Nordic Aluminium has today at 09.45 received the following notification from Oy Lival Ab:

"A SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE HAS BEEN ELECTED FOR ARBITRATION PROCESS RELATING TO REDEMPTION OF NORDIC ALUMINIUM PLC'S SHARES

The Redemption Committee of the Central Chamber of Commerce has, upon Oy Lival Ab's application requested the district court of Länsi-Uudenmaa to nominate a special representative to look after the interest of Nordic Aluminium Plc's minority shareholders in the arbitration process.

Attorney-at-law Jouko Huhtala has been elected as the special representative. The decision shall become legally valid on 24 October 2012, unless an appeal is made relating to the decision.

The special representative has a right and obligation, on behalf of the minority shareholders, to present facts and evidence supporting the interest of the minority shareholders in the arbitration process. The special representative does not have authorization, on behalf of the minority shareholders, to present or accept demands relating to the redemption or to initiate actions which conflict with the actions of the minority shareholders.
