convened, all the documents relevant to the issues on the agenda of the meeting should be submitted to the members of the collegial body. The agenda of the meeting should not be changed or supplemented during the meeting, unless all members of the collegial body are present or certain issues of great importance to the company require immediate resolution.	Yes
5.4. In order to co-ordinate operation of the company's collegial bodies and ensure effective decision-making process, chairpersons of the company's collegial bodies of supervision and management should closely co-operate by co-coordinating dates of the meetings, their agendas and resolving other issues of corporate governance. Members of the company's board should be free to attend meetings of the company's supervisory board, especially where issues concerning removal of the board members, their liability or remuneration are discussed.	No	The Company does not implement this recommendation whereas only management board is constituted in the Company. See commentary of 2.1. recommendation.
Principle VI: The equitable treatment of shareholders and shareholder rights The corporate governance framework should ensure the equitable treatment of all shareholders, including minority and foreign shareholders. The corporate governance framework should protect the rights of the shareholders.
6.1. It is recommended that the company's capital should consist only of the shares that grant the same rights to voting, ownership, dividend and other rights to all their holders.	Yes	The Company's capital consists of ordinary registered shares which grant equal rights to their owners.
6.2. It is recommended that investors should have access to the information concerning the rights attached to the shares of the new issue or those issued earlier in advance, i.e. before they purchase shares.	Yes	The Company informs about the rights attached to the shares of the new issue or those issued earlier in prospectuses of the shares of new issue, in annual and interim reports and in Company's website. See commentaries of X principle's recommendations.
6.3. Transactions that are important to the company and its shareholders, such as transfer, investment, and pledge of the company's assets or any other type of encumbrance should be subject to approval of the general shareholders' meeting. All shareholders should be furnished with equal opportunity to familiarize with and participate in the decision-making process when significant corporate issues, including approval of transactions referred to above, are discussed.	No	The management board of the Company adopts resolutions for transactions regarding transferring, investment, pledge or other type of the encumbrance of the tangible long-term assets the book value whereof exceeds 1/20 of the share capital of the Company. Such procedure is stipulated in Company's articles of association which were approved by decision of general shareholders meeting. Additionally, such decision making procedure (without shareholders approval) ensures less administrative burden and operative decision making.
6.4. Procedures of convening and conducting a general shareholders' meeting should ensure equal opportunities for the shareholders to effectively participate at the meetings and should not prejudice the rights and interests of the shareholders. The venue, date, and time of the shareholders' meeting should not hinder wide attendance of the shareholders.	Yes
6.5. If is possible, in order to ensure shareholders living	Yes	Company's general shareholders' meeting

abroad the right to access to the information, it is recommended that documents on the course of the general shareholders' meeting should be placed on the publicly accessible website of the company not only in Lithuanian language, but in English and /or other foreign languages in advance. It is recommended that the minutes of the general shareholders' meeting after signing them and/or adopted resolutions should be also placed on the publicly accessible website of the company. Seeking to ensure the right of foreigners to familiarize with the information, whenever feasible, documents referred to in this recommendation should be published in Lithuanian, English and/or other foreign languages. Documents referred to in this recommendation may be published on the publicly accessible website of the company to the extent that publishing of these documents is not detrimental to the company or the company's commercial secrets are not revealed.		draft resolutions are published in pursuance of applicable legal acts, i.e. not later than 21 (twenty one) days before shareholders' meeting. General shareholders' meeting draft resolutions and its adopted resolutions are published throughout NASDAQ Vilnius Stock Exchange information disclosure system and are placed on publicly accessible Company's website, in Lithuanian and English. General shareholders' meeting draft resolutions are also placed in Central Storage Facility.
6.6. Shareholders should be furnished with the opportunity to vote in the general shareholders' meeting in person and in absentia. Shareholders should not be prevented from voting in writing in advance by completing the general voting ballot.	Yes	The Company's shareholders are furnished with the opportunity to vote in general shareholders' meeting both personally and throughout duly authorized representatives. On demand of shareholders, the Company may furnish the opportunity to vote in general shareholders' meeting in writing in advance, pursuant to the Law on Companies.
6.7. With a view to increasing the shareholders' opportunities to participate effectively at shareholders' meetings, the companies are recommended to expand use of modern technologies by allowing the shareholders to participate and vote in general meetings via electronic means of communication. In such cases security of transmitted information and a possibility to identify the identity of the participating and voting person should be guaranteed. Moreover, companies could furnish its shareholders, especially shareholders living abroad, with the opportunity to watch shareholder meetings by means of modern technologies.	No	In Company's opinion, thus far there was no necessity to use modern technologies in general shareholders' meeting participation and voting process via electronic means of communication. However, shareholders have the possibilities to vote through authorized person or by completing the general voting ballot.
Principle VII: The avoidance of conflicts of interest and their disclosure The corporate governance framework should encourage members of the corporate bodies to avoid conflicts of interest and assure transparent and effective mechanism of disclosure of conflicts of interest regarding members of the corporate bodies.
7.1. Any member of the company's supervisory and management body should avoid a situation, in which his/her personal interests are in conflict or may be in conflict with the company's interests. In case such a situation did occur, a member of the company's supervisory and management body should, within reasonable time, inform other members of the same collegial body or the company's body that has elected him/her, or to the company's shareholders about a situation of a conflict of interest, indicate the nature of the conflict and value, where possible.	Yes
7.2. Any member of the company's supervisory and management body may not mix the company's assets, the use of which has not been mutually agreed upon, with his/her personal assets or use them or the information which he/she learns by virtue of his/her position as a member of a corporate body for his/her personal benefit or for the benefit of any third person without a prior agreement of the general shareholders' meeting or any other corporate body authorized by the meeting.	Yes
7.3. Any member of the company's supervisory and management body may conclude a transaction with the company, a member of a corporate body of which he/she is. Such a transaction (except insignificant ones due to their low value or concluded when carrying out routine operations in the company under usual conditions) must	Yes be immediately reported in writing or orally, by recording this in the minutes of the meeting, to other members of the same corporate body or to the corporate body that has elected him/her or to the company's shareholders. Transactions specified in this recommendation are also subject to recommendation 4.5.

7.4. Any member of the company's supervisory and management body should abstain from voting when decisions concerning transactions or other issues of personal or business interest are voted on.	Yes
Principle VIII: Company's remuneration policy Remuneration policy and procedure for approval, revision and disclosure of directors' remuneration established in the company should prevent potential conflicts of interest and abuse in determining remuneration of directors, in addition it should ensure publicity and transparency both of company's remuneration policy and remuneration of directors.
8.1. A company should make a public statement of the company's remuneration policy (hereinafter the remuneration statement) which should be clear and easily understandable. This remuneration statement should be published as a part of the company's annual statement as well as posted on the company's website.	No	The Company does not prepare and publish remuneration statement. In Company's opinion, such information commercially is not published. Pursuant to law requirements, the Company publishes in Company's annual report information regarding total sums counted to management board members, chief executive officer and chief financial officer during reporting period.
8.2. Remuneration statement should mainly focus on directors' remuneration policy for the following year and, if appropriate, the subsequent years. The statement should contain a summary of the implementation of the remuneration policy in the previous financial year. Special attention should be given to any significant changes in company's remuneration policy as compared to the previous financial year.	No	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation.
8.3. Remuneration statement should leastwise include the following information: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explanation of the relative importance of the variable and non-variable components of directors' remuneration; • Sufficient information on performance criteria that entitles directors to share options, shares or variable components of remuneration; • An explanation how the choice of performance criteria contributes to the long-term interests of the company; • An explanation of the methods, applied in order to determine whether performance criteria have been fulfilled; • Sufficient information on deferment periods with regard to variable components of remuneration; • Sufficient information on the linkage between the remuneration and performance; • The main parameters and rationale for any annual bonus scheme and any other non-cash benefits; • Sufficient information on the policy regarding termination payments; • Sufficient information with regard to vesting periods for share-based remuneration, as referred to in point 8.13 of this Code; • Sufficient information on the policy regarding retention of shares after vesting, as referred to in point 8.15 of this Code; • Sufficient information on the composition of peer groups of companies the remuneration policy of which has been examined in relation to the establishment of the remuneration policy of the company concerned; • A description of the main characteristics of supplementary pension or early retirement schemes for directors; • Remuneration statement should not include commercially sensitive information. 	No	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation.
8.4. Remuneration statement should also summarize and explain company's policy regarding the terms of the	No	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation.

contracts executed with executive directors and members of the management bodies. It should include, inter alia, information on the duration of contracts with executive directors and members of the management bodies, the applicable notice periods and details of provisions for termination payments linked to early termination under contracts for executive directors and members of the management bodies.
8.5. Remuneration statement should also contain detailed information on the entire amount of remuneration, inclusive of other benefits, that was paid to individual directors over the relevant financial year. This document should list at least the information set out in items 8.5.1 to 8.5.4 for each person who has served as a director of the company at any time during the relevant financial year. 8.5.1. The following remuneration and/or emoluments-related information should be disclosed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The total amount of remuneration paid or due to the director for services performed during the relevant financial year, inclusive of, where relevant, attendance fees fixed by the annual general shareholders meeting; • The remuneration and advantages received from any undertaking belonging to the same group; • The remuneration paid in the form of profit sharing and/or bonus payments and the reasons why such bonus payments and/or profit sharing were granted; • If permissible by the law, any significant additional remuneration paid to directors for special services outside the scope of the usual functions of a director; • Compensation receivable or paid to each former executive director or member of the management body as a result of his resignation from the office during the previous financial year; • Total estimated value of non-cash benefits considered as remuneration, other than the items covered in the above points. 8.5.2. As regards shares and/or rights to acquire share options and/or all other share-incentive schemes, the following information should be disclosed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The number of share options offered or shares granted by the company during the relevant financial year and their conditions of application; • The number of shares options exercised during the relevant financial year and, for each of them, the number of shares involved and the exercise price or the value of the interest in the share incentive scheme at the end of the financial year; • The number of share options unexercised at the end of the financial year; their exercise price, the exercise date and the main conditions for the exercise of the rights; • All changes in the terms and conditions of existing share options occurring during the financial year. 8.5.3. The following supplementary pension schemes-related information should be disclosed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • When the pension scheme is a defined-benefit scheme, changes in the directors' accrued benefits under that scheme during the relevant financial year; • When the pension scheme is defined-contribution scheme, detailed information on contributions paid or payable by the company in respect of that director during the relevant financial year. 8.5.4. The statement should also state amounts that the company or any subsidiary company or entity included in the consolidated annual financial report of the company has paid to each person who has served as a director in the company at any time during the relevant financial year in the form of loans, advance payments or guarantees, including the amount outstanding and the interest rate.	No	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation.

ANNEX 1 TO CONSOLIDATED ANNUAL REPORT

PRINCIPLES/ RECOMMENDATIONS	YES/NO /NOT APPLICABLE	COMMENTARY
8.6. Where the remuneration policy includes variable components of remuneration, companies should set limits on the variable component(s). The non-variable component of remuneration should be sufficient to allow the company to withhold variable components of remuneration when performance criteria are not met.	Not applicable	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation.
8.7. Award of variable components of remuneration should be subject to predetermined and measurable performance criteria.	Not applicable	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation.
8.8. Where a variable component of remuneration is awarded, a major part of the variable component should be deferred for a minimum period of time. The part of the variable component subject to deferment should be determined in relation to the relative weight of the variable component compared to the non-variable component of remuneration.	Not applicable	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation.
8.9. Contractual arrangements with executive or managing directors should include provisions that permit the company to reclaim variable components of remuneration that were awarded on the basis of data which subsequently proved to be manifestly misstated.	Not applicable	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation.
8.10. Termination payments should not exceed a fixed amount or fixed number of years of annual remuneration, which should, in general, not be higher than two years of the non-variable component of remuneration or the equivalent thereof.	Not applicable	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation.
8.11. Termination payments should not be paid if the termination is due to inadequate performance.	Not applicable	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation.
8.12. The information on preparatory and decision-making processes, during which a policy of remuneration of directors is being established, should also be disclosed. Information should include data, if applicable, on authorities and composition of the remuneration committee, names and surnames of external consultants whose services have been used in determination of the remuneration policy as well as the role of shareholders' annual general meeting.	Not applicable	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation.
8.13. Shares should not vest for at least three years after their award.	Not applicable	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation. Company's directors are not remunerated in shares.
8.14. Share options or any other right to acquire shares or to be remunerated on the basis of share price movements should not be exercisable for at least three years after their award. Vesting of shares and the right to exercise share options or any other right to acquire shares or to be remunerated on the basis of share price movements, should be subject to predetermined and measurable performance criteria.	Not applicable	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation. Company's directors are not remunerated in shares, share options or any other right to purchase Company's shares.
8.15. After vesting, directors should retain a number of shares, until the end of their mandate, subject to the need to finance any costs related to acquisition of the shares. The number of shares to be retained should be fixed, for example, twice the value of total annual remuneration (the non-variable plus the variable components).	Not applicable	See commentaries of 8.1. and 8.14 recommendations.
8.16. Remuneration of non-executive or supervisory directors should not include share options.	Not applicable	See commentaries of 8.1. and 8.14 recommendations.
8.17. Shareholders, in particular institutional shareholders, should be encouraged to attend general meetings where appropriate and make considered use of their votes regarding directors' remuneration.	Not applicable	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation.
8.18. Without prejudice to the role and organization of the relevant bodies responsible for setting directors' remunerations, the remuneration policy or any other significant change in remuneration policy should be included into the agenda of the shareholders' annual general meeting. Remuneration statement should be put for voting in shareholders' annual general meeting. The vote may be either mandatory or advisory.	Not applicable	See commentary of 8.1. recommendation.

PRINCIPLES/ RECOMMENDATIONS	YES/NO /NOT APPLICABLE	COMMENTARY
8.19. Schemes anticipating remuneration of directors in shares, share options or any other right to purchase shares or be remunerated on the basis of share price movements should be subject to the prior approval of shareholders' annual general meeting by way of a resolution prior to their adoption. The approval of scheme should be related with the scheme itself and not to the grant of such share-based benefits under that scheme to individual directors. All significant changes in scheme provisions should also be subject to shareholders' approval prior to their adoption; the approval decision should be made in shareholders' annual general meeting. In such case shareholders should be notified on all terms of suggested changes and get an explanation on the impact of the suggested changes.	Not applicable	See commentaries of 8.1. and 8.14 recommendations.
8.20. The following issues should be subject to approval by the shareholders' annual general meeting: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Grant of share-based schemes, including share options, to directors; • Determination of maximum number of shares and main conditions of share granting; • The term within which options can be exercised; • The conditions for any subsequent change in the exercise of the options, if permissible by law; • All other long-term incentive schemes for which directors are eligible and which are not available to other employees of the company under similar terms. Annual general meeting should also set the deadline within which the body responsible for remuneration of directors may award compensations listed in this article to individual directors. 	Not applicable
8.21. Should national law or company's Articles of Association allow, any discounted option arrangement under which any rights are granted to subscribe to shares at a price lower than the market value of the share prevailing on the day of the price determination, or the average of the market values over a number of days preceding the date when the exercise price is determined, should also be subject to the shareholders' approval.	Not applicable
8.22. Provisions of Articles 8.19 and 8.20 should not be applicable to schemes allowing for participation under similar conditions to company's employees or employees of any subsidiary company whose employees are eligible to participate in the scheme and which has been approved in the shareholders' annual general meeting.	Not applicable
8.23. Prior to the annual general meeting that is intended to consider decision stipulated in Article 8.19, the shareholders must be provided an opportunity to familiarize with draft resolution and project-related notice (the documents should be posted on the company's website). The notice should contain the full text of the share-based remuneration schemes or a description of their key terms, as well as full names of the participants in the schemes. Notice should also specify the relationship of the schemes and the overall remuneration policy of the directors. Draft resolution must have a clear reference to the scheme itself or to the summary of its key terms. Shareholders must also be presented with information on how the company intends to provide for the shares required to meet its obligations under incentive schemes. It should be clearly stated whether the company intends to buy shares in the market, hold the shares in reserve or issue new ones. There should also be a summary on scheme-related expenses the company will suffer due to the anticipated application of the scheme. All information given in this article must be posted on the company's	Not applicable employee participation schemes in the company's share capital, etc. should be disclosed when information specified in item 7 of Recommendation 10.1 is under disclosure.		Financial Reporting Standards applicable in European Union. As well this information is disclosed by chief executive officer and senior management in presentations to investors.

10.5. Information should be disclosed in such a way that neither shareholders nor investors are discriminated with regard to the manner or scope of access to information. Information should be disclosed to all simultaneously. It is recommended that notices about material events should be announced before or after a trading session on the Vilnius Stock Exchange, so that all the company's shareholders and investors should have equal access to the information and make informed investing decisions.	Yes	The information is disclosed pursuant to the requirements of the laws of the Republic of Lithuania. The information is disclosed throughout Nasdaq Vilnius Stock Exchange information disclosure system, thus ensuring simultaneous disclosure of information to investors. The information is straight away placed in Central Storage Facility. The information is disclosed in Lithuanian and English, before or after a trading session on the Nasdaq Vilnius Stock Exchange.
10.6. Channels for disseminating information should provide for fair, timely and cost-efficient access to relevant information by users. It is recommended that information technologies should be employed for wider dissemination of information, for instance, by placing the information on the company's website. It is recommended that information should be published and placed on the company's website not only in Lithuanian, but also in English, and, whenever possible and necessary, in other languages as well.	Yes	See commentary of 10.5 recommendation. All the information disclosed throughout Nasdaq Vilnius Stock Exchange information disclosure system and posted in Central Storage Facility is placed on Company's website especially intended for the investors http://aprangagroup.lt/en/investors , in Lithuanian and English.
10.7. It is recommended that the company's annual reports and other periodical accounts prepared by the company should be placed on the company's website. It is recommended that the company should announce information about material events and changes in the price of the company's shares on the Stock Exchange on the company's website too.	Yes	See commentary of 10.5 recommendation.
Principle XI: The selection of the company's auditor The mechanism of the selection of the company's auditor should ensure independence of the firm of auditor's conclusion and opinion.
11.1. An annual audit of the company's financial statements and report should be conducted by an independent firm of auditors in order to provide an external and objective opinion on the company's financial statements.
