Resolution regarding the Board of Director's proposed guidelines for remuneration and other terms of employment for Senior Executives (item 13)

The board of directors proposes that the following principles for remuneration and other terms of employment for senior executives shall be applied:

The company shall apply market-related remuneration and terms of employment in order to recruit and retain highly skilled employees with the capability to achieve set goals. For employment in different countries, each country's generally accepted terms of employment and practices shall be observed.

The forms of remuneration aim to achieve a shared view in relation to the long-term outlook of the operations by rewarding performances of employees that benefit the company and thereby the shareholders. Individual employee remuneration shall be based on the respective position and responsibilities, performance, expertise and experience. The remuneration shall normally consist of fixed basic salary and a defined contribution pension benefit, amounting to a maximum of 35 percent of the fixed basic salary for the president of the parent company and 30 percent of the fixed basic salary for other senior executives. When deemed appropriate, the basic salary and pension benefit can be supplemented with variable remuneration, other benefits and participation in incentive programs.

Only the president of the parent company has the right to termination benefits, which in the event of termination by the company, amount to the equivalent of 12 monthly salaries.

The board of directors has the right to depart from the above principles if special grounds exist in particular cases.

Resolution regarding the Board of Director's proposal on authorization to resolve on issues for company acquisitions (item 14)

The board of directors proposes that the annual general meeting authorize the board until the next annual general meeting to resolve on issuing – in deviation from the shareholders' preferential rights – a maximum of 1 200 000 new B shares or of convertibles exchangeable for a maximum of 1 200 000 new B shares. The board of directors shall also be able to make decisions in such cases when contributions can take place with assets other than cash (contributions in kind) or with right of set-off or otherwise subject to conditions.

The share capital may not increase by more than SEK 400 000 in total.
The authorization relates to company acquisitions.

For a valid resolution of the annual general meeting under this item, shareholders holding at least two thirds of both the votes cast and represented at the meeting must support the resolution.

SHARES AND VOTES

At the time of this convening notice, the total number of shares in the company was 18 646 370 shares, whereof 853,800 were Class A shares and 17 792 570 were Class B shares. The total number of votes in the company amounts to 26 330 570.

DOCUMENTS

The annual report and the auditors' report as well as the board of director's and the nomination committee's complete proposals for resolution as above, the auditors' report according to the companies act, chapter 8, 54§ and proxy forms, will be available on the company's website: www.bts.com and will be sent to shareholders upon request and who provide their address, as from April 21, 2017. The documents will also be available at the general meeting of shareholders.
