The shares shall rank for dividend from such time as is determined by the Board of Directors; however, no later than from the financial year immediately following the capital increase.

- 2.2.2.4 In other respects, the Board of Directors shall lay down the terms and conditions applicable to the subscription for shares.

3 General Meetings

- 3.1 Annual General Meetings shall be held every year in the municipality where the Company's registered office is located and sufficiently early to ensure observance of the time limits for holding Annual General Meetings and filing Annual Reports.
- 3.2 Requests for the inclusion of a specific proposal in the agenda of the Annual General Meeting shall be submitted in writing by shareholders to the Board of Directors. If the request is submitted no later than six weeks before the date of the General Meeting, the shareholder is entitled to have the proposal included in the agenda. If the Board of Directors receives the request later than six weeks before the General Meeting, the Board of Directors will determine whether the request has been made sufficiently early to permit its inclusion in the agenda.
- 3.3 No later than eight weeks before the contemplated date of the Annual General Meeting, the Company shall announce such date and the deadline for shareholders' submission of proposals for specific business to be included in the agenda.
- 3.4 Extraordinary General Meetings shall be held following a resolution adopted by the shareholders at a General Meeting or by the Board of Directors, at the request of the Company's auditor or upon a written request submitted to the Board of Directors by shareholders holding in the aggregate not less than 5 % of the share capital. This request must contain a specification of the proposal or proposals desired to be considered at the General Meeting. Such an Extraordinary General Meeting shall be convened no later than 14 days after the receipt of the appropriate request.
- 3.5 The shareholders shall be convened to General Meetings subject to not less than three weeks' nor more than five weeks' notice. General Meetings shall be convened by a notice published on the Company's website (www.tk-development.dk). Moreover, General Meetings shall be convened (a) by email to shareholders recorded in the Register of Shareholders who have so requested by informing the Company of an email address for electronic communication, and (b) by regular mail to shareholders recorded in the Register of Shareholders who have so requested. In addition to the day and time of the General Meeting, the convening notice shall contain information about the agenda and a statement of any proposals submitted for consideration.

- 3.6 At a General Meeting, resolutions can only be adopted in respect of business included in the agenda and any proposed amendments thereto.
- 3.7 In addition, the convening notice shall contain the following:
1. A description of the amount of share capital and voting rights of shareholders.
 2. A clear and accurate description of the procedures to be complied with by the shareholders in order to be able to attend and vote at General Meetings, see section 97(2) of the Danish Companies Act.
 3. The cut-off date, see section 84(1) of the Danish Companies Act with a specification that only individuals who are shareholders as of that date are entitled to attend and vote at General Meetings.
 4. A specification as to where and how to obtain the complete, unabridged text of the documents to be submitted at the General Meeting, the agenda and the complete proposals.
 5. A specification of the Internet address where the information referred to in section 99 of the Danish Companies Act will be made available.
- 3.8 If proposals to alter the Articles of Association are to be considered at a General Meeting, the essentials of such proposals shall be stated in the convening notice.
- 3.9 No later than two weeks prior to a General Meeting, the agenda and the complete wording of the proposals to be considered at the General Meeting, and - with respect to the Annual General Meeting - moreover the Annual Report, duly provided with the auditors' report and signed by the members of the Executive Board and of the Board of Directors, shall be available for inspection by the shareholders at the Company's office.
- 3.10 The Company shall make at least the following information available to its shareholders on its website for a continuous period of three weeks commencing no later than three weeks before the General Meeting, including the day on which it is held:
1. The convening notice.
 2. The total number of shares and voting rights as of the date when the convening notice is issued.
 3. The documents to be submitted at the General Meeting.
 4. The agenda and the complete proposals.
 5. If required, the forms to be used when voting by proxy and by letter, unless such forms are sent directly to the shareholders. If these forms cannot be made available on the Internet for technical reasons, the Company will state on its website how shareholders can obtain the forms as hardcopies. In such case, the Company will send the forms to any shareholder who so requests. The Company will pay the expenses in this connection.

4 Attending General Meetings, voting rights, etc.

- 4.1 A shareholder who holds shares in the Company as of the cut-off date is entitled to attend a General Meeting, provided that he has given notice to the Company at least three days in advance of his intention to attend such meeting. The cut-off date is one week prior to the General Meeting.
- 4.2 Each share amount of DKK 1.00 shall confer one vote on the holder. The voting right may be exercised pursuant to a written and dated instrument of proxy. Such instrument of proxy may not be issued for a period of more than one year.
- 4.3 Accordingly, voting rights will be determined based on the shares held by each shareholder on the cut-off date, as appearing from the entry in the Register of Shareholders regarding the shareholder's ownership. Any notifications received by the Company regarding the shareholder's ownership for entry in, but not yet recorded in the Register of Shareholders, will also be taken into account for this purpose.

5 Agenda of the Annual General Meeting

- 5.1 The agenda of the Annual General Meeting shall include the following business:
1. The Board of Directors' report on the Company's activities in the past financial year.
 2. The presentation of the Annual Report, duly provided with the auditors' report, together with a motion for its adoption.
 3. A resolution proposing the application of profits or the covering of losses.
 4. Consideration of any proposals from the Board of Directors and any proposals from shareholders.
 5. Election of members to the Board of Directors.
 6. Election of auditors.
 7. Any other business.

6 Voting

- 6.1 Unless otherwise prescribed by Danish legislation, resolutions put to the vote of the shareholders at a General Meeting shall be decided by a simple majority of votes among the persons in attendance. But the adoption of any resolution to alter the Articles of Association or to wind up the Company is subject to the affirmative votes of not less than two-thirds of the votes cast as well as of the voting stock represented at the General Meeting.

7 Chairman of the Meeting

- 7.1 General Meetings shall be presided over by a Chairman appointed by the Board of Directors. The Chairman thus appointed shall settle all matters relating to the transaction of business and the voting and shall ensure that the General Meeting is held in an appropriate and expedient manner in compliance with legislation.

8 Minute book

- 8.1 An account of the proceedings at the General Meeting and the resolutions made shall be recorded in a minute book authorized by the Board of Directors for such purpose. The Chairman of the Meeting and all members of the Board of Directors attending the relevant General Meeting shall sign the minutes. All decisions shall be entered in the minute book.
- 8.2 No later than two weeks after the General Meeting, the minute book or a certified copy thereof shall be made available to the shareholders.

9 Board of Directors and Executive Board

- 9.1 The Company shall be managed by a Board of Directors composed of not less than four nor more than seven members, elected by the shareholders at the General Meeting. The Board of Directors shall be elected for a term of one year at a time, but are eligible for re-election. The Board of Directors shall elect a Chairman and a Deputy Chairman from among their number. The Board of Directors shall lay down its own rules of procedure. In the event of a tie, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote. An account of the proceedings at Board of Directors' Meetings and the resolutions made shall be recorded in a minute book authorized by the Board of Directors for such purpose. All members of the Board of Directors attending the relevant Board Meeting shall sign the minutes.
- 9.2 The Board of Directors shall appoint an Executive Board, to be composed of one or more members, to be in charge of the day-to-day management of the Company.

10 Guidelines for remuneration of Board of Directors and Executive Board

- 10.1 The Company has prepared general guidelines for the remuneration of members of the Board of Directors and Executive Board, including an incentive pay scheme for the Executive Board, and these guidelines have been published on the Company's website, www.tk-development.com.

11 Binding signatures

11.1 The Company shall be bound in legal transactions by the joint signatures of the Chairman and the Deputy Chairman, by the joint signatures of the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman and any member of the Board of Directors or of the Executive Board, by the joint signatures of any three members of the Board of Directors, by the joint signatures of any two members of the Executive Board, or by the joint signatures of all members of the Board of Directors.

12 Financial year

12.1 The Company's financial year shall run from 1 February to 31 January.

13 Audit

13.1 The Company's Annual Reports shall be audited by one or more state-authorized public accountants elected by the shareholders at the General Meeting to serve for one year at a time.

14 Annual Report

14.1 The Annual Report shall be presented in compliance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), as approved by the EU, and in accordance with Danish disclosure requirements for annual reports of listed companies.

14.2 If a loss relating to any preceding year has remained unbalanced, then any profit shall first be applied to balance off such loss. Any remaining profit available for distribution shall be distributed as resolved by the shareholders at the General Meeting at the recommendation of the Board of Directors.

15 Electronic communication

15.1 The Company uses electronic document exchange and electronic mail (electronic communication) to communicate with its shareholders. The Company may at all times choose to communicate by regular mail as a supplement or alternative to electronic communication.

- 15.2 The Company may send all notices pursuant to the Articles of Association, the Danish Companies Act and stock exchange legislation and regulations by electronic mail to the Company's shareholders, and may also present or send any documents electronically. Accordingly, the Company may send emails to shareholders with a notice convening a General Meeting, the agenda, the complete proposals to be considered at the General Meeting, as well as admission cards, instruments of proxy, subscription forms, company announcements, annual reports, shareholder information and other general information from the Company to its shareholders. Apart from admission cards to General Meetings, the above-mentioned notices and documents will also be available on the Company's website, www.tk-development.dk.
- 15.3 The Company may decide that requests for admission cards to General Meetings shall be made electronically via the Company's website, www.tk-development.dk, and/or via another website indicated on the Company's website.
- 15.4 Information about requirements as to the systems used and the use of electronic communication will be given by the Company directly to its shareholders or published on its website, www.tk-development.dk.
- 15.5 The individual shareholders shall be responsible for ensuring that the Company is always notified of correct electronic addresses (email addresses).
- 15.6 Notwithstanding the above, at a shareholder's written request a notice convening a General Meeting may be sent by regular mail to the postal address entered in the Register of Shareholders.
