Lars Ljungälv new Head of Large Corporates in Swedbank

Lars Ljungälv, today Head of Region South in Swedish Banking, has been named Head of Large Corporates in Swedbanks business area Large Corporates & Institutions.

Lars Ljungälv has been working as Regional Head in Swedbank since 2014. He began his career in the independent Savings Banks-sphere, where he has been CEO of both Färs & Frosta Sparbank and Sparbanken Öresund.

- Lars will be a valuable asset in LC&I, not least given the bank's wider corporate initiative. In his new role, Lars will continue to build our corporate business and be part in continuing to refine the business model and strategy to further strengthen our position as a commercial bank, says Elisabeth Beskow, Co-Head of Large Corporates & Institutions.

Lars Ljungälv will be part of the Group Executive Committee.

The current Head of Large Corporates, Henrik Forzelius has decided to leave the bank.

Peter Nordblad is new Head of Region South in Swedish Banking.
