 - 10) shall publish information as prescribed by the laws in the daily newspaper indicated in the present Articles of Association;
 - 11) shall submit information, as prescribed, to the Shareholders of the Company;
 - 12) shall fulfil other functions established by the laws, the present Articles of Association and decisions of the General Shareholders' Meeting and/or the Board.
- 9.3. The Director shall be elected and removed from office by the Board. The office of Director may not be held by a person who under the laws is not entitled to hold such a position. A person authorised by the Board of the Company must not later than within 5 (five) days notify the administrator of the Register of Legal Persons of the election or removal from office of the Director of the Company as well as of the expiry of his contract for other reasons.
- 9.4. The Director of the Company acting in conformity with the present Articles of Association, decisions of the Board and his working regulations may conclude (sign) the deals of the Company. The Director of the Company may conclude the deals referred to in items 5-11 of clause 8.13 hereof and specified in the decisions of the Board, provided that there is a decision of the Board to conclude such deals. In accordance with the procedure established by the laws, the Director shall be entitled to issue procurations and authorize other persons to conclude (sign) the deals of the Company that are within the Director's competence.
- 9.5. The Director shall be liable for his actions in accordance with the procedure established by the laws.

Article 10. The Audit of the Company

- 10.1. Only the audited set of annual financial statements of the Company may be approved. The General Shareholders' Meeting shall elect the audit firm (the auditor) to control the activities of the Company during the period fixed by the General Shareholders' Meeting.
- 10.2. After the end of the financial year, the audit firm (the auditor) elected must before the ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting audit the set of annual financial statements of the Company and the annual report of the Company. The same auditing procedure shall apply to the set of interim financial statements, when a proposal is put forward to pay dividends for a period shorter than a financial year.
- 10.3. The audit firm (the auditor) elected by the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be obliged to safeguard and keep in secrecy all and any secrets of the Company, which it (he/she) becomes aware of in the course of carrying its functions.
- 10.4. The audit firm (the auditor) elected by the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be liable for the insufficient control of the activities of the Company and/or concealment of deficiencies in activities, in accordance with the procedure established by the laws. The Director must ensure that the auditor receives all the documents of the Company necessary to carry out the audit specified in the contract with the audit firm.

Article 11. Branches and Representative Offices of the Company

- 11.1. Branches and/or representative offices of the Company shall be founded and liquidated in accordance with the decision of the Board. The number of branches and/or representative offices of the Company shall be unlimited.
- 11.2. Branches and/or representative offices of the Company shall act in conformity with the branch and/or representative office regulations approved by the Board.
- 11.3. The heads of branches and/or representative offices of the Company shall be appointed and revoked by the decision of the Board.

Article 12. Procedure for Announcement of the Company's Notices

- 12.1. All notices of the Company, including information and other documents related to the convocation of the General Shareholders' Meeting, as well as notices and information about the reorganization and liquidation of the Company, decisions of the General Shareholders' Meeting and all other notices and documents that must be made known to the Shareholders and/or other persons under law shall be published in the daily newspaper "Lietuvos rytas" or sent by registered mail or delivered in person against signed acknowledgement of receipt. If required, notices may be delivered by fax, followed up by a letter sent by registered mail or delivered in person against signed acknowledgement of receipt.
- 12.2. The notices of the Company shall be sent within the time-limits established by the laws, but if such time-limits are not established, such notices must be published and/or sent not later than within 15 (fifteen) days after adoption of a certain decision or any other document or provision of information to the Director.
- 12.3. The Director of the Company shall be responsible for the publication and/or dispatch of notices in due time.
- 12.4. Notices to the Shareholders and/or other persons shall be sent to the last known address as notified by them. The Shareholders must notify the Company in advance of any changes in their address (registered office).

Article 13. Procedure of Providing the Shareholders with the Documents of the Company and Other Information

- 13.1. At the Shareholder's written request, the Company shall - not later than within 7 (seven) days from the date of receipt of such request - grant him access to, and/or provide him with the copies of, the following documents: the Articles of Association of the Company, sets of annual and interim financial statements, annual and interim reports of the Company, auditor's reports and audit reports, minutes of the General Shareholders' Meetings and other documents whereby the decisions of the General Shareholders' Meeting have been executed, proposals/recommendations and comments/responses of the Supervisory Board to the General Shareholders' Meeting, the lists of shareholders, the lists of the members of the Supervisory Board and the Board, also other documents of the Company that must be made public under law as well as minutes of the meetings of the Supervisory Board and the Board or other documents whereby the decisions of the above-mentioned management bodies of the Company have been executed, unless the said documents contain a commercial (industrial) secret. The list of shareholders of the Company presented to the Shareholders must contain the following information: the full names (name and surname) of the Shareholders, the names of legal persons, the number of registered shares owned by the Shareholders and the Shareholders' addresses for correspondence according to the most recent data available to the Company. A Shareholder or a group of Shareholders who hold or control more than 1/2 (a half) of the shares shall have the right of access to all documents of the Company upon giving the Company a written commitment in the form prescribed by the Board of the Company not to disclose the commercial (industrial) secret. The Company shall provide the Shareholders with other information and documents if so required by law. At the Shareholders' request, the Company must execute in writing its refusal to submit the documents. Disputes relating to the Shareholder's right to information shall be settled in a court of law.

- 13.2. The documents of the Company and other information or copies thereof shall be furnished to the Shareholders at the Company's office. The Director of the Company shall be responsible for the provision of documents and other information of the Company to the Shareholders and/or other persons.
- 13.3. The documents and other information of the Company shall be furnished to the Shareholders for a charge, which cannot exceed the costs of furnishing of the documents and other information. The said charge shall be fixed by the Director of the Company. The Director may decide to deliver the documents and other information of the Company to the Shareholders free of charge.

Article 14. Procedure for Amendment of the Company's Articles of Association

- 14.1. The procedure for amendment of the Company's Articles of Association shall be in line with, and shall not differ from, the procedure prescribed by the Law on Companies.

The present Articles of Association are signed on the 29th of April, 2014.
