1.3.5. Investments in a Currency other than the Base currency of the Fund

In addition to the base currency of the Fund, the Fund may make investments in the following other currencies: EUR, USD, GBP, NOK, SEK, DKK, PLN, CAD, CHF, and JPY, and in some cases in other currencies observing the investment limitations stipulated in the Prospectus.

2. RISK PROFILE OF THE FUND AND RISKS RELATED TO INVESTMENTS

2.1. Risk Profile of the Fund

The Fund was set up for professional and experienced Investors as well as for those Investors who are not familiar with the capital market opportunities whose aim is to generate profit on capital markets. This strategy comprises risks that include but are not limited to general market risk, specific issuer, liquidity and foreign investment risks, which can adversely affect the value of the Units of the Fund or the value of the Share Certificate of the Fund.

When investing in the Fund, the Investor should take into account the risks involved in making the investment. The performance of the Fund can be affected by various risks. The Company advises that the risks listed in Paragraph 2.2 hereof cannot be considered as complete – only the most significant risks related to making the investment are described. The Investor assumes all the risks related to the investments in the Share Certificates of the Fund. Before taking any decision to invest in the Share Certificates of the Fund, the Investor should read this Prospectus and rely on the assessment of the investment and related risks carried out by himself/herself or by his/her external consultant.

The Fund was set up for professional and experienced Investors as well as for those Investors who are not familiar with the capital market opportunities whose aim is to generate profit on capital markets. This strategy comprises significant specific issuer, liquidity, foreign investment risks (including increased political, economic, currency, information, legal risks, the risk of holding financial instruments issued in foreign countries), intermediary and counterparty risks, which can adversely affect the value of the Units or the Share Certificate of the Sub-fund.

2.2. Investment-related Risks

Potential risks to which the investment in the Share Certificates of the Sub-fund might be exposed can be grouped in several categories indicating potential sources of loss. The operations of the Investment Sub-fund involve risks that arise from various factors. Each type of risk can adversely affect the performance of the Sub-fund and, thus, each of the Units of the Sub-fund. In this context, the following risks must be distinguished to be considered and taken into account by the Investors when making a decision to invest in the Share Certificates of the Sub-fund:

General market risk – a risk that the price of securities as well as their income may change due to the factors related to the interest rate changes (in case of debt securities) or extensive changes in the capital market (in case of equity securities) and these changes are not related to a particular issuer. Adverse changes in market conditions can reduce the value of the investments made by the Sub-fund.

Specific issuer risk – a possibility to suffer loss if the price of a security changes due to the factors related to the issuer of securities or, in case of financial derivatives, to the person issuing the security underlying the respective derivative. The operations of the issuer of the securities or other financial instruments held in the Sub-fund's portfolio can be affected by such factors as issuer's management expertise, economic situation and changes in the industry segment of the issuer, inter alia, the issuer can fail to fulfill its obligations specified in the terms and conditions of the respective issue. Such adverse events can have negative effect on the value of the Fund's investments.

Liquidity risk – a risk that it will not be possible to sell, alienate or deal with the financial instruments held in the investment portfolio within desired time and in the desired amount without substantial losses, as a result of which the respective position will be closed; and a risk that the fulfillment of the requirement of redemption of the Share Certificates of the Investment Fund by the Investment Fund will be suspended or otherwise restricted. It is possible that the Sub-fund might not sell its assets for an acceptable and reasonable price.

Counterparty risk – a risk that the Investors can suffer loss if a counterparty defaults on its obligations before the payment of the transaction's final cash flow. In planning the investment policy of the Fund, the Company takes into account the safety of investments and holding thereof in each particular country and the safety of investing in specific financial instruments and/or term deposits, i.e. it analyses the credit ratings of each country, bank or commercial company. Materialization of counterparty risk may result in partial or full default on liabilities with respect to a particular financial instrument, cause full or partial loss and sustained unavailability of financial instruments, consequently making the execution of orders difficult or impossible and the impossibility of exercising the rights related to financial instruments (e.g. voting rights). The counterparty with whom an agreement on the transaction has been signed may default; the counterparty may also transfer the required funds or financial instruments in insufficient amounts or not transfer them at all notwithstanding the fact that the Sub-fund has fulfilled all its contractual obligations towards the respective counterparty.

Intermediary risk - a risk of loss that may result from an act or omission by the Intermediary, incl. fraud, negligence and improper performance on the part of the Intermediary or improper execution of orders by the Intermediary or improper accounting for financial instruments and/or funds held by the Intermediary and the like. The Company does not begin or terminates cooperation with the Intermediary, if, in the opinion of the Company, the following risks may arise: default risk, reputation risk or risk related to money laundering and terrorism financing.

Intermediary insolvency risk and risk related to the insolvency regimes of other countries – full or partial loss of the financial instruments contained in the Fund's assets, lasting unavailability, impossible or hindered dealing with them, including the impossibility to exercise the rights related to financial instruments (incl. voting rights), inability to access information due to insolvency (bankruptcy) of the Intermediary holding the financial instruments or involved in the execution of orders or a process similar to insolvency which restricts or suspends operations of the Intermediary. In case of insolvency of the Intermediary and other equivalent regimes, there is a risk to recover neither financial instruments nor their monetary value. It should be taken into account that holding of financial instruments included in the Fund's assets and the Intermediary's insolvency process may be subject to laws and market practice of a foreign country which may essentially differ from those existing in Latvia. The rights to financial instruments may be affected by unpredictable decisions made by the legislator, executive bodies or courts of the respective country. The Company may not be able to recover the financial instruments; however, under the Intermediary's insolvency proceedings their value may be compensated (or partially compensated) in cash. In the insolvency proceedings the value of the financial instruments is determined according to the laws and regulations of the respective country. In case of materialization of the Intermediary insolvency risk and the risk related to insolvency regimes of other countries, there is a possibility that neither the financial instruments nor their monetary value is recovered.

Custodian risk - Custodian's inability to operate, erroneous activities or malpractice may adversely affect the Sub-fund and reduce the value of the Sub-fund's assets. The inability of the Custodian to operate effectively may result from its insolvency, bankruptcy, negligence or deliberate illegal activity, as well as other activities without legal basis.

Financial risk - financial risk is primarily related to situations when, due to external factors (factors beyond the Company's control), the Investors simultaneously request redemption of their Share Certificates which results in decreased efficiency of the Sub-fund's operations.

IPO (initial public offering) risk – a risk related to potential investments of the Sub-fund in initial public offerings (IPOs). A risk that the IPO stock market value may be volatile due to such factors as lack of historical market, novel trading, limited number of shares available for sale and limited information on the issuer.

Derivative risk – Investors should be aware that investments in derivatives are subject to high risk. Liabilities or claims arising from such transactions may decrease or cease to exist. The risk of loss in certain situations can be undetermined and may exceed the value of the collateral. If the liabilities arising from transactions with financial derivatives are covered from loans or if liabilities or claims from such transactions are denominated in foreign currency, the risk of loss may increase.

Derivative transactions may result in insolvency and encumber the Sub-fund's assets without a possibility to determine the amount of possible loss in advance.

Other risks – Force Majeure, incl. natural disasters, strikes, riots, criminal activities, disruptions in communication media and information systems, as well as other risks that cannot be predicted or controlled by the Company.

Main Foreign Investment Risks:

- Political risk – a risk related to the involvement of a country/countries of investment in military conflicts and warfare, as well as to changes in the political environment, e.g. violent overthrow of the government, upheavals or other events affecting the economic or political stability - or further development of this country (region), including the changes in the government's course or its priorities of the respective country (warfare, nationalization, confiscation, introduction of restrictions and embargo). This risk is especially typical of the countries which still lack a stable regulatory and legal system, business traditions and culture, among them being certain countries of the Fund's Investment Region. Such factors usually have a major impact on the financial markets of the respective country and thus may adversely affect the performance of the Sub-fund.
- Economic risk - a risk related to changes in the economic situation of investment regions, such as economic recession, excessive inflation, banking crisis, etc.
- Currency risk - a risk that Investors may suffer loss from unfavorable fluctuations in the exchange rates. The Sub-fund's assets may be placed not only in the base currency but also in financial instruments denominated in other currencies. Consequently, there is a foreign currency risk.
- Information availability risk – a risk that there is a lack of true securities market information on the issuer's actual situation or it is inaccessible.

Given that not all of the markets of Fund's Investment Region have common standard for disclosure, there is an increased risk that despite prudent management, the Fund Manager may obtain incomplete information and, as a result, making a favorable investment decision is impossible.

- Legal or regulatory risk - a risk that may inflict additional expenses and/or loss related to amendments to foreign laws, in case of execution of any decisions/acts by the executive bodies, legislator or judicial power. This may result in imposition of seizure or other restrictions on the financial instruments and/or cash forming the Sub-fund's assets (including those held by the Intermediary whereby free alienation thereof is prohibited).

- Accounting and double taxation risk – a risk related to the use of different accounting principles in securities accounting and registration systems in different countries which may cause additional burdens on investments, such as higher tax rates set for non-resident investments; thus, the Sub-fund's assets may be burdened more than if investments were made in the local market.
- Risk of holding financial instruments issued in foreign countries – a risk related to accounting for the financial instruments and monetary funds owned by the Sub-fund held and recorded by the Intermediary in a foreign country as well as to accounting for the rights related thereto. The Investor must be aware that an act or omission and consequent responsibility of such Intermediaries are subject to the laws and market practice in the country of registration of the intermediary which may be less favorable for the Investor and may essentially differ from the laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia and market practice related to holding of financial instruments and the rights related thereto.

2.3. Possible Risk Mitigation Measures

The Company manages the Fund in the interests of the Fund's Investors and will make every effort, to the extent possible, to avoid potential risks or mitigate them; however, the Company does not guarantee that it will be possible to completely avoid such risks. In order to decrease investment risks, the Sub-fund is managed in compliance with the principles of diversification and risk reduction.

When making investments on the Sub-fund's account, the Company obtains sufficient information on potential or existing investment targets, as well as monitors the financial and economic situation of the persons issuing the financial instruments in which the Sub-fund's assets are or will be invested.

When developing Sub-fund's investment strategy and determining investment limitations within Sub-fund's investment policy framework as specified in this Prospectus, the Company analyses the Sub-fund's investments by maturity, geographical spread, currencies, etc. assessing the risk level of each of these factors. The Company strictly observes the standards and restrictions specified in the Prospectus, the Fund Rules and the laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia.

For risk mitigation purposes the Company carries out the following:

- Country assessment according to the ratings assigned by international credit rating agencies;
- Overview of the current political situation of the country;
- Review of the current economic situation of the country.

The Company and the Custodian, within the framework of their competence, will apply all the necessary skills and prudence in selecting, appointing and monitoring their Intermediaries. Notwithstanding the measures taken by the Company and the Custodian, it is not possible to fully avoid the risk related to action, omission or default by the Intermediary.

The risks referred to in the Prospectus are mitigated, inter alia, by the activities of the Financial and Capital Markets Commission of the Republic of Latvia which monitors and inspects the Company and the circulation of Share Certificates in the Republic of Latvia and in other countries on a regular basis and protects Fund's Investor interests through various provisions.

The investment strategy of the Sub-fund is developed to minimize, as far as possible, the risks referred to in Paragraph 2.2 hereof; however, the Company does not guarantee that it will be possible to fully avoid these risks in the future.

3. INVESTMENT LIMITATIONS AND DESCRIPTION OF THE INVESTING PRACTICE OR METHOD USED IN THE FUND MANAGEMENT

According to the provisions laid down in Chapter 11 hereof, the Investor must cover all expenses related to the redemption of the Share Certificates (bank charges for operations with financial instruments/settlement accounts, transactions, holding, etc.).

The charges specified in this chapter are incurred and paid by the Investor personally; and the amount of the respective fee is determined by the credit institution or financial institution at which the Investor has opened a financial instrument account and holds the Share Certificates of the Fund.

In specific cases, if the Investor is a professional customer within the meaning of Directive 2004/39/EC of the European Parliament and the Council and, if the Company has separately agreed on this with the Investor, the Investor needs not to open a financial instrument account according to the provisions of Paragraph 10.1. In this situation, the nominal account of the Investor is opened by the Company with the Custodian of the Fund.

10.3. Methods and Frequency of Calculating the Sales Price of the Share Certificates

The sales price of the Share Certificates of the Sub-fund is variable and determined together with the value of the Unit of the Sub-fund on each business day.

The sales price of the Share Certificates consists of the value of the Unit of the Sub-fund to be purchased and the entry charge for sale of Share Certificates referred to Paragraph 7.1 hereof.

The sales price of the Share Certificates is based on the value of the Unit of the Sub-fund which is determined on the day of the receipt of the application for the acquisition of the Share Certificates of the Sub-fund and published on the next business day.

10.4. Sub-funds Value Calculation Frequency and Information on the Sub-funds Value

The Sub-funds' value is determined on each business day after the Company receives from the Custodian the statement on the Sub-funds' portfolio which is submitted to the Company on each business day after 17:30.

On each business day, starting at 10:00 am (Latvian time), the Company discloses information on the Sub-funds' value determined for the previous business day; the information may be obtained by calling the phone numbers stated in the Prospectus or directly at the office of the Company or at the Distributors' offices; this information is also published on the websites of the Company and the Distributors.

10.5. Payment Procedure

The Share Certificates are issued only upon full payment of the price of the respective certificates in cash.

The Share Certificates of the Sub-funds are sold at the price determined for the day when the Company received and accepted the application for the acquisition of the Share Certificates.

According to Paragraph 10.1 of the Prospectus, the Company or the Distributor calculates, depending on the purchase mode chosen by the Investor, the number of the Share Certificates corresponding to the specified amount of money or the amount of money corresponding to the specified number of the Share Certificates.

Not later than within five business days after the submission of the application for the acquisition of the Share Certificates to the Company or the Distributor, the Investor must pay the price of the Share Certificates by transferring the respective amount to the Sub-fund's account opened with the Custodian. If, within the prescribed time period, the relevant amount of money for purchase of the Share Certificates has not been credited to the Sub-fund's settlement account, the application is considered to be void. The above does not affect the Investor's obligation to cover the resultant losses incurred by the Fund and the Company.

If the Custodian holds the settlement and financial instrument accounts for the Investor, the submission of the application for the acquisition of the Share Certificates of the Sub-fund to the Company or the Distributor shall be deemed as an order to purchase the financial instruments. On the basis of the application for the acquisition of the Share Certificates of the Sub-fund, the Custodian carries out settlements of cash and financial instruments. The Custodian debits the amount of money necessary for purchase of the Share Certificates from the Investor's account and credits it to the Sub-fund's settlement account with the Custodian. After the receipt of the money in the Sub-fund's settlement account opened with the Custodian, the Company issues Share Certificates and immediately transfers them to the Investor's financial instrument account opened with the Custodian.

If the Investor's settlement and financial instrument accounts are held with another account holder or the Share Certificates being purchased are not held in financial instrument accounts, the Investor must credit in person the amount of money necessary for purchase of the Share Certificates of the Sub-fund to the Sub-fund's settlement account with the Custodian. The Investor can choose to receive the transaction confirmation containing the exact amount of money that the Investor must credit to the Sub-fund's settlement account with the Custodian either at the office of the Company or by fax or at the Distributor according to its procedures.

The Company issues new Share Certificates only after the Investor has credited the amount of money required for the acquisition of the Share Certificates to the Sub-fund's settlement account with the Custodian.

The Share Certificates are credited to the Investor's financial instrument account not later than within three business days after the money is credited to the Sub-fund's account.

The payments for the Share Certificates are made in base currency of the Fund.

The payments for Share Certificates may be made according to other procedures:

- Upon a mutual agreement between the Investor and the Company;

- Upon an agreement between the Investor and the Distributor which does not contradict the Prospectus and the agreements signed between the Investor and the Distributor;
- Upon the request of the Company if the amount of money to be invested in the Sub-fund by the Investor exceeds 5% of the Sub-fund's net asset value.

All expenses incurred by the Investor with regard to the purchase of the Share Certificates (bank charges for the operations with financial instrument/settlement accounts, etc.) are borne by the Investor. If the Investor fails to credit to the Fund's account with the Custodian the amount of money necessary for full payment of the price of the Share Certificates, the Investor must cover all costs and losses to the Fund incurred as a result of the failure to execute the application for the acquisition of the Share Certificates.

10.6. Payment Procedure by Using Nominal Accounts

When purchasing the Share Certificates according to the procedure specified in Paragraph 10.2 hereof without opening the financial instrument account, the Investor must credit in person to the Fund's settlement account with the Custodian the amount of money necessary for the purchase of the Share Certificates. The Investor can receive the transaction confirmation containing the exact amount of money the Investor must credit to the Fund's settlement account with the Custodian at the office of the Company at his/her discretion by fax, e-mail or other electronic communication means according to the prior agreed procedure between the Company and the Investor.

The Company issues new Share Certificates only after the Investor has credited the amount of money necessary for purchasing the Share Certificates to the Fund's settlement account with the Custodian or according to any other prior agreed procedure between the Company and the Investor.

The Share Certificates are transferred to the Investor's nominal account opened by the Company not later than within three business days after the receipt of the money in the Fund's settlement account.

The Investors are entitled to demand at any time that the Share Certificates owned by them and held in the nominal account of the Company are reregistered in their name. In such case, the Investor must open a financial instrument account with the Custodian and give an order to transfer all the Share Certificates owned by him/her to this account. However, the Company has the right to reject such reregistration if the use of the nominal accounts is bound by some specific compulsory jurisdiction or required due to legal, regulatory or practically unavoidable reasons.

10.7. Sale of Share Certificates on the Secondary Market

The Share Certificates of the Sub-funds may be purchased or sold on over-the-counter market according to the Financial Instrument Market Law of the Republic of Latvia. The Company does not determine prices for transactions with the Share Certificates on the secondary market, and the Company is not to be held responsible for price fluctuations and liquidity of the Share Certificates of the Sub-funds issued by the Company on the secondary market of Share Certificates.

11. REDEMPTION AND REPURCHASE OF SHARE CERTIFICATES

11.1. Procedure for Application for Redemption of Share Certificates

The Company redeems the Share Certificates upon the request of the Investor.

The Company redeems the Share Certificates in the order in which the applications for redemption are submitted and registered.

In order to request redemption of the Share Certificates of the Sub-fund, the Investor must submit to the Company or the Distributor the application for redemption of the Share Certificates.

The Investor may submit the application for redemption of the Share Certificates to the Company or the Distributors at the addresses referred to in Paragraph 10.1 hereof during their business hours.

If the Company has received and accepted the application until 17:30 (Latvian time), it must be executed for the redemption price of the Share Certificates stated for the day of the receipt of the application which is determined after 17:30.

If the Company has received and accepted the application after 17:30 (Latvian time), such application, at the Company's discretion, may be considered as submitted on the next business day.

The application for redemption of the Share Certificates must contain the information stated in Paragraph 9.3 of the Fund Rules.

In the application for redemption of the Share Certificates, the Investor indicates at his/her discretion the preferred redemption mode: a fixed number of the Share Certificates to be redeemed or a specific amount of money for the redemption of the Share Certificates.

Only correctly filled applications are valid. The Investor is responsible for the accuracy and completeness of the stated information. The Company does not bear any responsibility for losses of the Investor caused by incorrect or incomplete application.

11.2. Methods and Frequency of Calculating the Redemption Price of Share Certificates

The redemption price of the Share Certificate is equal to the price of the Share Certificates owned by the Investor to be sold to the Company according to the value of the Unit of the Sub-fund determined for the day when the Company has received and accepted the application for redemption of the Share Certificates.

The Sub-funds' value and the value of the Unit of the Sub-funds are determined on each business day, and this information is available at the office of the Company or by calling the indicated telephone numbers of the Company during its business hours. Such information is also available from the Distributors at their stated address or by calling the Distributor's telephone number stated in Paragraph 10.1 hereof. This information is also published on the websites of the Company and the Distributor.

The redemption price for Share Certificates is paid in the base currency of the Sub-fund.

No charge is applied for the redemption of the Share Certificates.

11.3. Payment Procedure

The Share Certificates of the Sub-funds are redeemed at the price determined for the day when the Company has received and accepted the application for redemption of the Share Certificates.

According to Paragraph 11.1 hereof, the Company or the Distributor calculates, depending on the redemption mode chosen by the Investor, the amount of money corresponding to the specified number of the Share Certificates or the number of the Share Certificates corresponding to the specified amount of money.

Not later than within five business days after the submission of the application for redemption of the Share Certificates to the Company or the Distributor, the Investor transfers the redeemable Share Certificates to the issue account of the Sub-fund opened with the Custodian. If within the set time period the number of redeemable Share Certificates has not been transferred to the issue account of the Sub-fund, the application is considered to be void. The above does not affect the Investor's obligation to cover the resultant losses incurred by the Fund and the Company.

If the Custodian holds the settlement and financial instrument accounts for the Investor, submission of an application for redemption of the Share Certificates to the Company or the Distributor shall be deemed as an order to sell the financial instrument. Upon the order for redemption of the Share Certificates, the Custodian performs settlements with securities and in cash. The Custodian transfers the redeemable Share Certificates from the Investor's financial instruments account to the issue account of the Sub-fund opened with the LCD. After the receipt of the Share Certificates in the issue account of the Sub-fund with the LCD, the Company immediately redeems them and within six business days the Company transfers to the Investor's settlement account the relevant amount of money in the base currency of the Sub-fund which corresponds to the number of the redeemed Share Certificates.

If the Investor's settlement and financial instrument accounts are held with another account holder, the Investor transfers in person the number of the redeemable Share Certificates stated in the application to the issue account of the Sub-fund with the LCD. If the Investor has stated in the application the amount of money to be received for the redeemable Share Certificates, then the Investor can receive the transaction confirmation containing the exact number of redeemable Share Certificates which the Investor must transfer to the issue account of the Sub-fund with the LCD at his/her discretion at the office of the Company or by facsimile or from the Distributor according to the Distributor's prescribed procedure. After the receipt of the Share Certificates in the issue account of the Sub-fund with the LCD, the Company immediately redeems them and within six business days transfers to the Investor's settlement account the relevant amount of money in the base currency of the Sub-fund which corresponds to the number of the redeemed Share Certificates.

If the Share Certificates are held in the nominal account with the Company, then the Company immediately redeems the respective Share Certificates and transfers the amount of money corresponding to the number of the redeemable Share Certificates in the base currency of the Fund to the settlement account indicated by the Investor not later than within six business days.

All expenses incurred by the Investor with regard to the redemption of the Share Certificates (bank charges for operations with the financial instrument/cash settlement accounts, etc.) are borne by the Investor.

If the Investor or Investors within 3 business days submit applications for redemption of the Share Certificates of the Sub-fund which together exceed 10% of the Sub-fund's net asset value and their execution may substantially affect the interests of other Investors, the settlement period for redemption may be extended to ten business days.

The Company is obliged to execute only those applications that precisely contain all the necessary information. The Investor is responsible for the accuracy and completeness of the stated information.

If the Investor fails to transfer the redeemable Share Certificates to the issue account of the Sub-fund with the LCD according to the procedure and within the time period referred to in this paragraph, the Investor covers all costs and losses incurred to the Sub-fund as a result of the failure to execute the application for redemption of the Share Certificates.

After redemption of the Share Certificates the Investor loses all rights associated with the ownership of the Share Certificates, excluding the claims to the extent of the redemption price.

The Share Certificates of the Sub-fund are transferable securities, and the Investors can alienate them without limitations. The Company has no right to determine the price of the Share Certificates on the secondary market, and the Company is not responsible for the price fluctuations of the Share Certificates on the secondary market.

11.4. Rules and procedure for Repurchase of Share Certificates

If information of significant importance for determining the value of the Share Certificates presented in the Prospectus and the accompanying documents is incorrect or incomplete due to the Company's fault, the Investor is entitled to demand that the Company repurchases his/her Share Certificates and reimburses him/her for all losses incurred.

Such a claim must be filed within 6 months from the date when the Investor finds out that such information is incorrect or incomplete, but in any case not later than three years from the date of purchase of the Share Certificate.

Repurchase of the Share Certificates is not to be considered as redemption of the Share Certificates.

The Investor can submit the application for repurchase of the Share Certificates to the Company in writing together with documents certifying the fact that the Investor has suffered loss due to the Company's fault as in the Prospectus and the accompanying documents the Company has presented incorrect or incomplete data of significant importance for determining the value of the Share Certificates.

The Company may temporarily suspend repurchase of the Share Certificates of the Sub-fund in exceptional cases if the repurchase is impossible due to force majeure circumstances which are beyond the control of the Company and the Sub-fund. Repurchase of the Share Certificates can be suspended if the Commission exercises its rights to restrict the Company's rights to alienate the Sub-fund's assets. The Share Certificates of the Fund may not be repurchased in case the Fund is being liquidated; if the Fund is liquidated, the claims of the Fund's creditors and Investors are satisfied according to the procedure laid down in the laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia.

11.5. Conditions for Suspension of Redemption and Repurchase of the Share Certificates

In case of extraordinary financial markets conditions (temporary shutdown of stock exchanges, banks, brokerages or any other reason preventing transactions in financial instruments) or due to force majeure, the Company may temporarily suspend trading of the Share Certificates of the Sub-fund. The Company will immediately inform every Investor directly or publish a respective announcement on the website of the Company at www.cblam.lv.

Redemption and repurchase of the Share Certificates may be suspended if the Commission exercises its right to restrict the rights of the Company to manage the Sub-fund's bank accounts, and in the event of liquidation of the Sub-fund.

Redemption and repurchase of the Share Certificates is prohibited after the start of liquidation of the Sub-fund.

If the Sub-fund is liquidated, the claims of the Sub-fund's creditors and Investors are satisfied according to the procedure laid down in the laws and regulations.

12. METHODS AND PROCEDURE FOR THE FUND VALUATION

12.1. Principles of Sub-funds' Asset Valuation

The accounting records of the Sub-funds of the Fund are kept according to the Law, the Regulations on Preparation of Financial Statements of Investment Funds issued by the Commission as well as other laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia. For valuation of the items of financial statements, the International Accounting Standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board are applied.

The Company ensures that accounting records of each Sub-fund are kept separate. Accounting records are maintained in the base currency of the Sub-fund. The transactions in foreign currencies are translated in the reporting currency of the Fund at the currency exchange rate published by the news and information agencies "Bloomberg", "Reuters" or similar information sources.

The Sub-funds' assets are valued according to the following accounting principles:

- 1) Going concern principle;
- 2) The same asset valuation principles as used in the previous reporting year;
- 3) Prudence principle:
 - Financial statements comprise only the profit generated to the date of the balance sheet,
 - All possible costs are taken into account regardless of the time of their occurrence (i.e. those related to the reporting period and to the previous reporting periods);
- 4) Income and expense incurred during the reporting year are taken into consideration irrespective of the payment date or the invoice issuance date;
- 5) All items having a material impact on the evaluation or decision making by the users of the financial statements are disclosed;
- 6) Assets and liabilities items have been valued separately;
- 7) All transactions are recorded and disclosed according to their economic content and nature rather than their legal form.

In exceptional cases deviations from the above accounting principles are allowed. Any such case shall be explained in the notes to the financial statements, stating its impact on the assets and liabilities, financial position and financial results of the Fund.

The Sub-fund's value (also referred to as the Sub-fund's net asset value) is the value of the assets of the Sub-fund less the value of the Sub-fund's liabilities.

Value of the Unit of the Sub-fund is the Sub-fund's net asset value divided by the number of the Share Certificates of the Sub-fund in circulation.

The number of the Share Certificates of the Sub-fund in circulation is the number of the Share Certificates issued less the number of the Share Certificates withdrawn from circulation upon the receipt of the application for redemption.

The Sub-fund's net asset value, including the value of its assets and liabilities, and the value of the Unit of the Sub-fund are determined on a regular basis – on each business day after 17:30.

According to the requirements specified in the Prospectus and the laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia, the assets of CBL Strategic Allocation Funds may only consist of financial assets (see the definition of the "financial instruments").

The Fund Manager divides all the financial assets included in the Sub-fund into the following categories:

- Financial assets held for trading;
- Financial assets held to maturity.

Financial assets held for trading are financial assets purchased or acquired mainly with the objective of generating a profit from short-term price fluctuations.

Financial assets held to maturity are financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturity that an entity has positive intent and ability to hold to maturity.

The Fund Manager is entitled to include financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturity in the category of the financial assets held to maturity if it has the positive intent and ability to hold such financial assets to maturity.

The Fund Manager classifies the financial assets with fixed maturity at the time of their acquisition and reviews the asset classification on a regular basis (at the end of each month).

The valuation of the Sub-fund's assets is carried out on a prudent basis. In the valuation of the financial assets the Fund Manager applies the following principles:

- Financial assets held for trading are valued at their fair value. The fair value is the amount of money for which an asset may be exchanged or liabilities may be settled in a in an arm's length transaction between knowledgeable and willing parties.
- Financial assets held to maturity with fixed maturity are valued at amortized cost using the effective interest method (see Paragraph 12.1.2).

Financial assets are initially recognized in financial statements at cost which is the fair value of consideration given to acquire the asset. The cost includes the transaction costs directly related to the acquired financial asset.

12.1.1. Valuation of Debt Securities Held for Trading

The fair value of debt securities held for trading purposes that are listed on stock exchanges or traded on other regulated markets is based on the last published market prices known to the Custodian.

If the security income is paid out in the form of coupon payment and the stock exchange price does not include the accrued interest or the coupon portion, it is added to the amount that corresponds to the time period from the starting date of coupon calculation to the date of calculation of the Sub-fund's value.

12.1.2. Valuation of Debt Securities Held to Maturity and Debt Securities not Publicly Traded

Debt securities held to maturity and debt securities not publicly traded on stock exchanges or on other regulated markets are valued at amortized cost, which is calculated using the effective interest rate method, i.e. the securities are stated at cost plus amortized discount or premium (Agio, Disagio). Income is recognized and the carrying amount is reduced by using the rate that precisely discounts the future cash flow (until the financial asset maturity or the repricing date) to the financial asset present value.

If the security is paid out in the form of coupon, the accrued interest or the coupon portion is added to the extent corresponding to the period of time from the starting date of such coupon calculation until the date of calculation of the Fund's value.

12.1.3. Valuation of Equity Securities

The value of equity securities listed on the stock exchanges or traded on other regulated markets is based on the last published market prices known to the Custodian.

Equity securities not listed on stock exchanges or traded on other regulated markets are valued at acquisition cost. Following the prudence principle, such assets are valued at the lowest price if such is known to the Custodian through the transactions carried out by its customers or on the market. Information on market transactions can be obtained from official and public information sources (e.g. newspapers, news agencies).

12.1.4. Valuation of Share Certificates of Investment Funds

The value of Share Certificates investment funds or similar or equivalent collective investment undertakings is based on the last available redemption price of the Share Certificates on the day of calculation of the Sub-fund's value.

12.1.5. Valuation of Term Deposits

All term deposits are classified as financial assets held to maturity and valued by adding the accrued interest (which is calculated over the period from the last date of interest payment to the date of calculation of the Sub-fund's value) to the principal amount of such term deposit.

12.1.6. Valuation of Derivatives

Derivatives listed on stock exchanges or traded on other regulated markets are valued at a price for which the instrument can be sold (the last purchase price at the market close on the day of calculation of the Fund's value).

Derivatives not publicly traded on stock exchanges or on other regulated markets are valued at their redemption price or at compensatory transaction price confirmed in writing by the transaction partner on the day of calculation of the Fund's value or at a price that is calculated on the basis of the market price of the underlying asset. A compensatory transaction is a transaction that liquidates a derivative.

Futures are valued at the market bid price on the respective stock exchange or regulated market where they have been concluded as of the moment of the stock exchange closing on the date of calculation of the Fund's value.

Currency forwards are valued at fair value applying the position-closing cost method. The fair value of a currency forward is the difference between the value of the currency purchased and the value of the currency sold, revaluated at the compensatory forward rate at the date of calculation of the Fund's value. If the rate confirmed by counterparty is not available, a transaction shall be valued at price that is calculated on the basis of the market price of the underlying asset, i.e. applying the current exchange rate and market interest rates.

A currency SWAP is an instrument that consists of two parts – a spot and a currency forward transaction. Therefore, each part of the transaction is valued separately by applying the methods used for the valuation of the respective instrument.

12.1.7. Translation of Assets in Currencies Other than the Base currency of the Fund

Assets and liabilities in currencies other than the base currency of the Sub-fund are translated in the base currency of the Sub-fund at the exchange rate of the respective currencies stated by the news and information agencies such as: Bloomberg, Reuters, or other equivalent source of information at the date of calculation of the Sub-fund's value.

12.2. Calculation of the Value of Liabilities

The value of liabilities equals the sum of all payments charged to and attributable to the Sub-fund, including fees payable from the Sub-fund's assets to the Company, Custodian, Auditor of the Fund and third parties, and the liabilities arising from loans and other liabilities of the Sub-fund.

Liabilities in foreign currencies are translated in the base currency of the Sub-fund at the exchange rate of the respective currencies stated by the news and information agencies: Bloomberg, Reuters or other equivalent source of information at the date of calculation of the Sub-fund's value.

12.3. Income and Expense Accounting
