Artimplant and Tiller signs an agreement

Artimplant AB (publ) and Tiller International Capital have today entered into an agreement regarding a Sales, Marketing and Distribution Agreement which will give Tiller the exclusive right to sell, market and distribute all Artimplant's products outside Europe and non exclusively within Europe.

The detailed operational procedures are expected to be completed within the next four weeks.

The current sales efforts of Artimplant in the USA will be coordinated with Tiller to support both new and existing customers in the best way.

Tiller works extensively with Healthcare groups such as Catholic Healthcare on a Global basis to provide the best possible facilities and treatment for patients. Catholic Healthcare treats 30,000,000 patients a year in its more than 600 hospitals.

"I am very happy and satisfied to enter into this Agreement with Tiller. The Agreement gives Artimplant a good platform to expand the business and also a partner who has a lot of experience from both the US and Global markets", says Kjell Thörnbring, CEO Artimplant.

Anthony N. Georgiou, Chairman of Tiller says, "With our network in the Healthcare systems and the partners we are cooperating with, we see a huge potential in Artimplant's products and are looking forward to a very fruitful future together".
