

ALBIOMA

PRESS RELEASE

PARIS LA DÉFENSE, AUGUST 7, 2013

LIQUIDITY CONTRACT

Implementation of the liquidity contract entrusted to new investment services provider

Albioma announces that the implementation of its liquidity contract has been entrusted to Exane BNP Paribas instead of Kepler Cheuvreux.

This liquidity contract is compliant with the AMAFI deontological charter approved by the French Financial Market Authority and has been entered into within the framework of the share buyback scheme approved by the General Meeting of shareholders of May 30, 2013, the description of which was released on the Company's website on June 4, 2013. It shall aim to foster regular and liquid trading in the Albioma shares (ISIN: FR0000060402, ticker: ABIO) on the regulated market of NYSE Euronext in Paris.

This new contract came into force on August 7, 2013. Cash and shares that were on the liquidity account relating to the Kepler Cheuvreux liquidity contract were transferred on the liquidity account relating to the Exane BNP Paribas liquidity contract, representing:

- 51 650 shares, and
- € 1 090 057.85

Next on the agenda: revenue figures for the third quarter of the 2013 financial year, on October 30, 2013 (post-trading).

ABOUT ALBIOMA

Using its unique expertise in exploiting bagasse (a by-product of sugar cane), ALBIOMA is able to produce electric energy from every type of biomass through a cogeneration process. The Group's ambition is to be recognized as agri-businesses' partner of choice for turning biomass into a highly-effective source of energy without conflict over use. In addition, ALBIOMA develops and operates high-margin solar projects.
