Schedule 1 and 2

Warrants granted according to authorisation of November 5, 1998.

On November 15, 1998 the Compensation Committee constituted among the board of directors has issued warrants for a nominal value of DKK 732,000 at a price of DKK 15.00 for each share of DKK 2.00, which for all issued warrants imply a price of DKK 5,490,000. The purchase price shall be paid in cash at the time for the execution of the warrant against the delivery of the shares. As the warrant has been granted to individual employees the question regarding distribution in case of over subscription does not arise.

The terms and conditions of the warrants are the following:

The new shares shall be negotiable and shall be name shares.

Of the warrants issued nom. DKK 632,000 is conditional upon continued employment in the company. DKK 100,000 is not conditional to employment in the company.

The warrants issued can be exercised in the time from January 1, 2000 to December 31, 2000 with a maximum up to 25 per cent. In the time from January 1, 2001 to December 31, 2001 with a maximum up to 25 per cent accumulated 50 per cent. In the time from January 1, 2002 to December 31, 2002 with 25 per cent accumulated 75 per cent and in the time after January 1, 2003 with 25 per cent.

The conditions for the exercise of the warrant is that notification of intention to exercise the warrant shall be received by the company no later than 30 days prior to the end of the subscription period unless the board of directors decides otherwise i.e. on August 15, 2003 at the latest.

The warrants are not exercisable until 6 months after the first day of listing of the Company on an authorised stock exchange. In the event that the company has not been so listed by July 1, 2002 the warrants shall however be exercisable as from this date.

Considering the fact that the Board of Directors may be authorised to increase the share capital for a period of 5 years at a time only it is the intention of the Board of Directors to offer the holder of the warrants a prolongation of the subscription period for a further 5-year period until the year 2008 in expectation of a renewal of the authorisation by a general meeting held prior to August 15, 2003.

The warrant issued constitutes a personal non-assignable right.

For the warrants of a nom. value of DKK 632,000, which are conditional upon continued employment with the company it is a condition for the exercise of the warrant that the employee is employed in the company on the actual date of the exercise of the warrant.

In the event that the holder of the warrant should leave his or her position with the company the right to subscribe two shares in the company is cancelled as per the actual date of the holder of the warrant leaving his or her position.

For the DKK 100,000 warrants which are not conditional upon continued employment apply that the employee must have notified the company of his or her intention to exercise the warrant no later than 30 days after the resignation/ termination or the actual date of the employee leaving his or her position. At the same time the right to exercise the warrant shall be postponed so that the employee can only exercise non-exercised warrants in the period from January 1, to September 13, 2003.

The exercise of warrants after 30 days as from the time as dated above can only be effected at the market share price with a deduction of 5 per cent. In the event that the denomination of the shares should subsequently be altered a proportional deduction shall be made corresponding to the difference between the current denomination and the altered denomination. In the event that the market price cannot be determined as an official stock exchange quotation the price shall be fixed by the auditor of the company as the trade value of the shares based on a calculation model agreed to by the parties. In the event that the parties fail to accept the price fixed by the auditor the trade value shall be set by an arbitration board with binding effect on the parties.

Adjustment of the share market price and the subscription price will in case of capital increase etc. cf. the Danish Companies Act, section 40a, subsection 2 be according to the Articles of Association.

All personal and social security tax or other tax consequences of whatever nature for the holder of the warrant or for the company shall be of no concern to the company.

On May 28, 1999 the Compensation Committee constituted among the board of directors has issued warrants for a nominal value of DKK 230,000 at a price of DKK 20.00 for each share of DKK 2.00, which for all issued warrants imply a price of DKK 2,300,000. The purchase price shall be paid in cash at the time for the execution of the warrant against the delivery of the shares. As the warrant has been granted to individual employees the question regarding distribution in case of over subscription does not arise.

The terms and conditions of the warrants are the following:

The new shares shall be negotiable and shall be name shares.

Of the warrants issued nom. DKK 200,000 is conditional upon continued employment in the company. DKK 30,000 is not conditional to employment in the company.

Schedule 3

Maconomy A/S (the "Compab'ny") WARRANT PROGRAMME 2006

At the Company's annual general meeting on 27 April 2005, the Board of Directors was authorised on specific conditions to issue warrants for DKK 1,250,000 nominal value to executives and the members of the Management Board and the Board of Directors of the Company or its subsidiaries.

On 22 August 2006, the Board of Directors adopted this programme, which lays down the rules governing the issue and allotment of warrants to the key employees of the Company and its Danish and foreign subsidiaries on the basis of the above authorisation. Thus, the programme does not cover allotment to the Company's Board of Directors.

This programme applies to the rights to subscribe for shares in the Company allotted on 22 August 2006 and subsequently ("Warrants") to a key employee of the Company or its Danish or foreign subsidiaries ("Employee").

The Company's Board of Directors determines the time of expiry of the programme. No Employee, present or past, can after the expiry of the programme demand allotment of any Warrants or compensation for any Warrants not allotted.

1 ALLOTMENT

- 1.1 Warrants are allotted free of charge.
- 1.2 Allotment of Warrants is subject to a separate allotment agreement, the form and contents of which correspond to Appendix 1 (the "Allotment Agreement").
- 1.3 Each Warrant entitles the holder to subscribe for one share of DKK 2 nominal value at the subscription price set out in the Allotment Agreement.

2 TIME FOR EXERCISE OF WARRANTS

- 2.1 Warrants allotted may be exercised within the time intervals set out in Clause 2.2 for a 2-year period starting two years after the allotment (the "Exercise Period"). Warrants for which no exercise notice has been given on or before the last day of the Exercise Period or before the expiry of the time limit in respect of the postponed Exercise Period referred to in Subclauses 2.3 and 2.4, cf. Clause 3, below will lapse automatically without any further notice.

- 2.2 Within the Exercise Period, the Warrants may solely be exercised twice a year during time intervals of five days starting from the time of publication of the Company's annual report and its semiannual report, respectively. The time of publication is written in the Company's financial calendar.
- 2.3 The Board of Directors may extraordinarily decide that Warrants may be exercised at another time than set out above. Further, the Board of Directors may advance the time interval within which the Warrants allotted can be exercised upon delisting or divestment of the entire Company in the form of a sale of assets or shares or otherwise ("Exit"). The Employee shall be notified in writing of any change of the time of exercise not later than upon Exit and of the time limit for the Employee's notice that he wants to exercise the Warrants allotted. If the Employee has not given notice of the exercise of Warrants before the expiry of the time limit, the Warrants allotted will lapse.
- 2.4 If the Employee is prevented from exercising the Warrants pursuant to Clause 4 on the last day of the time interval set out in Clause 2.2 for exercising the Warrants, the Employee may notify the Chairman of the Board in writing that he wants to exercise the Warrants, but that he is prevented from doing so. In that case, the Chairman of the Board shall notify the employee in writing when the Employee may exercise the Warrants again. The Employee may then exercise the Warrants within three days of the Chairman's written notice to the Employee. If due to the expiry of the Exercise Period the Employee is prevented from exercising the Warrants, the Exercise Period shall be considered to have been postponed in respect of this Employee, who shall be considered to have exercised the Warrants within the Exercise Period if he exercises within the said three days.

3 PROCEDURE RELATING TO THE EXERCISE OF WARRANTS AND SETTLEMENT

- 3.1 The notice of exercise of the Warrants shall be given by way of the form attached as Appendix 2. The Company will check whether the conditions for exercising the Warrants have been met. In the affirmative, the Company will arrange for the registration of the Employee in the Company's register of shareholders for the shares in question, when the Company has received the consideration for exercising the Warrants, cf. Clause 3.2.
- 3.2 The cash consideration for exercising the Warrants shall be paid irrevocably not later than on the day on which the notice of exercise of the Warrants is given.
- 3.3 Unless otherwise provided by the Allotment Agreement, the Employee's notice of exercise of the Warrants shall comprise all the Warrants allotted on the basis of the Allotment Agreement in question. In the event of any discrepancy between the number of Warrants comprised by the exercise notice under the Allotment Agreement and the number of Warrants that the Employee wants to exercise according to the form, the Employee's exercise notice shall be disregarded as if it had not been given.

4 INSIDER DEALING

- 4.1 Exercise of the Warrants is subject to the provisions on insider dealing in force from time to time, including the Company's internal rules governing trade in securities issued by the Company.

5 SHARE CAPITAL

- 5.1 Shares subscribed for by way of exercise of Warrants shall be issued in the name of the holder and shall be recorded in the Company's register of shareholders. The shares shall be non-negotiable instruments. No shareholder shall be obliged to let his shares be redeemed in full or in part, and no new shares shall carry any special rights.

6 TERMINATION AND LAPSE OF WARRANTS

- 6.1 Warrants allotted will lapse automatically without notice or compensation after the last exercise date, see Clause 2.1.
- 6.2 Unless otherwise provided in the Allotment Agreement, the Employee's right to exercise the Warrants will lapse if the employment is terminated, and the Employee is not entitled to any additional allotment or compensation for the lapsed Warrants.

7 STRUCTURAL CHANGES

- 7.1 In the event of a capital increase, capital decrease, an issue of convertible debt instruments or new warrants or the Company's dissolution, including merger or demerger, prior to the exercise of the Warrants, no adjustment will be made, neither of the number of shares for which a Warrant entitles the holder to subscribe nor of the subscription price set out in the Allotment Agreement.
- 7.2 If the Company becomes a party to e.g. a merger or a demerger, the Employee is obliged to accept any necessary changes in this programme and in the Allotment Agreement as directed by the Board of Directors.

8 RESTRICTIONS AND OTHER TERMS

Warrants allotted cannot be assigned or otherwise transferred, neither to be held nor as security.

- 8.1 The Company's existing shareholders shall not have any pre-emption rights in connection with the allotment and subsequent exercise of Warrants and the subscription for new shares.

9 RIGHTS

- 9.1 The new shares subscribed by exercising the Warrants allotted shall have the same rights as the other shares of the Company. Any Warrants remaining unexercised do not confer any shareholder rights on the holders.
- 9.2 The Employee's rights as a shareholder do not apply until the Exercise Consideration has been paid, and the shares have been transferred to the Employee and registered in the Company's register of shareholders.
- 9.3 Allotment of Warrants does not affect the right to alter or terminate the Employee's employment for cause or convenience.
- 9.4 Warrants allotted, or the value thereof, are not included in the calculation of holiday pay, holiday allowance or additional holiday allowance. The same applies to the calculation of allowances or compensation in accordance with law, collective agreements or other agreements.

10 COSTS AND DIRECT AND INDIRECT TAXES

- 10.1 All costs and indirect taxes relating to the creation of this programme and the allotment of Warrants are defrayed by the Company. The stockbroker and settlement fees charged in connection with the Employee's exercise of the Warrants are defrayed by the Company.
- 10.2 The tax consequences of the programme for the Employee shall be of no concern to the Company, and no claims whatsoever can be raised against the Company in connection with any tax claims. The Employee shall finance the tax which falls due on the exercise of the Warrants or at a later point in time in accordance with legislation in force from time to time. Taxation and amended tax legislation will not affect the above-mentioned term and conditions.

11 ADJUSTMENT OF THE PROGRAMME

- 11.1 The Board of Directors may resolve to make company law, employment law and/or tax law adjustments to the programme to reflect local conditions. In this context, it may also resolve that one or more provisions of the programme shall not apply.
- 11.2 The resolutions in Clause 12.1 shall have the form of a rider to this programme and shall apply to the Employees of the Company for which the adjustments have been made and/or shall be described in the Allotment Agreement with the indication that it is an adjustment to Appendix 1.

12 GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTES

- 12.1 This programme shall be governed by and construed in accordance with Danish law.

- 12.2 If the programme and/or the Allotment Agreement contain(s) any provisions which are inconsistent with mandatory statutory provisions in the country in which the Employee performs his duties so that the provisions in question are set aside, such setting aside shall not affect the validity of the other provisions in the programme and/or the Allotment Agreement.
- 12.3 Any dispute arising out of or in connection with the conclusion, interpretation or implementation of this programme shall be settled by arbitration on the basis of Danish law pursuant to the "Rules of Procedure of the Danish Institute of Arbitration (Danish Arbitration)". The members of the arbitration tribunal shall be appointed by the Institute in accordance with these rules. The Company and the Employee shall keep confidential all matters concerning arbitration proceedings, if any, including the existence of the arbitration proceedings, the subject-matter and the arbitration award.
- 12.4 The arbitration tribunal determines the allocation of costs between the parties.

Adopted by the Board of Directors on 22 August 2006.
