About Catena Media

Catena Media was founded in 2012 and is engaged in performance marketing and lead generation predominantly within the iGaming industry. The company thereby attracts substantial numbers of online players through various products and services, and directs them to a number of B2B customers, mainly consisting of iGaming operators. Catena Media focuses primarily on customers who operate online casinos on their own websites. Customers typically use a network of marketing partners, known as affiliates, to promote their products and services and, thus attract more online players to their websites. iGaming operators remunerate Catena Media for each online player that it generates for the operator through such websites as www.askgamblers.com, www.johnslots.com/sv/ and www.rightcasino.com. Catena Media's core markets are Sweden, Norway, Finland, the Netherlands and the United Kingdom. The company has approximately 130 employees. The Group's headquarter is located in Sliema, Malta.
