

2008-12-16

SIX AB appoints Bo Strandberg as interim CEO

SIX AB (publ), which as of today is owned to more than 99 % by SIX Group AG, is now entering into a new phase as subsidiary of the SIX Group AG. As a result of this the Board of Directors and current CEO Johan Rost agree that a change in the CEO position should be made. The Board of Directors has therefore appointed Bo Strandberg, board member in SIX AB (publ), as interim CEO from January 1, 2009 for a period of six to twelve months. During this period the company will finalize the recruitment of a new CEO. Johan Rost will work closely with Bo Strandberg to achieve a smooth transition and will remain at the company's disposal for a period of time. The Board of Directors express their great gratitude to Johan Rost for his dedicated work during his period of nearly four years as CEO of the company.

Bo Strandberg, born 1956, is since 2006 member of the Board of Directors of SIX AB, but has since 1994 been engaged in several of SIX AB's earlier Boards. Bo Strandberg has in leading positions been part of the development of Bonnier Affärsinformation (today Bisnode) and Addnode. Bo Strandberg's holds presently Board membership in SIX AB, Xtracom Consulting Group AB, Conoctica Holding AB and Matrix AB.

For more information, please contact:

Ursula La Roche, chairman SIX AB (publ), +41 44 279 2881

Bo Strandberg, board member SIX AB (publ), +46 70 536 5608

SIX AB is a leading provider of financial information to the professional Nordic capital markets. The company has appr. 120 employees and operations in Sweden, Finland, Denmark and Norway. The turnover 2007 was 240 million SEK. SIX AB's majority owner is the international financial information group SIX Tel-ekurs, part of SIX Group AG. SIX Group AG has appr. 3 600 employees in 23 countries. The turnover 2007 was CHF 1,5 bn.